ISLAND LADY

Grand Representative, One year L. M. Morse, Grand Falls, Newfoundland. More than 500 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs had registered tonight, and the total is expected to reach 700 tomorrow, when the 75th annual session of grand lodge opens.

SEIZURE IN CITY

Fifty gallons of assorted liquors and alcohol were discovered on premises yesterday. It is thought that the cache was brought into the city yesterday morning or during the night previous. Two officers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police made the seizure.

B. I. S. SOCIAL

The up-to-date B. I. S. dance pavilion was once again filled to capacity with eager people, who enjoyed one of the best evenings put on so far by the Society. Many people came a long distance to take part in the modern dancing competition. The director had some trouble to arrange the couples so that the judges might get a clear view of the performers.

MISSSES EDNA DUMAN

Misses Edna Duman and Jessie McLean, who have been visiting in Boston and New York for the past month, returned home on Monday night.

Mrs. George Drew

Mrs. George Drew, Grafton St., has returned from a pleasant weekend with relatives in Picton.

Under Consideration Both Mr. Baldwin's letter and the general terms of Mr. Bennett's reply were under consideration today by a cabinet sub-committee and later by the cabinet itself.

Mr. Freeston presided today at the quarterly meeting of the grand division, of which he is Grand Worthy Patriarch. Reviewing the state of the order, he was optimistic about the future. Despite the depression the Son of Temperance were maintaining strength in most sections of the province and gaining in others.

took steps to check the political passions of his followers. Furious because of outbreaks in which storm troop detachments participated, notably in East Prussia and Silesia-Holstein, Herr Hitler issued most stringent orders that discipline must be maintained.

Complete statistics on the casualties since Lt. Col. Von Pape became Chancellor June 1 are not available. But it is certain that the dead include 5; Communists, 18 members of the Republican Reichsbanner organization, 27 Nazis, one member of the steel helmet veterans organization, five policemen and 39 innocent bystanders including four women.

Opposition newspapers expressed fear the government has moved too late to put an end to the riots and sabotage which have kept Germany in turmoil for weeks. But members of the Cabinet voted the belief that the emergency decrees were sufficiently drastic to stamp out the regime of terror.
