All services begin at 7.30. Rev. J. Heaney, Minister.

FOR NEWFOUNDLAND.—The schooner Victory Chimes, which was built at Cardigan and completed this winter, is now on her way to St. John's, Nfld., having sailed from Georgetown last week being towed by the C. G. S. Stanley to a point 15 miles Southeast of the Margalen Islands. The vessel was loaded with a cargo of potatoes and oats with hay and straw on deck. She is in command of Capt. D. McDonald of Georgetown, the seaman who proved the stuff he was made of some months ago when his ship was torpedoed by the Huns, and made his escape from a German submarine by jumping overboard after he had dealt one of his captors a stunning blow in the face with his fist. The Victory Chimes after discharging her cargo at St. John's will load fish for either Brazil or Spain.
