"Sporting Life" Keeps Audience Till-Shocked

A skillful blending of melodrama, sophisticated comedy, spectacular scenes and unusual photographic effects has made "Sporting Life," Maurice Tourneur's Universal jewel production, one of the outstanding productions of the season.

"Sporting Life" opened at the Prince Edward Theatre last night for an engagement of two days and held its audience charmed and thrill-bound from opening flash to the ending title.

Tourneur, supported with a big cast of capable players, many elaborate settings and possibilities for many spectacular scenes, had much to work with, and blending these qualities with the skillful direction for which he has been noted so long made a thoroughly entertaining and appealing photoplay.

Much of the picture is frank melodrama, and while Tourneur has combined a reality with which melodrama does not always go hand in hand with reality. After all, the newspapers and everyday life are full of drama, and theatrical experience has proven that that is the most popular of all types of drama.

Bert Lytell, Marion Nixon make a great pair of lovers, Bert as the dashing English Lord who wins reputation as the most extravagant man in London, and Marian as sweet, innocent English girl.

Others in the cast, all of whom give creditable performances, are Cyril Chadwick, Pauline Duval, Charles De Vere, George Seigmann, Enid Bory, Kathleen Clifford and others.

Curtis Benson adapted the famous play to the screen.

The ever present Fox News and Fables were an added attraction, not forgetting the splendid musical accompaniment of the Prince Edward orchestra, led by Mr. Ben Wa GARDENS DAMAGED — During the hail storm of this week some damage was reported in a number of gardens, and at the Experimental Farm the lilac blossoms were all stripped from the trees. But throughout the Island there was comparatively little loss sustained by the crops.

POTATO GROWERS MEET — Messrs J. Wilfred Boulter, and S.G. Peppin returned this week from a trip to the United States in connection with the seed potato business. Mr Peppin visited Long Island and New Jersey, and Mr Boulter New Jersey and Norfolk, Virginia. The annual seed potato tours of the State of New Jersey and of Long Island were being conducted. It was a get together meeting of inspectors and growers in order to discuss the value of improved seed In New Jersey the prospects are for a good crop, the Prince Edward Island seed showing to great advantage. In Long Island, although the season was later, crop prospects are also good, and here also the Prince Edward Island stock is fully holding its own. In Virginia they are already digging their first crop. The yield is light, estimated at 35 per cent below that of last year. This is due to dry weather at the time the tubers were setting. Mr Boulter reports everywhere a keen demand for Island seed, and with indications of a heavy business here the coming season. Messrs Boulter and Peppin were accompanied by Mr Lester Douglas during their trip.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Archibald McKinnon, Bellevue, who passed away July 1st, 1925.

For him no more are life's vain hopes and fears,
From all earthly troubles he has found release;
For him no suffering, grief nor tears,
But rest, eternal rest, and joy and peace,
And though we often miss his pleasant smile,
And miss his cheering voice and helping hand,
He's safe, we know, and but a little while,
'Ere we shall meet him in a happier land.

Annual Meeting

and the capable and smooth way in which the business of the meeting was put through. There was need for one association only now, one centralization point whether it be Tignish, O'Leary, Alberton or Summerside, but there must be one organization with one head and one executive. If you will not come in with us take us in with you said Mr. Arsenault. The members of East Prince Association are working only for one purpose, the same purpose which actuated the founders of West Prince Association 33 years ago, that is the successful election of a Conservative candidate in Prince County. No organization can successfully prosecute its purpose without having order, one head and one executive. Then why not let us form just one big organization and if necessary dispense with both the East Prince and West Prince Associations. The issue was too big to be put aside. We should get together in a grand organization to elect our Conservative candidate for Prince County which would redound to the glory of all. At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Arsenault was thunderously applauded.

Mr. T. B. Gillespie spoke briefly saying that any apparent difficulties could be overcome, for instance the meeting could be held in different places each year. Hon. J. E. Wyatt thought that so much had already been said that there was very little left for him to say He instanced the great work done by the allied armies in the war after one head had been appointed. If it worked in war it would work the same in political contests. There should not be one association for East Prince and one for West Prince but one association for the whole county, and after all said Mr. Wyatt, it is the work done in the poll that counts. And it was up to every Conservative to put his shoulder to the wheel and work. Without good work in the polls no organization or society was any good. Mr. James Stewart spoke in favor of amalgamation. Mr. G. D. Pope said he was in charge of the organization work in Summerside last election and he well knew the difficulties. We are all here for the one purpose—to elect a Conservative candidate for Prince County. Let us get together in one big association to elect our man to support Premier Meighen at Ottawa.

The motion that the following committee, namely, Messrs. John A. Hackett, J. K. Ramsay, H. B. Huestis, W. A. Smith and James E. Birch be appointed from the West Prince Association to confer with the committee from the East Prince Association was then put to the meeting and carried unanimously. Nominations were then declared open and for president Mr. John A. Hackett was proposed by Mr. Peter Bolger. Mr. J. Albert Brennan was proposed by Mr. Wm. Huestis. Dr. W. Fred Taylor was proposed for re-election by Mr. Palmer. Dr. Taylor declined the nomination saying that he appreciated the honor but thought it should go to some one else. Mr. J. Albert Brennan said that this was the third time he had been tendered the nomination but as on the previous occasions he would resign rather than bring on a contest. Mr. Brennan moved and the motion was carried unanimously that Mr. John A. Hackett be president.

Mr. S. Albert Brennan was re-elected secretary by the unanimous vote of the meeting. Mr. Charles Dunn was elected first vice-president for the 1st district. Mr. John Riley was elected first vice-president for the 2nd district. Mr. E. McNeill was elected first vice president for the 3rd district. The following were appointed second Vice Presidents: Poll No. 1 Hall Pond, Mark Hendren, Number 2 Tignish, J. B. Morrisey Number 3, Peterville, Jos. J. Perry Number 4, Skinners Pond, John J Casey. Number 5 Green-mont J. J. Gallant. Number 6, DeBlois, Jos Wedge. Number 7, Kildare Patrick Foley. Number 8 Mimminegash, Peter Curley. Number 9, Alberton, W. D. White. Number 10, Piusville, Max Gallant. Number 171, Campbellton, Jos W. O'Brien. Number 12, Fortune Cove, Lester Wallace. Number 13, Bloomfield, Jos Leclaire. Number 14, Oyster Creek, Paul Gallant. Number 15, O'Leary J. McGregor. No. 16 Cape Wolf, M. Griffin, No. 17, Glenwood, W. E. McDonald. No. 18, Brae, H. D. McPhee No. 19, West Devon, Alfred Frost. No. 20, Wm. Bryant. No 12, Ellerslie, A. McGregor. No. 22, Tyne Valley, A. E. Ellis. No. 23, Victoria West, C. Moore. No. 24, Arlington, Marshall McLellan. No 25, St. Gilbert's, Jos Bernard, No. 26, Wellington, Fid. Perry. No. 27 Southwest, Peter Cameron.

After the election of officers Hon. H. Frank MacPhee, Commissioner of Public Works, was called on and made an exceptionally fine speech which is unfortunately crowded out of this issue through lack of space. After a vote of thanks had been moved to the retiring president one of the most enthusiastic meetings of West Prince Conservative Association [end].
