

ONE MINUTE NEWS

ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE HELP YOURSELF TO COMFORT!

It's simple to purchase year-round comfort for your home! Thousands have done it by insulating with Johns-Manville Rock Wool Home Insulation.

You'll benefit in every season with J-M Rock Wool. In summer, for instance, even on the hottest day, J-M Rock Wool will keep your home up to 15 degrees cooler than an uninsulated home.

Conservative Meeting Held At Souris

Progressive Conservative policies were outlined extensively at a well-attended meeting held in the Souris Theatre on Friday night where Mr. Donald Fleming, K.C., M.P., spoke in support of the King's County candidate, Major J. A. Macdonald.

Mr. Macdonald dwelt on a number of prominent public questions before the electorate. In dealing with the budget he declared that this government had done nothing for the ordinary laborer and small farmer and fisherman overburdened with the high cost of living.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

Mr. Fleming in an able speech condemned the government strongly for its continued abuse of its authority by the use of orders-in-council. He stressed the serious decline in our export trade and strongly urged the government to deal with these and other pressing problems.

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a purely nature may be inserted in this column, strictly payable in advance.

COOKS for photographs. CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE.

AT YOUR SERVICE—Aristocrat Coal Company, Phone 2983.

COOGLIUM and Rexolium Rugs. All sizes at Downe's Furniture Store, 71 Queen Street.

BEAUTY BY NU-MODE—Our new shop will be open Monday, May 30th on Kent Street, opposite Rensselaire.

WANTED TO PURCHASE a number of Grade Holstein and Jersey cows for Junior Club members. Cows must be from a regular sire and born since January 1st, 1949. Provincial Dept. of Agriculture.

SAD NEWS RECEIVED—The sad news has been received by Mrs. William Hennessey, City, of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Eileen Egan (nee Mildred Hennessey) in Pembroke, Ont.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION—Dr. R.H. Barrett, Charlottetown, left Sunday by plane for Saskatoon, Sask., to attend a meeting of the board of governors of the Canadian Dental Association as director from the P.E.I. Dental Association. He will return June 10.

FUNERAL SATURDAY—The funeral of the late Fergus MacNab Robertson, who died Saturday from his late residence, 53 Upper Prince St. Service at the home and grave was conducted by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The I.O.O.F. and Canadian Legion attended in a body and conducted their services at the grave. The pallbearers were Ernest Foster, Frank Miller, Harold Heaton, Robert Nicholson, George MacDonald, Chester Shaw, Interment P.E.I. Cemetery.

EXCEEDED LIMIT ON TROUT—On Sunday evening two Summerside anglers paddled ashore on Currie's Mill Pond at Glenwood in a rubber dingy. Alas, they found the water so high that they were forced to wait for the tide to ebb before waiting to check their catch. 63 trout found in their baskets—34 in one and 29 in the other—were seized by the officer. It is understood that charges will be laid under the section of the Game Act dealing with an offence of this nature. The daily limit of trout per angler is 20 or ten pounds.

VISIT ANTIGONISH—Twenty three young ladies, from Charlottetown visited Antigonish, N.S. to attend a one day trip sponsored by the Junior Ladies' Society of the University of Antigonish. The girls included members of the Sodality and several of their friends. They were shown through St. Francis Xavier University, Mount St. Bernard's and St. Martha's Convent by an island priest, Rev. Adolphus, who took them to the game office to see the island Nun station in Antigonish. The girls had a marvelous day and expressed hope that a similar visit could be carried out next year.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of David MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Southport, was held yesterday afternoon. A short service at the home, conducted by Rev. E. R. MacVicar, assisted by Lic. Byron Blevins, was followed by a service in Pleasant Valley United Church, conducted by Rev. W. B. MacPhail assisted by Rev. E. R. MacVicar. Interment in the St. John's cemetery, Lower North, by Dean Brown.

I.O.D.E. Pledged To Fight Communism

VICTORIA, B.C., May 29 (CP)—A pledge to combat Communism throughout Canada and a ringing denunciation of that creed keynote the opening session Saturday of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire annual meeting.

Mr. St. Laurent's statement: "I am naturally very much pleased by the evidence which the election results have already given of the overwhelming support from the people of Newfoundland and both for confederation and for the cause of Liberalism."

