MADAME CLARY MAY 7.—This is the date when the world's greatest contralto voice will be heard in Charlottetown and daily the interest increases, so that when Messrs Carvell and Bartlett start their canvass of the citizens there is no question as to the reception they will receive. When the concert promoter F. G. Spencer engaged the famous singer for this spring tour, it was with some misgivings as to the reception his undertaking would receive from the people, but now all doubts are at rest, and the limited number of concerts at his disposal viz. forty dates, have long ago been arranged for and the prospects are that each will be the same success as is promised here. Clary will be supported by M's F. G. Spencer, soprano, and Mr. J. A. Kelly, Tenor, together with Miss Mary McCarthy a very capable pianist and accompanist. This will serve to make up the finest concert party ever heard on the Island. Let none forget the date. May 7th

Among those present were: May McMillan, Margaret Buchanan, Laura Beaton, Josephine Beaton, Mrs. Beaton, Jessie and Annie Matheson, Laura McQueen, Miss Forbes, Jennie McPherson, Mary Gillis, Katie Gillis, Miss O'Neill, Effie Campbell, Jennie Gillis, Katie D. Gillis, Miss McKay, Mary McLeod, Daniel Johnston, Dan Gillis, Albert Mellish, Lester Mellish, Samuel McPherson, Hugh McDonald, R. A. Martin, R. J. McGowan, Ed McGowan, Jas McGowan, Henry McLaren, Parker Cassidy, Mr. O'Neill, Mr. Compton, William Hilliday, Daniel Beaton, Charles Carter, Bert D'Oliph, M. J. Gillis, and last but not least Mr. Bart P. Keane, who made the presentation speech. Ice cream and cake were served, after which music and games were indulged in. A special feature of the evening, being a game of whist, in which the ladies' prize was won by Miss Laura McQueen, and the gentlemen's prize by Bart P. Keane. The party dispersed in the "wee sma' hours" wishing Mr. Gillis every success in the land of his adoption.

In the presence of his wife and children Richard Allen Clarke died this morning at his home, 36 Dudley street. Death had hovered about the house but a few hours, and when the last breath of life had ceased there came an end to a life that was faithful, a life that had been spent for his family. The deceased has not been feeling well for some time, but it was not until Monday that the fatal shock came. Mr. Clarke was overcome by an attack of the heart in his grocery store on Fifth avenue, and since that time he had been gradually weakening until death came today. He was a native of Prince Edward Island, but for the past 18 years he had lived in this city, drawing about him a wide circle of friends. He was for years engaged in the carpenter trade, but about five years ago he gave that up and with his son opened a grocery store on Dudley street, in the rear of his home. Strict application of honesty to his business and a courteous word to everybody increased this business to such an extent that larger quarters became a necessity, and a short time ago the store was moved to Fifth avenue. The deceased left a wife and two sons, William Everett and Elmer B., to mourn his loss.—Haverhill Gazette (Mr. Clarke was the youngest son of the late David Clark, Cavendish. He was 49 years old.)

A NOTABLE SPRING ISSUE.—In the May Delineator is the first installment of The Bois-Bru's, a novelette by Mary Hartwell Catherwood, the author of the popular Lazarre. The beginning of the story is intensely interesting and contains promise of highly dramatic events in the later development of the plot. The illustrations by Charles H. Stephens are very striking. Thyra Varrick, Mrs. Barr's splendid novel, ends in this number, and interest is sustained to the last word. The Ring in the Moon is an excellent short story by Philip Merrill Nichols. Juan C. Abelcontibu is a finely illustrated article on Pinhole Photography. Waldon Fawcett describes the Colonial homes of the Washingtons, and exterior and interior views of the old manors are given. A Quest for old Pewter by Frances Roberts, is of especial interest to collectors, and the Savarin Dinner, by Miles Bradford, will appeal to epicures. Blanche Bates, the popular actress, is shown in a number of exclusive photographs. Miss Laughlin presents a stimulating chapter on the education of women, and Mrs. Birney adds another paper on childhood. Also, there is matter for the amusement and entertainment of the children, and of interest to the household. A charming and up-to-date display of current fashions is an important feature.

Paine's Celery Compound CURED MR. KIMPEL.

A Terrible Form of Dyspepsia Conquered by The Medicine That Makes People Well in Springtime.

Dyspepsia, one of humanity's most cruel enemies, is effectually cured by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. The tormenting disease is caused by acute inflammation of the nerves centered about the stomach. In dyspepsia, nervous energy is wasted, and entire digestive organism is deranged. The needs of dyspeptics may be summed up as follows: the great nervous system requires strengthening; the blood now charged with impurities must be cleansed, so that it will flow healthily and in abundance; the stomach, weak and unreliable, must be tored up. Paine's Celery Compound in the springtime will accomplish all that is needed for the dyspeptic sufferer, and banish troubles that make life unbearable. Mr. S. Kimpel, I. Stowel, Ont., says: "Your Paine's Celery Compound is a most wonderful medicine, and I wish all dyspeptic sufferers to know the good it has done for me. I suffered so badly for one year from the worst form of dyspepsia, that I had almost to give up work. I doctor-ed and used many kinds of medicines, and found no relief or cure until I got hold of Paine's Celery Compound. Your medicine possesses such curing powers, that in my case, two bottles set me all right, so that I can work as well as ever, sleep well and enjoy my food. I feel deeply grateful for such a medicine, and at every chance I recommend it to others. No doctor can cure as quickly as your Paine's Celery Compound."

20 YEARS OF ITCHING PILES.

Mr. Alex. McLaughlin, Bowmanville, Ont., writes that for twenty years he suffered terribly from itching piles. Seven years ago he asked a druggist for the best cure for piles and was told to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. He continued this treatment until entirely cured, and as he has never had any return of his old trouble considers his cure permanent and remarkable on account of the length of time he suffered.
