Persons wanting work of any kind, or who are looking for help of any kind, should send their name and address with all particulars, or call at The Guardian Employment Bureau, or telephone 182 at New Prowse Block, Charlottetown.

A FRIEND of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday pledged $50 to the mortgage fund. This is another good lift toward the success of the movement. There have been quite a number of persons who have expressed their desire to give the last five or ten dollars toward wiping it off, among them a former janitor of the building. Everybody however cannot be last. Twenty persons giving $5, ten persons giving $25, one giving $50 and one giving $100 would clean the whole thing up. The quicker it is done the better. Pledges need not be paid until June 1st if preferred.

THE SUBJECT "From which do we derive the most benefit, Reading or Travel," was debated at length in the O. B. C. rooms last night. The side of Reading was opened by F. F. May who was assisted in his arguments by Messrs. Smith and Wedge and Messrs. Clark of C. B. C. and Dyer of P. W. C. The side of Travel was ably sustained by Mr. Scott, who, in his remarks, said that notwithstanding his reading, when he saw the places he had read about, he had a much better idea of them after travelling. He was supported by Messrs. Riley and Duffy of P. C. W., and Miss G. Essery. Mr. Scott, this being almost his first attempt at public speaking and his first as the opener of a debate, made a most favorable impression and he was listened to very attentively. The ballot was then taken and was found to be in great majority for the side of travel. The subject for next night's debate, "which is the better to have, Ability or Perseverance" was announced, and as this is an old and favorite subject for discussion, a large attendance at the C. B. C. rooms is anticipated, even larger than last night.

THE twenty-fifth anniversary of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church of Canada was celebrated yesterday. Locally it was observed in Charlottetown by a public meeting at 3.30 p.m. in the basement of the First Methodist Church, which was largely attended by the ladies of the congregation. A short program was carried out, under the direction of the Women's Local Auxiliary, which comprised after the regular routine had been attended to, an account of the organization of the Charlottetown Branch of the Society, given by Mrs. John Newson. Questions elicited by this address brought out much information regarding the Women's Missionary Societies of the Methodist Church. The Mission Circle and Mission Band participated in the items which followed, among which was a dialogue, and musical and vocal selections, besides a reading by Mrs. B. C. Goff. Before the close a social interval was enjoyed when refreshments were indulged in. The sum of $27.50 was contributed as an evidence of the success of the meeting.

Safeguard the Children Against Croup and Colds by Always Keeping at Hand Dr. Chase's SYRUP OF Linseed and Turpentine

Chemical analysis has shown that the milk of the sulphur whale is rich in those products which give to cod liver oil its value as a remedial food.

The report seems to be worthy an investigation on the part of our Natural History Society, with a view to additions to our island herds.

Mrs. Richmond Withrow, Shubenacadie, Hants Co., N. S., writes:—"I gave Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with good success. My second daughter was troubled with bronchitis from the age of three weeks. Oftentimes I thought she would choke to death. The several remedies we got did not seem to be of much use but the first dose of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brought relief and further treatment made a thorough cure. This trouble used to come back from time to time but the cure is now permanent."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has saved us many doctors' bills and I would not be without it in the house for many times its cost.

There are some reasons why Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is the most suitable treatment obtainable for children. It is pleasant to the taste, and children like to take it. It is composed of simple ingredients of proven value in the cure of throat and lung troubles. It is positively free from anything of an injurious nature, and can be used with perfect safety with the smallest child, so long as directions are followed. It promptly relieves even the most severe chest colds and brings about thorough cure. You are not experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, for it is the standby in thousands of homes, where time and again it has proven its exceptional worth.

When you make up your mind to safeguard your children by keeping Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house, do not allow your dealer to persuade you into taking something of which he has a large profit.

In the hour of emergency, when croup or colds seize your child, the cheap substitutes will fail you, but Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine never disappoints. 25c a bottle, at all dealers.

THE Waite Comedy Co. presented the Diamond Robbery at the Opera House last evening to a fair house. The play has some strong situations and not a few humorous or funny ones, and the capable company made the most of these and the sparkling dialogue. The specialties between acts were good, especially the Lawrences in the cycling performance.