EXTREMES OF CAREERS

INSULT TO INJURY

CANADIANS SAFE

LEGION FUNERAL NOTICE

WAR VETERANS are requested to attend the funeral of our late comrade Robert Duncan from 217 King St. this morning at 8 A.M.

OLD SPIRIT—Cock-fighting was known in ancient India, China and Persia.

UNDERTAKE EMBALMERS

Father Connolly Honored On His Golden Jubilee

On Friday, May 27th, the entire diocesan clergy from Timlin to East Point gathered in happy mood at St. Dunstan's University to celebrate the golden anniversary of the sacred ordination of Rev. Felix L. Connolly, now residing at the Sacred Heart Home.

On that day, in the year 1899 at St. John Lateran, one of the great basilicas of the Eternal City, after spending with profit eight years in Rome, he with sixty other candidates by the imposition of hands was made a priest of God according to the order of Melchisedech. It was a happy coincidence that two other jubilarians, Rev. Dr. Martin Monaghan of Miscouche and Rev. Terence Campbell of St. Andrew, both of whom spent some of their seminary days with him in Rome, were seated on either side of him at the table of honor.

After a very delicious and well-prepared banquet had been served by the good Sisters of St. Martha in their inimitable way, Rev. Terence Campbell, who presided most efficiently, called several of those assembled, who knew Father Connolly better than the others. Among them was the Vicar General Monsgr. G.J. McLeellan of Summerside. He representing His Excellency the Bishop, now in Rome, referred to Father Connolly's outstanding qualities as a theologian, as a true lover of the fine arts, to enjoy which he had ample scope during his eight years in the city of fine arts.

Others in reminiscent mood recalled his good work in the various parishes of the diocese. Some recalled his musical and poetical process and his crisp golden Irish wit and humor. At which Rev. Dr. Monaghan read a very touching address and a purse was presented on behalf of all the clergy by Rev. Father McCardie, Chancellor of the Diocese.

Then it was Father Connolly's turn. He, in a truly humble spirit acknowledged with cordial thanks the fine gesture on the part of fellow priests. He described some of the highlights of his day in Rome, his ordination day, the happiness of his life and the day of his First Mass said in the Church of St. Louis. He mentioned the body of the patron of youth and his own patron saint. In a very nice way he wandered down through the years to this epochal day, which as he said, he wished to spend quietly, but whose plans were changed by the cordial kindness of his sacerdotal friends. "For a 'Jolly Good Fellow' was sung with such melody as possible considering the various callers of voices and after a prayer of thanksgiving by the chairman, a very happy and memorable event closed.

In the evening at the Sacred Heart Home, the good Superior and Sisters had a very tasty supper prepared for the jubilarians and the resident priests for which he expressed cordial thanks.

That, with his morning Mass attended by the boards of the Home prepared for the jubilarians and the resident priests for which he expressed cordial thanks.

Others in reminiscent mood recalled his good work in the various parishes of the diocese. Some recalled his musical and poetical process and his crisp golden Irish wit and humor. At which Rev. Dr. Monaghan read a very touching address and a purse was presented on behalf of all the clergy by Rev. Father McCardie, Chancellor of the Diocese.

Then it was Father Connolly's turn. He, in a truly humble spirit acknowledged with cordial thanks the fine gesture on the part of fellow priests. He described some of the highlights of his day in Rome, his ordination day, the happiness of his life and the day of his First Mass said in the Church of St. Louis. He mentioned the body of the patron of youth and his own patron saint. In a very nice way he wandered down through the years to this epochal day, which as he said, he wished to spend quietly, but whose plans were changed by the cordial kindness of his sacerdotal friends. "For a 'Jolly Good Fellow' was sung with such melody as possible considering the various callers of voices and after a prayer of thanksgiving by the chairman, a very happy and memorable event closed.

In the evening at the Sacred Heart Home, the good Superior and Sisters had a very tasty supper prepared for the jubilarians and the resident priests for which he expressed cordial thanks.

That, with his morning Mass attended by the boards of the Home prepared for the jubilarians and the resident priests for which he expressed cordial thanks.

Others in reminiscent mood recalled his good work in the various parishes of the diocese. Some recalled his musical and poetical process and his crisp golden Irish wit and humor. At which Rev. Dr. Monaghan read a very touching address and a purse was presented on behalf of all the clergy by Rev. Father McCardie, Chancellor of the Diocese.

