The Island's Leading Store

Now Boys for the Wash Suits as seen on Fifth Ave and Broadway

Early last January we contracted with a Manufacturer in New York City for delivery early in May of a very extensive line of Boys' wash suits. The goods arrived here on Saturday. Purchased at the lowest possible price for spot cash. Made by a firm who specialize on boys' wash suits and who bears an international reputation. Last season we gave the same Firm a small trial order with the result that we immediately made arrangements with them for the exclusive control of their goods in this City. We know you will be delighted as the goods are perfect fitting and will supply a long felt want by parents here, who have had difficulty in securing wash suits that were made sufficiently roomy and cut in proper proportion to fit boys. We can now guarantee you a suit properly cut and just the kind you have been looking for in vain for many years past. Made in a very extensive variety of styles and trimming. The goods are displayed today on the second floor in the clothing department, ranging in price from

Boys' Rompers made in Khaki Coat and Pants for 8 ^c	90c, $1.25, $1.65, $1.85, $2.25, $2.75 to $3.25.	Buy Separate Blouses 45c each

Now is the Time to Mark that Grave

Now is the proper time to attend to that grave—to see to the last resting place of the departed—to see that the lonely mound is carefully attended to. Don't let it be said of you that you neglected the last resting place of those most near and dear to you. Have a good monument or even a headstone, erected to show your respect and love for the departed's memory.

You will find our designs right, our work expert, our prices easy and our terms convenient. Call or write today.

DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

Furnished by W. S. Louson.

EVERY DAY.

Oh! trifling tasks so often done,
Yet ever to be done anew;
Oh! cares that come with every sun,
Morn after morn, the long year through;
We shrink beneath their paltry sway,
The irksome calls of every day.

The restless sense of wasted power,
The tiresome round of little things,
Are hard to bear, as hour by hour
Its tedious iteration brings.
Who shall erase or who delay
The small demands of every day?

The boulder in the torrent's course,
By tide and tempest lashed in vain,
Obeys the wave-whirled pebbles' force,
And yields its substance grain by grain.
So crumbe strongest lives away,
Beneath the cares of every day.

We rise to meet a heavy blow,
Our souls a sudden bravery fill;
But we endure not always so
The drop of little ills,
Ah! more than martyr's aureole
And more than hero's heart of fire,
We need the humble strength
Of soul,
Which daily toil and ills require!
Sweet patience! Grant us, if you may,
An added grace for every day.

—E. A. Allen.

To let their consorts through,
While many a parting sign is heard,
And many a fond "Adieu."

Meanwhile, the message of distress
Is caught by friendly ears,
And, many a ship forsakes her course
And, to the rescue, steers.

But, long ere e'en the foremost friend
Could reach the Titan's side,
That giant ship, with all on board,
Had sunk beneath the tide.

Thus, sixteen hundred heroes true
Met death, that fateful night,
Their valiant deed must surely make
One page of history bright.
