THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

Office—Upstairs Brace Brick Block—J. B. C. Baker, Mgr.

George L. Webber returned last evening from a trip to Boston.

The passengers by the Northumberland yesterday numbered about 60 going and 45 coming.

At the Liberal convention held in Bedouque yesterday afternoon, Hon. S. B. Reid, Tryon, and Hon. (Capt.) Joseph Read, Summerside, were nominated to again represent the fourth district of Prince in the local election.

The Northumberland took a large freight train here yesterday, consisting chiefly of 640 lambs, shipped by S. H. Jones, about 600 barrels oysters, the largest shipment of oysters this season, 400 bags starch, about 150 bags potatoes and two horses.

Rev. Mr. Strathie who preached with much acceptance in the Presbyterian church here the last two Sundays, left yesterday morning on return to Truro, N. S. The services next Sunday will be conducted by Rev. J. C. Stewart, B. A., formerly of Kamloops, B. C.

A quiet wedding takes place at the home of Mrs. Charles Nuttall, Centerville, Bedouque at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Carrie Nuttall will be united in marriage to Leander Toombs, of Mayfield. The bride will be unattended. Rev. Neil McLaughlin will perform the ceremony in the presence of a few friends, after which the happy couple will leave for their future home in Mayfield. With Miss Nuttall's departure from Bedouque that community suffers the loss of an active member and worker of the Epworth League and W. M. S. The Guardian extends best wishes.

AS A CONValesCENT FOOD.

MR. WYMAN N. THOMAS, Ompah, Adirondack Co., Ont., writes:—"My wife had a prostration of the lungs along with other troubles, and became very weak and ran down. By the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food she was made as strong and well as ever. Of course I had a doctor, but she was weak, and it was Dr. Chase's Nerve Food which built her up."

SHED BLOWN DOWN

MONCTON, October 21.—The Intercolonial railway lumber shed, about 300 feet long, two stories high, was blown down in to-day's gale. Fortunately there was no person in the building at the time, otherwise great fatalities might have resulted.

Summerside.—Very often the early part of the winter brings good sleighing and causes a rush for sleighs which frequently compels the buyer to select one which may not suit him. It is best to call now and have one made to order. I have forty new made-at-home sleighs and five car loads imported sleighs, all guaranteed from shaft to runner, workmanship unequalled, style the very latest, convenience and comfort unequalled, all kinds, all prices.—W. B. Bowness, Summerside. 24 mw & w ft.

A quiet matrimonial event takes place in Summerside at 8 o'clock this morning when Miss Bertha Waye, daughter of Robert and Mrs. Waye and T. A. Cameron of Rossland, B. C. formerly of Augustine Cove will become united in the happy bonds of wedlock. The bride and groom are unattended, while the ceremony is performed in the presence of only a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Rev. R. W. Stevenson, Charlottetown, is the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron leave on route to Rossland this morning on a route to Summerside and with them will go the best wishes of a host of friends in Summerside where the bride was a most popular young lady.

This evening at 7 o'clock the nuptials will be solemnized at the home of James and Mrs. Carruthers, North Bedouque, of their daughter Miss Harriet S., to Peter G. Clark, son of John M. Clark, Summerside. The bride will be attended by Miss Bertha Wright, while Herdon Picketts, Summerside, will be the groomsmen. The marriage ceremony will be performed by Rev. R. S. Whidden, assisted by Rev. S. J. McArthur, New Glasgow, N. S. After the wedding festivities, in which a large number of guests will take part, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will drive to Summerside and take up their residence on Russell St. The bride is the recipient of a large and elegant lot of gifts, tokens of the popularity in which she is held. Many friends will extend best wishes to the happy couple, and Summerside will welcome its new resident. The Guardian joins in felicitations.

BABY ECZEMA.

"My daughter was afflicted with eczema from when three weeks old. Her entire face and head were raw, and she was in wild distress. When doctors failed we began the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment which has entirely cured her and she has never had the least symptom of the trouble since."—MR. PATRICK SULLIVAN, Welling Ave., St. Catharines, Ont.

in black and all the fashionable shades and mixtures. The styles are all strictly fresh this season, not a "has been" masquerading as new among them, and the stock is very complete as to sizes. Then we have here in abundance the most both from our own workrooms and in the ready-to-wear felt hats. The appearance of an otherwise elegant toilet is often marred by a common place hat.
