The Magic of Spring Creeps Into Footwear

Shoes—Shoes—Shoes! Pick up a fashion paper anywhere this Spring and you can't find a costume idea that doesn't emphasize SHOES.

The subject may be gloves as an accessory but shoes must match gloves to complete the effect—the story is half told where shoes are forgotten.

Shoes are "trimming" this Spring. The sash, the scarf, the boutonniere, gloves add a chic that shoes supplement nicely. The brocade matches the evening gown in luxury. Satin completes the afternoon gown. Kidskin the tailored suit. The sport shoe sticks to the sport costume.

Each in its place as gay and appropriate as a songbird's notes on a sunny morning. The wrong shoe reminds one of a makeshift-like galoshes in the winter—they never look right but are necessary. In the Spring it's different—things must be right. Our new styles are built to make Spring costumes more Springlike.

—SHOP from Holman's Catalog
—SUMMERSIDE AGENT.—Mr. Bryon MacDonald of the MacDonald Drug Co. is now Guardian representative in Summerside and will be pleased to receive news, advertising, new and renewal subscriptions and Job Printing. Mr. MacDonald sells the Morning Guardian at his store. His Telephone No. is 12-2.—t.

—ENJOYS HOLIDAY.—Mr. Alfred E. McNeill, Kensington left Thursday morning en route for Boston where he proceeded to Westley, R. I. He had been spending a short recreation at his former home where he enjoyed a well-earned respite. He is an architect and builder and has made a reputation at home and abroad. His cousin, L. S. McNeill, Westley, R. I. has established a substantial reputation in Rhode Island and Mr. Alfred seems destined to measure up to the standard of his cousin.—y.

—PLAY ENJOYED.—Capitol Theatre was crowded to capacity on St. Patrick's night when the three act comedy drama "His Uncle's Niece" was presented under the auspices of our local talent, the presentation was well handled from start to finish and the frequent applause showed the hearty approval of the audience. The scene of the third act centred at Uncle Simon's newly acquired summer home at Happy Valley Junction and brought forth enthusiastic applause. Solos by Leoni LeBlanc and Albert Huestis were fitting specialties. Sale of candy Cast of characters:—Richard Fate a rising young lawyer, Mr. George Clow; Francis Felton, the cause of all the trouble, Mr. John Cameron; Dore Hale, very much attached to the cause, Miss Lucy Gillis; Alice Malcolm, a close chum of Dora's; Miss Gertrude Cameron; Mrs. Sarah Ann Mullen, a woman of few words from Happy Valley, Kathleen Cameron; Simon F. Fulton Frank's uncle, who never makes a mistake, William Kelly; Philander; Filmore, humble and wise, Hazen McLellan; Timothy Hays, gardener; at Happy Valley Jct. Hillar Cameron; Silas Sicklemore, constable at Happy Valley, Earl Campbell. God Save the King.—H.

—ST. PATRICKS AT KENSINGTON.—The annual celebration of the Feast of St. Patrick was observed in the Strand Theatre, Kensington on the evening of 17th in the presence of a large and appreciative audience. Dr. E. G. Gillis, very capably presided, kept the programme smoothly developing and maintained in the audience the best of good humor. The programme:—Instrumental, Messrs. Brown and Ready; vocal solo, Mrs. Ready; vocal solo, encored, Master S. Gillis; character solo, Thos. N. Douchoe; vocal solo, Mrs. Frank Ready; address, Rev. Dr. Monaghan; declamation, Miss Jean McFadyen; drill, "The Little Shamrock" girls; intermission, sale of candy; vocal solo, Miss A. Babain; comedy drama, Act 1; vocal solo, Miss M. Harrington; comedy drama, Act 2; God Save the King. The several numbers were rendered in a manner commensurate with their importance and were adequately enjoyed by the audience. The address by Father Monaghan was a lucid and forceful exposition of the relation of the home to citizenship and to society in general. He clearly portrayed what influence the good, well ordered home has upon the children who must constitute the men and women of the rising generation. The home is the unit of society, and the more thoroughly the home is developed to approach perfection the nearer does society, the result of the united homes, attain to its proper object. No social community can be morally healthy that is not founded on sound moral homes. Very important it is then to see that life in the home approaches as near as possible to its full perfection. The address contained much salutary advice which society might well observe and which, if followed would sensibly improve existing conditions. The whole celebration was effectively staged and constitutes another milestone on the march of illustrious Irish history.—y.

