—GOES TO ENGLAND—Mr. Thane A. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Campbell, Summerside, sailed from Halifax on Saturday evening by the Furness Withy Line steamer Newfoundland for Liverpool, England, going via St. John's Nfld. It is Mr. Campbell's intention to continue his law studies at Oxford. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. Clair Campbell, and Miss Dora Mathieson who accompanied him to Halifax returned by motor on Monday night coming by way of Annapolis Valley and other points of interest en route.

—MISSIONARY ADDRESS—The North Bedeque Church was well filled on Sunday night when Mrs. F. M. Auld of Noman, China, delivered a splendid address on her work in connection with the mission in Noman and particularly her work in the Weihwei hospital where Dr. Auld is located. Both Dr. and Mrs. Auld have given splendid service to the church in that field. The Doctor is a skilled surgeon and has gone to Montreal and New York for post graduate work in the department of surgery in order to be thoroughly up to date in his work. The aim of the mission is to make the hospital a model for the Chinese to copy. Mrs Auld's work there has been invaluable. She has helped very greatly in nursing and assisting the nurses in every way. Mrs. Auld is a very interesting speaker and delighted all who heard her by her graphic description of conditions in China. Dr. Auld is a P. E. I. boy and his work in Noman will be remembered by the people of his native province. The music on Sunday night was particularly good. Solos were rendered by Mrs. W. N. Jenkins and Gordon McCallum and a duet by Brewer Auld and Miss Henderson a good offering was received for the young Ladies Missionary Society under whose auspices Mrs. Auld spoke.

PERSONALS

—Mrs. Peter G. Clark of Summerside has gone on a visit to Montreal. She was accompanied by her brother, Dr. Sim Carruthers.

NOW THE COSTUME SUIT

"A rose by any other name," is a favorite maxim with the dressmakers. They were out the term "ensemble" long before the costume showed signs of wear. So now comes the costume suit, which is an ensemble under another name. Under that designation come tweed coats with cloth gowns, tuned coats with satin frocks and velveteen suits with smart separate jumpers.

Visitor—I suppose they ask a lot for the rent of this studio, old man?

Artist—Yes, they asked me seven times last week.

Address And Presentation

On September 25th a most enjoyable time was spent in the Pastime Hall when a large number of friends of Mr. Arthur Butler assembled for a farewell party on the eve of his departure to his new home in Caney, Kansas, for which place he left on the morning of the 27th.

The guest of the evening, who is one of Charlottetown's most popular young men, has been in the employ of the City Works Department and has many friends who although regretting his departure are pleased to know he has better prospects in his new home.

Dancing was indulged in during the evening and dainty refreshments were served by the young ladies of the party.

Before dispersing Mr. Butler was presented with an address and a purse of gold. The address was read by Mr. Gerald Maddigan and the presentation made by Mr. Jos. Lonergan.

The following is the address:

Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Sept. 28, 1925

Dear Friend Art,—

The time has come when we must bid farewell. To us it means the loss of friendly companionship, the kind that is found only in true, loyal and steadfast friends. To those in your new home it means a new friend whose worth can only be measured as time goes onward and they become acquainted with the manly qualities with which kind Providence has so generously endowed you.

Though we are gathered here tonight to say goodbye to you we hope that in your new home you will remember those whom you have left behind. We trust that whatever be your vocation you will continue to number us among your friends.

In all our undertakings you have ever been ready to turn out and do your share towards making them a success.

Words will not do justice to place in a written form the esteem in which you are held by all your friends here present, but suffice it to say you are one, true, loyal jolly good fellow, and are Spring shall have come round again we shall realize what a loss we have sustained in your departure from our midst.

In parting we would ask that on behalf of those here present (and some others) that you accept the accompanying gift which is but a tangible token of the friendship that links us.

In conclusion we wish you God speed and showers of success in your newly adopted field of endeavor.

Signed on behalf of those present
Mr. Butler who was much affected, made a suitable reply.
