Large Crowd Enjoy Annual Ice Sports

A three hour program packed with merriment and thrills was enjoyed by an enthusiastic crowd of over 1500 people when Prince Street School staged their annual ice sports in the Forum last evening.

Class competition in all races, a novelty hockey game between the grade 10 girls and a boy's team, and an hour's skate featured the entertainment.

The hockey match ended in a 1-0 score for the boy's team. The only tally was made early in the first period by Carmichael on a nice pass from Diamond in front of the net. Five minutes later a hard shot by Carmichael bounded off the goal post, saving what might have been a second score. The remainder of the period was scoreless with Myrtle Hillier outstanding for the girls team and Horace Carmichael making several dangerous solo rushes on the part of the boys.

One minute after the opening of the second and final session Harold Campbell took heavy body checks from the girl's defense but got his shot away in time to beat the Grade 10 goalie. The feature of the period was the capable defense work of the girls who frustrated the attempts of Campbell to score again. In particular a beautiful save by the girl's goalie at the two minute mark robbed Campbell of a sure goal. At the six minute mark Myrtle Hillier made a fine solo attempt through the entire boy's team but her shot on the net was turned aside by Woods. The final tally was made by Carmichael a few seconds before the final whistle.

The match was impartially refereed by Mr. Jack Gordon.

The novelty events including tricycle races, snowshoe race, suitcase race, box sleigh race, and costume parades added a touch of variety and comedy to the program.

In the senior costume parade first place was taken by Jean MacDonald and Esther MacDougall who appeared in a splendid imitation of Mickey and Minnie Mouse. Edith Whitlock was winner of the special prize awarded by Mr. C. B. Longworth for first place in the senior open race.

The following officers handled the meet:

Starter—John Gordon; announcer—R. F. Acorn; judges, C. H. B. Longworth, Neil Matheson, Lou Campbell and George Hart.

Timely Tips On Sport

One of those hockey games you dream about is to be played when the all-star N. H. L. team meets the Toronto Maple Leafs in the Ace Bailey benefit game tonight. While the Leafs are not burning up the league as they were early in the season, they have undoubtedly one of the greatest aggregations of players ever assembled by one club. On the other side hockey's brightest luminaries will be tripping over one another as they make changes. Lester Patrick's greatest difficulty will be placing the men to the best advantage. Imagine a defence with Charley Gardiner in goal, Eddie Shore, Ching Johnson or Lionel Conacher in front of him. Forward lines may not click so smoothly as when regular trios perform but every man selected is a powerful scoring threat. That line of Joliat-Morens-Bill Cook, is the answer to any manager's prayer. It is welcome news to local hockey followers that the game is to be broadcast.

* * *

Tonight Lou Campbell's Junior Abbies meet the Summerside Hockey Club at the Forum. A real battle is expected as the Western team will be eager to revenge the 3-1 set back handed them by the Juniors in Summerside.

* * *

The Juniors are a formidable team, and in their first year of organized hockey give promise of going far.

* * *

Abbies play Wolverines in Halifax tonight. Roy Prowse and "Spud" Beazley will officiate.

* * *

St. John Beavers will play Moncton Hawks in Moncton tonight.

* * *

Walter Lawlor of the Abbies has been invited to coach the O'Leary hockey team and leaves today to assume his duties. Walter has a good hockey brain and will make good as a coach.

* * *

Friday night's game here between Moncton Hawks and Abbies is the final appearance of the Canadian champions as far as league games here but should we survive our tilt with the Wolverines we will then battle off with the Hawks three games in five.

* * *

The cheap fares—one dollar from Summerside and one twenty from Souris with corresponding cheap rates from other points should bring a record excursion crowd to Charlottetown Friday. Hundreds in the country have been trying to see a real hockey tilt and so will eagerly take advantage of the present cheap trip. There will be a big reservation of seats for out of town spectators.

Bill Cook, brilliant right winger of New York Rangers last night became the fourth National Hockey League player to score 200 goals or more in the circuit when he drove the rubber past "Tiny" Thompson in the Boston cage. The others who have attained this mark are Nels Stewart, Howie Morenz and Aurel Joliat.

TO PLAY FOR CH'SHIP

The Abegweit Sisters and Crystal Sisters are to play their return match on Friday in the Crystal Rink for the Maritime championship.

These two teams are the only ones playing for Maritime honours this year, the mainland ladies not caring to match their skill against the Island girls.

The game in Charlottetown recently between these two teams resulted in a victory for Summerside 1-0. The Charlottetown girls are coming to the Western Capital determined to win the championship, but the Crystal Sisters will be ready with a strong lineup to do battle and expect to retain their reputation. The winners will be eligible for the Dominion playoffs. The girls will be watched by hockey fans at home and abroad.

Mar. Speedster Captures Indoor Skating Crown

Willie Logan Of Saint John Wins Four Senior Events For A Total Of 120 Points.

