WHEN the South African Veterans' Association decided to place a memorial in the Exmouth street Methodist church, the trustee board of the church had not been consulted relative to the matter, so at the present time there is some uncertainty as to whether the board will give permission. Also, the date decided upon may not be agreeable to the pastor and church officers, and as yet no clergyman has been requested to officiate, for on Sunday, the 18th inst., Mr. Hamilton, Exmouth street's pastor, expects to be absent. The trustee board will meet this evening and take the matter into consideration, and there will also be a special meeting of the Association.—St. John Telegraph.

ANOTHER old landmark of Moncton passed away Friday afternoon in the person of William Humphrey at the age of 82 years. Deceased was a native of P. E. Island but came to Moncton in the early days of the Bend and worked at shipbuilding. He remembered Moncton when it was but a struggling village and has lived here about half a century. He was quite active for a man of his years up to the first of last winter, but since that he has been in failing health. Deceased leaves two daughters Mrs. John R. Coggin, Moncton; Mrs. A. Fillmore, New York. The last twelve years he has lived with his son-in-law, Coggin. Deceased was one of a few remaining residents that remembered Moncton when ship-building flourished.

JAMES CUMING, a wealthy Australian manufacturer, is in the city on a visit to his cousin, Mrs. Warlock, No. 204 Douglas avenue. Mr. Cuming, who has lived for the greater part of his life in Australia, has now retired from business, which is conducted by his son. He is a very extensive traveller and the present tour will make the fifth time he has circled the globe. Several months ago he was for a week in Japan, and is much impressed with that nation's rise to power. He considers that the Island empire will be supreme in the affairs of the east, and that in commercial and industrial circles, she is rapidly becoming a formidable competitor.—St. John Telegraph. [Mr. Cuming, who is a brother of Charles Cuming Chief Engineer of the Princess, visited here several weeks ago.]

A NEW outfit has just been completed for S. F. Tarbush which is the only one of its kind in the province. The wagon which was built by McInnis Bros. of this city and painted by Fred Walker of that establishment is a credit both to Mr. Tarbush and the firm whose product it is. It is covered in, has three departments and on each side are the words Parker's Dye Works Agency and on the end doors the name S. F. Tarbush. The horse is a handsome black one recently purchased from G. D. Wright, undertaker of this city. The turnout is a fine one and especially adapted for work in the country.

The following resolution was passed at a recent regular meeting of Court Petrel I. O. F. to their Brother, Albro Howatt:—