—INSTITUTE MEETING—The regular meeting of the Georgetown Women's Institute was held in the Council room Thursday, March 13th, with an attendance of ten members and five visitors. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. J. W. McPhee and Miss M. McDonald. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Donovan and Mrs. L. H. Douglas. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.—A.

—GLYNDE RIVER.—Mr. Jas. Ernest Cousins left home last Tuesday to take orders for his White Flame lamp burners and arrived home Wednesday. Ernie was out in some bad storms but did not seem to mind them.—Mr. Martin Doyle is giving excellent service driving the mail.—Miss Trace Donnette is giving the pupils of Millvale school a good training.—Messrs. William McCourt and Eric and Hazel and Gladys Cousins and Norma MacKenzie spent a very enjoyable evening at Mr. John Saunders. Mr. William McCourt entertained by singing some very pretty songs. The Misses Gladys and Norma MacKenzie also sang a few songs.

—SOCIAL A SUCCESS.—The entertainment and basket social held at Portune Bridge on the evening of March 11th was a decided success from every point of view. The evening being fine the hall was crowded to the doors. The roads were good and a large number of people had come from surrounding districts. Mr. W. H. Underhay, acting as chairman, opened the meeting at 8 o'clock with a few well chosen words, then called on the opening number of the program which was rendered in an excellent manner and indeed very number throughout was a rare treat in itself and was staged in a professional manner. Special mention must be made of the Rollo Bay Orchestra which helped out so much in making the evening so enjoyable. They were encored time and again and responded very time with something good. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howlett of Antigonish also gave the audience a treat with their Scotch songs and obly responded to repeated encores. Special mention must also be made of Mr. Alex McPhee of Georgetown who helped to make the social a success it was. At the close of the program the Rev. Mr. Lockhart spoke for a few minutes calling on the audience or a vote of thanks for the people from outside districts who had helped out so much on the program and this was heartily responded to. Then came the sale of baskets and judging from the way the bidding started and continued throughout was enjoyed almost as much as the program. The sum of $110.00 was realized for a building fund or a new hall.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On the evening of February 27th the following address and presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shaw, West Covehead, by friends and neighbors of Brackley Point and Covehead on the eve of their departure from the city. On this happy occasion Rev. T. A. Wilson favored the company with a solo, A Hundred Pipers, and Mrs. F. B. Auld and Miss Mary McCallum furnished the music. After the presentation all joined in singing, "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgotten" and the evening was passed in music and games.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Shaw: We your friends and neighbors of Covehead and Brackley Point are here tonight to assure you of the warm place you have in our hearts, and to tell you that we are very sorry you are moving away. You have always entered heartily into our social life, and we shall miss you greatly from our homes. We feel too, what a loss to our church life your departure will mean. Everyone of us, appreciates,

Has Your Husband Got Indigestion?

Nothing creates domestic discord quicker than an attack of indigestion, and nothing gets rid of indigestion quicker than Bisurated Magnesia. No man can be sweet tempered, good natured or even fair minded when his stomach is constantly sick, sour, gassy, and upset with after-eating distress. If your husband has stomach trouble neither could nor play him, but help him by seeing that he has a supply of Bisurated Magnesia (either powder or tablets) constantly at hand. A teaspoonful of powder or two tablets taken in a little water after meals will instantly neutralize the acids in his stomach that are causing his trouble and he can enjoy his meals with no more fear of indigestion. Bisurated Magnesia is the special form of Magnesia used by thousands to neutralize stomach acidity and quickly overcome indigestion—do not confuse with Milk, Carbonate, Bismuth or Citrate of Magnesia. Insist on Bisurated. Its action is safe, prompt and sure and it can be obtained at small cost from any reliable drug store.
