Premier Lloyd George Preparing for Election

Manifesto Will Probably be Published Shortly Announcing Date of Election and Making Answer to the Die-Hards.

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, Aug 9.—Lloyd George is up to his eyes in work on an election manifesto and it is expected that its publication will be synchronous with an announcement from the author of an appeal to the country.
It will be definitely an important link in the chain of propaganda which Lloyd George has been waging for months past to maintain his personal ascendancy and to the revolt of the die hards and the young Conservatives from the Coalition government.
The holiday season has been enlivened during the last few days by trustworthy reports of his affection among junior members of the government who are Conservative in politics and who have shown an inclination during the last few weeks to join the group which demands the immediate dissolution of the coalition or alternatively the replacement of Lloyd George by a Conservative statesman.
These under secretaries have hitherto been patient and loyal servants of their coalition minister chiefs and have formed a strong adhesive element in the coalition but they are now causing considerable embarrassment to Austin Chamberlain, the Conservative leader, who is busy testing the morale of his party.

War Monument Unveiled At O'Leary Yesterday

Impressive Ceremony Accompanied the Dedication of a Huge Granite Boulder to the Lasting Memory of the Heroic Dead and the Valiant Living.

An impressive ceremony was held yesterday morning at O'Leary, where a fitting monument to the memory of those who fell and served through the Great War was formally unveiled and dedicated. There was a large attendance and the fine weather assisted in making the occasion a most gratifying success.
The monument is a unique and striking one, being a large granite boulder measuring about fifteen feet in height and ten feet in width. This huge stone was found in the woods and needed very little tool work, save where the bronze plate, made by a resident of O'Leary, was placed, bearing the names of twelve dead and fifty-two returned veterans from the community.
A G. W. V. A. guard of honor composed of O'Leary men under the command of Major W. E. Taylor turned out at the unveiling ceremony, which took place at 10 o'clock.
After the singing of "O Canada" by the church choir a brief opening address was given by the chairman, Mr. P. N. Pate. This was followed by stirring addresses by Mr. C. Atkinson, of Acadia University and Mr. J. H. Blanchard, of Duval.
The monument was then unveiled by Mr. Peter P. Gotell and the Royal Salute was given by the Guard of Honor. After "Roll Call" wreaths were placed by the G. W. V. A. and a number of young girls. The Last Post was then sounded and the ceremony concluded with God Save the King. The service throughout was simple and beautifully expressive of the sentiment which inspired the placing of this lasting memorial to the undying memory of those who had given of their best so freely in their country's cause. The names of the dead, inscribed upon the monument, are as follows:
H. G. Bryanton, A. O. Gallant, E. Gay, W. Lovell, W. Macdonald, A. Meggison, T. Gotell, A. O'Hara, J. McDonald, D. MacDonald, C. E. McNaught, F. Waite.
In the afternoon a very successful programme of horse racing and athletic sports, details of which appear elsewhere in The Guardian, were carried out.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen Slashes King Government

Before Audience of Ten Thousand People Declares Government Has Turned About and Disregarded All Pre-Election Promises. They Have Added $25,000,000 to Debt of Canada in Seven Months

KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 9.—Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition in the Dominion House, and Hon. G. H. Ferguson, leader of the Conservative group in the Ontario Legislature, dealt with the record of the Federal Conservative government in addresses before ten thousand people who attended the barbecue held in Lake Ontario Park this afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Kingston Liberal-Conservative Association. Mr. Meighen charged that the King government had broken every pledge it had made in opposition, and Mr. Ferguson laid the same charge at the doors of the U. F. O. administration. Both leaders were given great ovations by the crowd.
Declaring he preached the same doctrines when he last spoke in Kingston, as the head of his government, whose actions he was then defending, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen (leader of the official opposition in the House of Commons) speaking here reviewed the work of his party in opposition, and the actions also of the government which he had opposed. "The Conservative opposition had never changed its stand, he asserted, "but it had witnessed the loud and reckless enemies of other days being forced to abandon their lines, and with such composure as they could command, swing around on one question after another to the position which we have consistently occupied and which we occupy today. What has happened, has there been a change from sincere initiation to clumsy imitation."
Legislation Scant.
The past session, Mr. Meighen asserted, had produced a "crop of legislation that was scant, limp and sickly. Less was accomplished in seven months by the King government than would have been accomplished by the programme for its predecessors.
Mr. Meighen dealt with his pre-election statements on the tariff. He urged that Canada declare for a moderate tariff and had been denounced by Liberal speakers throughout the country. "The Conservative opposition," he said, "was told by Mr. Meighen and Mr. King to denounce the protective principle; into whose hands was placed the solemn pledge of the Liberal party to sweep away all protection on a long list of goods, the main articles used by the people of Canada. The leader of the opposition said he had urged that such a course would be fatal and had pressed upon the people that the Liberal party was seeking power by appealing to the enemies of protection with definite and sacred pledges adopted in the most solemn way, pledged hostility to any form, and was, at the same time, by secret understanding and by furtive chicanery promising at selected points, a repudiation of those pledges as soon as they had done their work." This warning, he declared, had been borne out by later events. The Liberals had forsaken all their proposed tariff changes and had come right back into the footprints of the Government they had denounced. "Instead of a sweeping schedule of free goods, they confined their free list to the provincial parts of the tariff," he said.
Mr. Meighen had been forced to put back into the tariff the provision for the special valuation of German goods, the only defence being that he made it more clumsy and less efficient. The marking of goods, required under the Conservative tariff, was continued by Order in Council, by which one industry could be penalized against dumping of foreign goods had been wiped out and then replaced by provisions that would permit, by Order in Council, of valuations to "any sum on earth" that the government might see fit to fix.
"Under the law, as now enacted by those champions of freer trade, by these crusaders against autocracy, they are able to fix a tariff rate just as high as please and to sweeten it, as Mr. Meighen declared, "their first fiscal duty is to fix it."
"The Liberals, he asserted, had not a progressive programme to offer, and then they faced right around and swept away the few miserable crumbs that had been doing duty for the half loaf.

H.M.S. Cruiser Raleigh Probably Total Wreck

Went Aground in Bell Isle Strait and is Likely to be a Total Wreck. All the Crew Landed Safely.

(Special to The Guardian)
ST. JOHN'S Nfld., Aug. 9.—The British warship Raleigh which has been cruising off the Labrador coast with Admiral Sir William Pakenham on board is aground at Point Amour in the Straits of Belle Isle.
She struck last night and a message received today said she would probably be a total wreck but all on board reached shore safely.
The Calcutta, tender to the Raleigh is standing by the British Cruiser Raleigh, aground in the Straits of Belle Isle. The Raleigh, a vessel of 9,750 tons was built during the war to hunt German raiders.
She was reported to be costly for a light cruiser and too light for battle cruiser squadron service.
The first of a new type of British cruiser, the Raleigh was launched in September, 1919. She has 7.5 inch guns much heavier than usually are placed on light cruisers.
The object was that she might be able to outrange any common raider the enemy might send out. She carried also anti-aircraft guns and the Raleigh was provided with an underwater bilge, designed to make her torpedo proof and she was so constructed that any two of her main compartments could be flooded without endangering her. The Raleigh visited Charlottetown this summer.

U.S. Government Will Seize Railways

(Special to The Guardian)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—President Harding next week will present before Congress for approval the government plan for seizure of certain railroads and coal mines, if the twin railroad and coal strikes show no signs of breaking down by that time, administration officials stated today.
The executive has about abandoned hope for an amicable settlement of the rail strike and is hopeful, but not confident of an early settlement of the coal dispute.
With all his mediation efforts facing failure, Harding wants Congress back on any emergency measures that he may find necessary to protect the public interest, although the executive now has the authority to take over the railroads or the mines when he believes conditions would warrant it. Harding desires congressional sanction for such a drastic step and legislation also would be needed to provide efficient operation.

Britain and France Fail to Agree on German Moratorium

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, Aug. 9.—Premier Poincaré and Prime Minister Lloyd George, are apparently further apart on what is to be done with Germany than before they met and the conference of allied statesmen is in danger of breaking up with Franco-British relations worse than they were and with no decision of moment on the reparations question. They may, however, agree to a short moratorium for Germany.

Chicago Strike Relief

(Special to The Guardian)

Yesterday the Mayor asked the City Council to appropriate $3,000,000 to buy a permanent fleet of motor buses to be operated by the city.
