Rules, Conditions and General Information of the Contest READ CAREFULLY

Any woman resident of one of the districts named who is of good character and between the ages of fourteen and forty-five, whether married or single, is eligible to compete, provided the conditions set forth below are complied with:

Candidates may be nominated in the regular way or they may nominate themselves, either by the enrollment coupon or letter or they can be nominated by a friend.

All nominations must be accompanied by the proper home address of the candidate.

No employee of The Charlottetown Guardian, nor member of his or her immediate family may become a candidate.

The Contest Department reserves the right to reject any candidate or contestant if it may consider undesirable, without giving a reason for doing so.

The balloting will be by means of single ballots, which will be published in all issues from The Guardian, and renewals and new subscribers to The Morning Daily, Rural Daily and Saturday Guardian will carry votes according to the accompanying schedule of votes.

Votes cannot be purchased.

All money must be accompanied by subscriptions and the names of subscribers must accompany remittances.

Votes will not be issued for a subscription less than One Dollar.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the contest, and may be polled at the discretion of the candidate or the subscriber.

All coupons will be kept for the inspection of contestant at any time during life of contest.

Single ballots (those printed in the paper) must be polled within the time limit printed thereon.

Votes will be allowed on subscriptions secured anywhere.

Votes once cast cannot be changed to count for another candidate.

Candidates will be divided into districts according to their place of residence, but they may secure ballots and subscriptions anywhere.

READ OVER THAT SECTION RELATING TO DISTRICTS: DETERMINE WHICH ONE YOU ARE IN AND SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS TO THE CONTEST MANAGER.

A candidate cannot remove from one district to another and retain the votes to her credit in the former district.

Districts showing little or no activity may be cancelled at the discretion of the Contest Manager, and his decision will be final and conclusive.

In case of a tie in any separate district those tying will each receive the district prize.

A board of three responsible business men will have exclusive control of the ballot box the last day of the contest, and make the announcement of the result of that day's voting and declare the winners.

A list of candidates and their number of votes will be published during the contest.

No promise or agreement, either written or verbal, made by agents, solicitors, or canvassers, beyond those stated above, will be recognized by The Charlottetown Guardian.

The contest opens officially Nov 28, 1911. The balloting will start Dec 2, 1911 and close at 8 P. M. January 27, 1912.

Two Dominion Organs $150.00 each, One to be Awarded to the Second Highest Vote in each district that receives but one Piano.

$10.00 in Gold will be awarded first person nominating Contestant receiving highest number of votes.

PLAN OF CONTEST

Prince Edward Island has been divided into three districts, as follows:

District No. One—Includes Charlottetown, Summerside, Alberton, Tignish, Kensington, Montague, Souris and Georgetown.
District No. Two—Includes all the villages and Post Offices in Queen's County except Charlottetown.

District No. Three—Includes all the villages and Post Offices in Prince and King's Counties except those included in District No. one.

The ladies receiving the highest vote in their respective district will be awarded a $500.00 Upright Willis Piano, Louis XV design, Mahogany finish.

The lady polling the highest vote irrespective of district, after the district prizes have been awarded, will also receive a $500.00 Upright Willis Piano, Louis XV design, Mahogany finish.

The two beautiful organs, valued at $150.00 each will be awarded to the two candidates polling the second largest number of votes in their respective district where but one Piano has been won.

It is distinctly understood that each district will be awarded two prizes. It is further understood that each district will be awarded one of the Pianos, and the fourth Piano goes to the highest candidate after the district Pianos are won. No candidate can win two prizes. A coupon will be printed in each issue of the Guardian and will entitle the holder the amount of votes specified. Paid in advance subscriptions will entitle contestants to votes in proportion to amount secured.

Plan of Nomination—Any young lady over 14 years who lives in territory comprising the three districts, is eligible to complete in the contest. Candidates may nominate themselves or their friends may do so for them. Read over the list of the three districts, determine which one you or your friends are in, and send in your nomination. The Rules of the Contest are very simple. The list of nominations will be published Dec. 9 and the first vote announcement will appear Dec. 16. Get an early start, for the prizes are certainly worth trying for.