Then it was Father Connolly's turn. He, in a truly humble spirit acknowledged with cordial thanks the fine gesture on the part of fellow priests. He described some of the highlights of his day in Rome, his ordination day, the happiness of his life and the day of his First Mass said in the Church of St. Louis. He mentioned the body of the patron of youth and his own patron saint. In a very nice way he wandered down through the years to this epochal day, which as he said, he wished to spend quietly, but whose plans were changed by the cordial kindness of his sacerdotal friends. "For a 'Jolly Good Fellow' was sung with such melody as possible considering the various callers of voices and after a prayer of thanksgiving by the chairman, a very happy and memorable event closed.

Y.M.C.A. Camp Counsellors

Mr. W. E. Arnew, chairman of the Y.M.C.A. Holland Cove Camp Committee announced last evening that the Camp Counsellors for the 1949 season had been selected. The Counsellors are Clive Cudmore, Don Burgess, Ralph MacPherson, Karl Reardon, Hilson Carr, Charlie Hine and Jack MacAndrew.

A short training course will be conducted at the camp for several days beginning June 30th. The course will include instruction in National Y.M.C.A. Swimming and Life Saving Tests, outdoor cooking, camp craft, boat handling, health and safety, leadership skills, woodcraft, and handicrafts.

Counsellors-in-training for the season will include Brian Chandler, Bill Ives, Ian Kennedy, Rory Lantz, Paul Cudmore, and Mark Spencer. These boys will act as junior counsellors and will receive training designed to prepare them to act as camp counsellors in the years ahead.

Jack Pearce, Y. M. C. A. Boys' Work Secretary will be the Camp Director assisted by Ivan Robinson, Paul Cudmore, and the Volunteer Director, Harold Howatt will assist in sports and handicrafts. Both Howatt and Cudmore have received the National Y.M.C.A. "Silver L" award, which is an award for three years' camp leadership.

Mr. Carrie MacNeill and Mrs. Lottie Fraser will return again as camp cooks.

Three boys' camp periods of two weeks each will be operated this season.

The Y.M.C.A. Holland Cove Camp is a joint project of the Y.M.C.A. Club, the Y-Grade Club, and the Phoenix Chapter of the Charlottetown Y.M.C.A.

Teen Town Topics

Teen Town's great variety show was a tremendous success. It was just what all the teen-agers wanted to brighten up their Saturday evenings. Everyone turned out for this great night of excitement, even men and women who enjoy themselves as much as the teen-agers.

The first thing on the program was the great carnival in the gymnasium of the "Y". This consisted of refreshment booth, dart game booth, guess your weight booth, milk bottles booth, basketball throw, fish pond, guess number of ping pong balls, money booth, while upstairs there was, win a kiss room, tea cup reading, pop gun shooting, health and safety, leadership skills, woodcraft, and handicrafts.

All of the booths gave prizes for the winners each time. And most of the rooms upstairs also gave prizes. So everyone was really testing their skill and having a wonderful time.

The variety show was at 8 p.m. which was held in the banquet room. Because of the great crowd of young people, the 17th Regiment, dates back to the days of the "Tenant League". The threat of force by the League in the year 1888 prompted authorities to pull down some 12 years ago as a poor house when it was pulled down.

The building in which the Veteran's Guard was quartered during the Second World War was commonly known as the officers' quarters. It was built in the 1880s and was the old Orderly Room situated just east of the Magazine.

The Magazine was erected and in use by 1888, as a board was detailed by Major Cropley, the assistant inspector of militia, on the 26th August of that year to examine and report on the ammunition stores contained in it, which had just arrived from Halifax.

It is interesting to note that on the 15th of January, 1867, the Present Drill Hall was opened by His Excellency, the Commander-in-Chief Lt.-Governor George Dundas. The first Drill Hall was on the second floor of a large warehouse situated where Mr. Hutcheson's office building now stands just west of the Canadian Legion Home on Grafton Street.

As the summer season was nearly over, it became necessary to provide winter quarters for the troops, and Victoria Barracks was then erected on land purchased on the 4th of September for $400 from Vice-Admiral Bartfield and others. Three long buildings and storehouses were completed in October by Mr. Alley at a cost of $3,500.

The new barracks, but in a few days they were ordered to Halifax. Early in November two companies of the 16th Regiment under Major Sewell took over the barracks, and remained there until the 20th of April, 1866, when they left for Halifax.