The play ran later than was desirable owing to the electric light wholly failing for a lengthened period in the first act. The fine orchestra of the company helped to pass away the time of this episode, playing excellent music in the dark. The company is evidently gaining in public favor.

NERVOUSNESS, A CALAMITY. Many who don't realize what lies beyond, treat an attack of the "nerves" with indifference. Others consider it will soon pass away. But in every case nervousness is a calamity. Only one remedy will cure—Ferrozone—a nerve strengthener that acts through the blood. First it gives you appetite—you eat plenty. This fills the blood with nourishment for the inner nerve cells. Energy and strength is instilled into every part of the system. You get well—keep well—nervousness forever departs, because you've used Ferrozone. Price 50c. per box of fifty tablets at all dealers.

KNIGHTS OF THE GRIP WERE BEATEN Downfall of the Knights of the Grip by a Score of 6-3.

The memorable line up was as follows:— Druggists Commercial Trav. Atkinson goal Casey Ellis point Armour Reddin rover Smith Coyle centre McCall Merry wing Walkinshaw Taylor wing McKenzie

In one of the most exciting games of the season the finest specimens of Commercial Travellers ever collected at one time in our city met defeat to the tune of 6 to 3 last evening.

The spectators say that there never was a game where so many tame animals made more noise, worked harder, and did less damage than in this game.

Mr. Spofford who acted as goal judge enjoyed himself immensely but is now incapacitated from the severe strain on his eyes keeping track of the numerous bluffs the Commercial Travellers put up on the goal keeper.

Smith says that he'll gladly go back to the woods with his "injis" seeing as how he can't play hockey the way the rums do. He'll come back, don't worry, druggists.

Walkinshaw couldn't skate because he was a Walk-in-Show. His leather goods are all right but he is going in for rubber now.

Casey was at the bat and made some splendid hits but centre never even saw it.

McCall in centre was a grand stand player. His astounding playing was declared by the fair spectators to be flawless. He intends giving away the balance of his calendars and making hockey the game it ought to be.

Armour says that when a man grows stout he should not be expected to play hockey with blood thirsty druggists who are looking for business. His checking was a marvel, making one think of Barnum's large show girls.

McKenzie who came late was in at the death. He looked very giddy in his zebra suit. His high stepping and side kicks are too numerous to mention.

The Commercial Travellers know how to play, all they want is some practice. The druggists may count on them next time. The home team made some splendid doings but they don't think of New Glasgow yet.

WHAT ABOUT THIS. The following figures are taken from the Dominion Government report for 1905. The profits earned for the previous year per $100.00 of insurance in force by the different Life Insurance Co's here mentioned are:— Canada Life $3.75 Confederation $3.00 Federal $3.30 Great West $3.45 Imperial $2.26 Manufacturers $4.33 Mutual of Canada $6.27 North American $1.55 Sun $4.63 LONDON & LANCASHIRE $10.80. The profits accumulated per $1000 on the business in force by the same Co's are:— Canada Life $18.35 Confederation $18.08 Federal $3.48 Great West $14.10 Imperial $7.34 Manufacturers $12.17 Mutual of Canada $10.07 North American $14.15 Sun $13.76 LONDON & LANCASHIRE $81.02.

The reason this reliable English Co. and show such a difference in profits compared to the Canadian Co's, is quite apparent to any person who knows. Anticipating the action of the Dominion Government and the reductions that would occur in interest rates, the management of this Co. set aside large sums in 1902 and later again in 1907 thereby providing for the decreasing rate of interest and placing the reserves of the Co. upon a basis equal to that adopted by other Co's years after.

The Vice-President of a leading Canadian Co. at the annual meeting held in Feb. 1900 said: "I am free to say that if ten, fifteen or twenty years ago the Directors could have foreseen what remarkable reductions would occur in interest rates they would undoubtedly have applied a portion of the profits at each quinquennial period towards strengthening the Co's Reserves."
