IS TOLD TO "MOVE ON"

When Asked to Do So By The Officer He Readily Complied.

(Vancouver Daily World, Oct. 2.)

W. F. Wilson was some years since the pastor of the Woodgreen Methodist church in an eastern suburb of Toronto. Going into the city he waited for a car in the much crowded corner of Queen and Yonge streets, congested as they are by the departmental store traffic. While the car was coming slowly up the street a big policeman, one of the athletes of the force, put his hands on the pastor's shoulders, accompanying the action with the command, "Move on." Mr. Wilson, who had played in the rush line of his college football team, resisted the whole proceeding, took off the burly officer and declined to move from the crowded corner until his tram came along. The guardian of the peace attempted to arrest the preacher, but he met his man and set off in hot chase after him as he rode off on the car. Whistles were blown, the car was stopped and a scuffle ensued in which the cop, with official reinforcements, carried off his prisoner. Ever since the reverend gentleman, who is now in Hamilton, has been known as "Move-on-Wilson."

Out of a little event occurring a few evenings ago on the corner of Cordova and Carrall streets, by a process of manifold enlarging, it was attempted by a local contemporary to bring disrepute upon the police force, and and it may be a similar nickname to "Move-on-Wilson's" to the Rev. B. Hinson, of this city. Carrall and Cordova is a crowded corner nearly every night, partly because of its situation and partly from the reason that it is a highly favored stamping ground of street preachers and street fakirs. It is one of the few, if it is not the only place in town, where as yet any need is found for an officer to call "gangway." Occasionally an arrest has arisen out of this fact; perhaps two or three since the early days of Vancouver. On the evening in question Mr. Hinson was there and when asked did move on and Officer Mulhera with the courtesy natural to his race, had no trouble in keeping a path open for passers-by. He had forgotten the matter and the reverend gentlemen would not have been annoyed, but for some busy body whose smartness would sharpen itself at the expense of a force that would be held as highly creditable in many a bigger place than this. As the reverend gentlemen said: "The incident was not worth mention and the letter was written behind my back. Its writing up is thus clearly discreditable and uncalled for."

BOER INVASION OF NATAL!

NEWCASTLE TO BE ATTACKED

Dutch Uprising in Cape Colony is Imminent—Basutos Threaten to Rise—More Transports Wanted—1000 British Troops to be Shipped From Canada—Troop Ships at Durban—Kruger's Birthday.

LONDON, October 11.—(Special).—Great excitement was caused today by the news that the Orange Free State troops had crossed the frontier and were marching on Ladysmith.

They entered through the Cloghy Pass and are expected to occupy Newcastle.

[Ladysmith is situated about 30 miles southeast of the Free State border on the line of railway. Newcastle is about 75 miles distant from Ladysmith and nearly due north in the direction of Laing's Neck.—GUARDIAN.]

The Basutos are becoming restive and congregating on the borders and a revolution of the Dutch in Cape Town seems imminent.

The Allan liner Siberian has been chartered to take a thousand troops from Canada, to the Cape.

It is said the Government will require another half million tons of shipping and owners do not know how to maintain their regular service.

The United States Government will send a fleet to Delagoa Bay at once to protect American interests.

PRETORIA October 10.—President

Kruger, in the course of an interview to-day, said he regarded the situation as very grave, and considered it very difficult to predict coming events.

The landing of British reinforcements in Natal, he said, did not trouble him, as he had full faith in the Almighty.

Mr. Kruger declared he knew nothing of the reported intention of Mr. Hoffmeyer, the Afrikaner leader, and Mr. J. Rose Innes, under secretary of native affairs in South Africa, to come to Pretoria, and that there was nothing further regarding the suggested arbitration by the United States.

President Kruger celebrates the seventy-fifth anniversary of his birth to-day.

Seven troopships have now reached Durban. Four thousand five hundred troops have already landed, and it is expected that 4,500 more will be disembarked before tomorrow.

The Dutch volunteers will be sent to Griqualand, south of Natal, so that in the event of war they will not be required to fight their own kindred.

There is no doubt now that the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph was misled when he made the statement that the Boers were occupying Laing's Neck.

It is probable that some Boer patrols who advanced on Laing's Neck during the night and retired at day-break were mistaken for the general body.

WEDDED AT "THE PINES."

Miss Trenaman and Dr. Dickey Joined Hearts and Hands Yesterday.

At noon yesterday at the "Pines," on the Northwest Arm, Miss Marie Louise Trenaman, daughter of Dr. Thomas Trenaman, city medical officer, and Dr. Hugh L. Dickey, of Charlottetown, were united in marriage in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends of both parties.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Nicholson, of New Glasgow. The bride was attended by Miss Lena Jean, of Glace Bay, while Mr. Edwin Dickey, brother of the groom was best man.

The bride's wedding gown was of "smoked" brown material with turquoise silk trimmings. It was made by Sells, of Toronto. The bridesmaid was attired in blue cloth with cerise trimmings. Both bride and bridesmaid carried bouquet, the bride's being white and pink carnations with maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold watch and to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet. Besides these the presents received were handsome and numerous. A handsome fruit spoon from the mother of the groom was much admired. After the wedding a reception was held and lunch partaken of by the guests, who numbered about 30.

"The Pines," Dr. Trenaman's residence, was handsomely decorated for the occasion, flowers and autumn leaves predominating. In the drawing room, where the ceremony took place, the decorations were extremely pretty. It was a veritable flower garden. Mr. Harris, of the Nova Scotia Nursery, attended to the decorations.

After the ceremony the happy couple left on the 4 o'clock train for Upper Canadian cities, after returning from which they will leave for Charlottetown the home of the groom. The bride is an estimable young lady and carries the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

A coincidence about to-day's marriage was that the officiating clergyman married the bride's father and mother, and also christened the bride. Rev. Mr. Nicholson, when reminded of these facts, laughed heartily and expressed himself as being pleased to have performed so many pleasant services for the one family.—Halifax Chronicle.