Volunteer artillery under Capt. Morris then took over the barracks for a few days until relieved by the arrival of two companies of the 4th Regiment (King's Own) under Major Fitch.

On the 27th of June, 1867, the detachment of the 4th Royals, under Major Paton, left the Island for Halifax, much to the regret of the citizens of Charlottetown. These were the last regular troops on garrison duty on the Island.

On many occasions during the time the troops were stationed on the Island and detachments were sent to the country to aid civil authorities, but if their presence was required at all, they do not seem to have found it necessary to take very much, any action. The presence of the troops prevented excesses.

Fire at Barracks

On the night of the 14th of August, 1866, a fire was discovered in a store building at the barracks. This building stood along the north side of the ground, and it was totally destroyed. It was a convenient fire was the work of an incendiary and the Government offered a reward of $200 for information leading to a conviction, but without result.

From the 16th August, a night guard of one non-commissioned officer and eight men was posted at sunset each evening over the barracks until the 28th August, when it was dispensed with. The guards were furnished from the Irish Rifles, the Prince of Wales and Prince Edward Companies of volunteer militia.

Old Victoria Barracks In Military Limelight

The old Victoria Barracks, Brighton Compound, stepped in Island military history and tradition, is once again echoing to staccato commands, tramping feet and the dull thud of rifle butt.

The Prince Edward Island Regiment (17th Recce), Lt.-Col. A.W. Rogers, commanding, has established its headquarters in the historic building.

It seems somewhat appropriate that when one branch of the Reserve force had to vacate the Armouries or Drill Hall, due to pressure of accommodation, the 17th Recce should seek to restore and put in shape the Barrack landmark at Brighton.

The history of Victoria Barracks, also used previously for the quarters of men while the officers' quarters were in the building now occupied by Mr. Hughes—the northern section of which was pulled down some 12 years ago as a poor house when it was pulled down.

The building in which the Veteran's Guard was quartered during the Second World War was commonly known as the officers' quarters. It was built in the 1880s and was the old Orderly Room situated just east of the Magazine.

The Magazine was erected and in use by 1888, as a board was detailed by Major Cropley, the assistant inspector of militia, on the 26th August of that year to examine and report on the ammunition stores contained in it, which had just arrived from Halifax.

It is interesting to note that on the 15th of January, 1867, the Present Drill Hall was opened by His Excellency, the Commander-in-Chief Lt.-Governor George Dundas. The first Drill Hall was on the second floor of a large warehouse situated where Mr. Hutcheson's office building now stands just west of the Canadian Legion Home on Grafton Street.

As the summer season was nearly over, it became necessary to provide winter quarters for the troops, and Victoria Barracks was then erected on land purchased on the 4th of September for $400 from Vice-Admiral Bartfield and others. Three long buildings and storehouses were completed in October by Mr. Alley at a cost of $3,500.

The new barracks, but in a few days they were ordered to Halifax. Early in November two companies of the 16th Regiment under Major Sewell took over the barracks, and remained there until the 20th of April, 1866, when they left for Halifax.

Volunteer artillery under Capt. Morris then took over the barracks for a few days until relieved by the arrival of two companies of the 4th Regiment (King's Own) under Major Fitch.

On the 27th of June, 1867, the detachment of the 4th Royals, under Major Paton, left the Island for Halifax, much to the regret of the citizens of Charlottetown. These were the last regular troops on garrison duty on the Island.

On many occasions during the time the troops were stationed on the Island and detachments were sent to the country to aid civil authorities, but if their presence was required at all, they do not seem to have found it necessary to take very much, any action. The presence of the troops prevented excesses.

Fire at Barracks

On the night of the 14th of August, 1866, a fire was discovered in a store building at the barracks. This building stood along the north side of the ground, and it was totally destroyed. It was a convenient fire was the work of an incendiary and the Government offered a reward of $200 for information leading to a conviction, but without result.

From the 16th August, a night guard of one non-commissioned officer and eight men was posted at sunset each evening over the barracks until the 28th August, when it was dispensed with. The guards were furnished from the Irish Rifles, the Prince of Wales and Prince Edward Companies of volunteer militia.

Late Mrs. Conway Had Resided 73 Years in Hampton, N.B.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Conway, occurred suddenly on May 27th at her home in Hampton, N.B. after a brief illness. Widow Thomas Conway, was in her 94th year and has resided in Hampton for 73 years.

