On Sunday last Nov 5th A. Stirling MacKay, Summerside preached an able discourse to the brethren of Calvin Lodge L. O. L. Bradalbane. The sermon throughout was an able and eloquent one, showing clearly the great motives and principles for which this grand and noble order stands; for the spirit of charity it holds for all mankind and also of our indebtedness to the Great Patriarch above from whom we derive all spiritual and temporal blessings. The brethren also extend a vote of thanks to the choir for the selection of such appropriate music and to Miss Lizzie Biggar who in her usual style and manner presided at the organ so gracefully. Mr. MacKay is an earnest and impressive preacher, an excellent orator, and a much esteemed and noble worker and brother in our honorable institution.—Com

MILLINERY

Beautiful and Artistic.

The hum and rush of business is heard in our Millinery department "from early morn till dewy eve," and this is as it should be, for certainly we show a large, superior and extremely stylish range of hats for ladies and misses, many of them being shown exclusively here.

We have the new Feather hats which is the latest New York millinery conceit, also the "Glenary" shape, so much sought after. Patent leather polos and many other novel ideas in Ready-to-wears. We have also, we are told by many ladies, the finest range of shapes in the city, while nothing is wanting to complete our varied and extremely fashionable millinery trimmings.

We hear nothing but words of praise for the work turned out of our millinery work rooms, our new milliner being an artist in her line. If you want to get something you will like in millinery, bring your orders to Miss

West, and whether you want a $3.00 hat or one at $12.00 you may be sure it will receive the same careful attention to details which will result in a charming and becoming creation.

Prompt and courteous attention is assured to all millinery patrons, but we would ask you to leave orders as early in the week as possible.
