

A Gentle Harmless Laxative Confection

Owing to the failure of the bowels to act properly substances which nature intended to be promptly eliminated from the body remain and, being absorbed, poison the blood and whole system.

Figsen promptly relieves all these conditions and gives permanent relief as well by toning up the bowels and overcoming their tendency to constipation.

Figsen acts mildly. Figsen contains no drastic purgatives. It is perfectly harmless and may be used by children and the most delicate women.

"Golden Opinions"

"I have won golden opinions from all sorts of people."—MAGNET

The Mutual Life of Canada has just published a booklet of "Golden Opinions" contributed by the policyholders and beneficiaries of the Company—the third of this series.

Golden Opinions Many of these testimonial letters refer to the profits which the Company is paying on its various policies. The Mutual of Canada is without a superior as a dividend payer. This is due to two things—economical management and "gilt edge" investments.

Golden Opinions Every day thousands of dollars are paid out to beneficiaries under policies made in their favor, the policyholders having passed away. From these beneficiaries come numberless letters thanking the Company for their promptness in settling their claims—not an hour is lost in placing the money in the hands of the beneficiaries when once the evidence of death has been received.

Golden Opinions A great many of our policies are in the form of endowments which are payable to the assured if he outlives a certain term of years—but payable to his relatives should he die in the interval. These endowments have shown wonderful results owing to the profits paid in cash or allowed as a reduction of premium. All the way from $120 to $210 have been returned for every $100 paid to the Company in premiums—the amount depending on the length of the endowment term.

Let us send you this interesting book of "Golden Opinions."