She was a daughter of the late Michael and Margaret (Ryan) Conway of Ireland, and was born at Model Farm, Kings County, her husband, a retired O.N.R. employee, he died six years ago. A son, she died six years ago. A son, she died six years ago.

Active in the community, Mrs. Conway was a member of the Hampton subdivision of the C.W.L. and the Sodality of the Children of Mary in St. Alphonsus parish.

Surviving are four sons, Michael J. Montreal; William T. Moncton; Walter A. Hampton and Dr. C.J. Conway, Hampton, a graduate of St. Dunstan's University, as well as four grandchildren, as well as a large number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held from her residence on May 18 to St. Alphonsus Church for Solemn High Mass of Requiem celebrated by Rev. M. A. Harris, assisted by Rev. J.R. McCarthy, Saint John, deacon, and Very Rev. M. O'Brien, Milltown, and Rev. R.J. Coughlan, who was master of ceremonies. Dr. Henry Heacan, Paris told of the "Mental health of patients during the war and occupation in France."

A conference paid special attention to the general shortage of staff, deplored the lack of trained personnel in all phases, and noted that facilities were gradually being improved.

To Honor "Mother" Of British House

By Alan Harvey

LONDON, May 29 (CP)—The "mother" of the mother of parliament celebrates a novel birthday Tuesday.

Lady Megan Lloyd George, smiling round-faced deputy leader of the Liberal Party, then will mark her 90th year as a member of the House of Commons. "Lloyd George's little girl," has been in the House without a break since 1929.

At Commons this party Tuesday the other 21 women parliamentarians will acknowledge Lady Megan's seniority and her right to the title of "mother" of the House.

Attended Meeting Of American Psychiatric Ass'n In Montreal

Some 3,000 psychiatrists from all parts of the American continent met in Montreal last week at the 105th annual meeting of the American Psychiatric Association. Dr. A.J. Murchison, medical superintendent at Falconwood attended.

Dr. Murchison reports that the subjects under review included hospital administration, mental hygiene, alcoholism, industrial and international psychiatry and problems arising out of old age.

Reports were read on a number of experimental forms of treatment and research. The importance of occupational therapy was stressed.

Dr. George S. Stevenson, New York, was elected president. At a largely attended public meeting, Dr. O. Menninger, Kansas, retiring president, spoke on "Psychiatry in Everyday Life." The theme of his address was the neutralizing of hatred by the practice of tolerance and the infusion of love into the life of the home, business, and community.

Dr. Henry Heacan, Paris told of the "Mental health of patients during the war and occupation in France."

A conference paid special attention to the general shortage of staff, deplored the lack of trained personnel in all phases, and noted that facilities were gradually being improved.

Prime Minister On Nfid. Election

OTTAWA, May 29 (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said in a statement today that election results in Newfoundland proved the "overwhelming support" of the people for confederation and the Liberal cause.

He said he sent a message of congratulations to Premier Joseph Smallwood, leader of the Liberals in Newfoundland, "on his great victory."

Mr. St. Laurent's statement: "I am naturally very much pleased by the evidence which the election results have already given of the overwhelming support from the people of Newfoundland and both for confederation and for the cause of Liberalism."

"I have already sent my congratulations to the Premier on his great victory."

COMMANDING

(Continued from Page 6)

Partial returns were in from five other ridings, including the three two-member districts. There were still no results at all from the other 11 constituencies.

Bad weather made collection of ballot boxes difficult and it is unlikely there will be any results from those ridings until tomorrow when counting resumes. Tabulation stopped Saturday midnight.

The count was slow because there is no polling tabulation in Newfoundland. District returns for officers must have all ballot boxes in their hands before counting can start.

The total vote counted so far showed the Liberals had 54,453 and the Progressive Conservatives 25,631. A total of 176,000 persons was eligible to vote.

Lost Deposits

At least five Progressive Conservative candidates lost their deposits in straight contests with Liberal candidates for falling to poll one third of their opponents' votes.

Peter Cashin, Independent, won in Ferryland. Both his Liberal and Progressive Conservative rivals lost their deposits.

The Progressive Conservative Party officers must have all ballot boxes in their hands before counting can start.

The total vote counted so far showed the Liberals had 54,453 and the Progressive Conservatives 25,631. A total of 176,000 persons was eligible to vote.

