ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Montreal Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cure Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

The following letter is only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Soon after my marriage my health began to decline. My appetite failed me: I was unable to sleep, and I became very nervous and had shooting pains through the abdomen and pelvic organs, with bearing-down pains and constant headaches, causing me much misery. The monthly periods became more and more painful, and I became a burden and expense to my family instead of a help and pleasure. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. Soon after I began using it I felt a change for the better, and at the time of my next period I noticed a great difference, and the pain gradually diminished until I was well. I am stronger and look better than I did before I was married, and there is great rejoicing in the house over the wonders your medicine worked." Mrs. M. A. C. Letellier, 732 Cadieux St., Montreal, Quebec.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, pelvic catarrh, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Howard Gould Tried to Trap Wife

And New York Journal Scores Him For It—Tried to Hire the Public Police to Do His Private Work

NEW YORK, May 24—The Journal says: It appears that Mr. Howard Gould, a young gentleman of ample means, has desired to secure certain information, or imagined information, concerning his wife. It appears also that he or his lawyers working for him have employed at least one notorious criminal in the interesting effort to ascertain facts or statements which he believes himself to need.

All this sheds light upon our modern "society," but it does not concern the public. If Mr. Howard Gould wishes to hire all the thieves in New York and all the private detectives to spy on his wife that is his business.

But it appears that Mr. Howard Gould or those representing him have seen fit to employ the the public police in the course of the interesting investigation carried on. Heads and subordinates in the public police department have been employed in getting or hunting facts for Mr. Howard Gould.

That is the public's business, and on behalf of the public we should like to tell Mr. Gould politely that it is desirable for him to carry on his secret investigations and hire people to spy on his wife with money out of his own pocket.

Mr Gould may not know it, but his lawyer can tell him, that it is a crime, punishable with a year's imprisonment or a fine, or both to use your private money in bribing a policeman to attend to your private business.

Of course, everybody knows that as things stand, a man with plenty of money can do about as he pleases without much danger of prison. At the same time, Mr. Gould is a man whose personal prosperity might be somewhat affected by public opinion.

And we believe that we give him good advice in telling him that when he wants his wife watched, or when he wants his dog taken out for a walk, in short, when he wants any kind of an errand done, he ought to pay the bill himself, and not unload it on the taxpayers. They have about as much as they can carry now without supplying private detectives to gentlemen who think marriage a failure.

Gained Both In Strength and Weight.

Another Case That Proves The Merit of ..FERROZONE..

"I was in poor health nearly all last winter," writes Mrs. Cross, of Wakefield, Ont. "My appetite was variable, I was weak and unfit for work. I suffered a good deal from nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. My digestion was generally out of order. By springtime I had lost flesh, color, and had a bad cough. The doctor didn't help me very much so I decided to try Ferrozone. It did me ever so much good in one week. I gained strength, looked and felt a lot better. When I had used six boxes of Ferrozone I weighed myself and found I gained fifteen pounds. Ferrozone rebuilt my constitution, and made me a new woman. I consider Ferrozone worth its weight in gold to every weak woman. It cures quickly and saves big doctors' bills. (MRS.) R. CROSS."

No tonic so certain, so helpful, so safe; try Ferrozone yourself, 50c per box at all dealers.

Nerves Gave Out, Almost in Despair

TWO SEVERE CASES OF NERVOUS PROSTRATION WITH WHICH DOCTORS COULD DO NOTHING CURED BY

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. William Graham, Atwood, Ont., writes:—"My wife had been ill for some time with nervous prostration, and we had two of the best doctors we could get, but neither of them did her any good. She gradually became worse and worse, could not sleep, and lost energy and interest in life. She was almost giving up in despair, when a friend advised a trial of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"From the first box of this preparation my wife used we noticed an improvement, and after using six boxes she is completely cured, and as well as ever she was—eats well and sleeps well, and feels fully restored. I cannot say too much in praise of this valuable medicine, and am satisfied that my wife owes her life to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food." This cure is certified to by Mr. C. H. McFarlane, druggist, Atwood, Ont.

Mrs. Alf. Stevens, Burgessville, Oxford county, writes:—"Two years ago last November I was run down, and did not know what was wrong. I could not sleep or eat, and at last my nervous system gave way entirely, and I had to go to bed. The doctor told me I had nervous prostration, and, though he doctored me for some weeks, I did not get any better.

"I then began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and by the time I had used six boxes I was completely cured. People remarked how well I looked, and I said, 'Yes, and I feel well, that is the best of it, and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food did it.'"

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures diseases of the nerves in the only natural and effective way—by enriching the blood and creating new nerve force, 50c a box, six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