(By John Mosher, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

FORUM, Saint John, N. B., Feb. 13—Easily assuming the Canadian crown for indoor speed skating, Willie Logan, of Saint John, showed his heels to other blade artists tonight and captured the national meet by a wide margin.

First place in four out of five senior events run off last night and tonight gave Logan 120 points and second place in the other final made his total 140. His nearest rival, Leo Freisinger, Chicago, could accumulate no more than 70, and Eddie Wedge, Detroit, held down third place with 50. Thirty points put Clem O'Connor, Saint John, Maritime champion, fourth in the standing.

Injured by a fall during his first appearance at the meet, Eddie Stundl, Chicago, watched tonight's proceedings from a box. He had 10 points to his credit for placing third in the mile.

Ladies' senior honors, however, went to the only other United States contestant, Kit Klein, of Buffalo. She nosed out Lela Brooks, Toronto, by 10 points, having acquired 80, and Sybil Beatteay, Saint John, a former Canadian champion, ran third with 20.

Other champions emerged from the meet were:

James Quigg, Saint John, boys' intermediate.

Winnifred Fowler, Saint John, girls' intermediate.

John Quigg, Saint John, boys under 16.

L. McGeouch, Saint John, boys under 12.

After winning the 220-yards race last night Logan took all three men's senior events tonight by covering 440 yards in 42 seconds, 880 yards in one minute 27 1-5 seconds and three miles in nine minutes 46 2-5 seconds.

The youthful Freisinger, competing in his first meet as a senior, was given an ovation by the capacity crowd when he led Logan in a semi-final of the 440 and recorded the quickest time for the event, 41 3-5. Freisinger came second in the final and Wedge third.

The Chicagoan had the misfortune of falling in the 880 final, with Freisinger having no chance of finishing better than third, Logan easily led O'Connor to the tape.

Also the victim of a fall in the 880 final, Wedge dropped out of the event.

All 15 senior skaters competed in the three-mile race marking the end of the meet. With a great burst of speed Logan held the lead for the last lap and beat Freisinger by a good margin. Wedge was a close third.

With Lela Brooks a close second, Miss Klein took the 220 dash in 23 4-5 seconds. Miss Beatteay had a spill but, as the only other competitor, finished to receive the 10 points.

Winning the 880 in one minute 41 4-5 seconds, Miss Brooks did not have a clean-cut victory. The Buffalo flash suffered a bad fall, barring her from first place in the event, but she finished ahead of Miss Beatteay, who took a third.

Stunning Upset As Hamas Whips Former Champion

Schmeling Lacks Punching Power In Early Rounds But Nearly Has Winner Out In Final Heat.

(By Edward J. Neil Associated Press Sports Writer)

(By Guardian's Special Wire)

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, Feb. 13—In a stunning ring upset, the comeback campaign of dogged Max Schmeling, once heavyweight champion of the world, crumbled tonight before the sledge-hammer fists of young Steve Hamas, more famous as a football player than a prize fighter.

Before a crowd of 16,000 that jammed Convention Hall as a fight place hasn't been jammed in Philadelphia since Gene Tunney beat Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight title in the Sesquicentennial Stadium, Hamas battered the stubborn Teuton for the greater part of 12 rounds, slashed his left eyebrow open in the ninth and easily won the unanimous decision of referee Spud Murphy and two judges.

Despite the width of his margin, the seriousness of a gash almost two inches long in Schmeling's left eyebrow, Hamas had to stave off a terrific 12th round drive of the German to save himself from being battered to the floor.

There were no knockdowns, but the duel wound up in a fever of punching that had the capacity crowd roaring wildly. Beaten so badly that only a knockout could turn the tide, Schmeling rallied near the close of the 11th, brought a stream of blood from Hamas' nose with the final punch of the round, a right hand smash to the face, and then hammered the former Penn State fullback until he was weak and wobbly in the final session.

Entering the ring a 3-1 favorite, the dark browed German who was knocked out by Max Baer in the outstanding upset of last summer's outdoor season, lacked all his old fire and punching power in the early rounds.

Hhe moved slowly, hesitantly, and he had no defence for the stream of left jabs chunky Hamas, boxing prettily despite tape bandages that bound a strained tendon in his right leg, chugged steadily and solidly into Schmeling's head. Only once in the first three rounds as he missed repeatedly with both hands, did Schmeling land a telling drive, a right hand smash to the jaw in the second round.

Hamas shook off the punch that laid heavyweights such as Johnny Risko and Bill Stribling low years ago and fought easily and cagily through the first six rounds, taking every advantage of the German's rustiness, his wildness, lack of defense.

Always a slow starter, Schmeling came on with the seventh round, and but for the right hand smash that ripped his eyebrow wide open in the ninth might have rallied enough to win.

Schmeling weighed 189 pounds, four less than the youngster from Passaic, N. J., whose greatest victory up to tonight had been a two-round knockout in a series with Tommy Loughran during which he lost two decisions.