Lost Deposits

Plan Series Of Fall Meetings

On Saturday, May 28, in the Federation office, Dr. L.W. Shaw and School Superiors Mackenzie, Rice, Gilmore, and Dolron, demonstrated to draw up a program for the fall local conventions.

President W.J. Macdonald, B.A. presided in the unavoidable absence of the President, J.R. Murphy.

The fall conventions will be conducted during the two weeks of September 6 and 13, that of the 12th being given over to attending the Canadian Education Association annual convention in Fredericton, N.B.

Discussions will be given in primary language, and reasoning in arithmetic.

The question of a continuous country between teacher and trustees will be left over for decision after a full discussion of same with teachers in local convention.

With regard to summer schools, the executive registered a strong protest against any kind of school, except that for qualified teachers.

Since the C.E.A. convention this year is being held in Fredericton, it was felt that the Federation should send as representative President J.R. Murphy.

The meeting adjourned until the fall.

PRODUCTION AIM

The production for woven wool cloth this year is 281,000,000 yards.

FOR SALE

Desirable house in quiet residential section of City. Easy terms available. For particulars write O c/o Guardian.

BLAMING THE

(Continued from Page 6)

sation of purchases of East Coast relief-type canned fish by the Fish Support Board. The delegation was informed further that the audience was cleared through the Secretary to the Prime Minister after arrival on Prince Edward Island.

"Finally, at the Hotel, we were in conversation with J. Watson McNaught, M.P., Assistant to the Minister of Fisheries who knew of our mission, having been advised to arrange the interview in a letter of May 12th.

"We did not know until later in the day that Mr. P. R. McCormack, President of the Queen's County Liberal Association who had charge of our itinerary, knew nothing of our plans.

"Although we realize that you must have thought we 'ambushed' you in the hotel, we wish to assure you that we were not there in good faith believing we had an official appointment, and with no thought of embarrassing you by 'pulling a stunt' as it were. As a matter of fact the majority of the delegation were strong Liberal supporters.

"These then are the circumstances which we wish you to know. For the heated words which followed upon the surprise of some members of their failure to get down to the facts of the fishermen's case, we can only apologize and trust you may discount the incident because of the circumstances preceding the meeting. We are sure that you will be glad to embrace you, not knowing that you were entirely unaware of our mission.

"Attached hereto is a statement of our case. It is felt that once in possession of the true facts you will be adequately informed and in position to recommend a solution."

— G. E. M. —

The joy of No More Diapers—No More Laundry can be yours, no matter how young your baby! Give yourself the ease and safety of the safety of DISPOSABLE DIAPERS. These modern time savers are comfortable and so convenient for travelling, motoring, visiting or at home. Made by Kleenex, there are 4 dozen Diapers in the large size package—priced at only 1.98. Use either one or two Diaper Pads at a time and when soiled or wet, merely throw them away. Make this good fall Summer for baby and for you. . . . Come in and buy Disposable Diapers in the Youth Centre.

Fashions for Summer Pleasure are on display in the Ladies' Wear Department. . . . Gay Little SUN FUN DRESSES to wear all Summer long. . . . You'll find them of cotton in stripes, prints or plain colors and also of slubs and crepes. Some of these have dear little bolero jackets, some have dainty eyelet trim, all are smart as paint! The sizes are 12 to 44, very reasonably priced from $5.50 to 14.95. Come see—Come buy—Sun and Fun Dresses in the Ladies' Wear Department.

A whole swack of new BRASSIERES have only just arrived and been unpacked. All have the new, desirable lines—and they're reasonably priced too! I just saw a few of the models this morning, among them are "Sweater Model" Wonder-Bras, made of fine white cotton with elastic inserts in sizes 32, 34 and 36. Comfortable and "French Bras" with the characteristic back lacing and dainty lace edging of either nylon or satin in sizes 32, 34, 36 and 38. . . . Maternity Bras made of tea rose coloured cotton that is damp proof. These Bras are completely adjustable and have a convenient front opening in sizes 34, 36 and 38. Come in today while the selection is quite complete and choose the Brassieres you'll want for Summer—You'll find them in the Lingerie Section of the Dry Goods Department.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME YOU CAN FINANCE CONSTRUCTION MORE ECONOMICALLY UNDER THE National Housing Act