The social and entertainment held in Canoe Cove Hall recently was very successful. The weather was very disagreeable but notwithstanding there was a large crowd. Hugh Grant presided and a good order was maintained. A very enjoyable program was rendered, at the close of which James McLean was called upon to auction baskets, which he did in a most successful manner, and realized the sum of $55.

There was a large and closely interested audience in Kindergarten Hall last evening to hear Mr. Brannick on the doctrine of hell. He holds that the scriptural meaning of the word is the grave; that the dead sleep till the final resurrection when all will be called forth, those that have done well, to the resurrection of resurrection of judgment or trial, and that this period of probation extends over a thousand years, when those still unsaved will be annihilated.

The following clipping is taken from the Boston Record: The $100,000 breach of promise case of Isabella M. Lee against Humphrey Sullivan of Lowell has been settled and the entry on the docket is "judgment for the defendant." It will be remembered that an extended account of the above suit was published in The Guardian some time ago, but when same was started the lady who has a son of about twenty-five years of age, gave her name as Murtart and claimed she was a native of this Province.

James McDonald of His Majesty's Customs left yesterday morning prepared to make war on the feathered tribe. As Mr. McDonald is a sure and deadly shot, there is no doubt that if there is any game it may as well lay down at once and the only hope is that he may have the good fortune to strike the place where they locate and then his well earned holiday will be a source of pleasure. Mr. McDonald is a most obliging officer which has won for him the encomiums of the travelling public and the good wishes of his numerous friends.

Miss Mary Collins of Bangor, Me., is expected in this City tonight to visit her parents John and M. S. Collins. She will be accompanied by her friend Miss Baldwin who will remain until after Miss Collins' marriage which takes place on Oct. 21st.

At New Wonderland last night the big audiences were delighted with the excellent moving pictures. Especially funny was the Caisinitous elopement in which the course of true love was strongly brought out to the evident relief of Bill the Burglar. The other pictures, a bewitched tricycle and a week in Russia truly depicted their subjects. Miss Dall Zell was an excellent voice with Lewis Trainor as an able assistant.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Charlottetown Board of Trade takes place to-night, and there is likely to be a large attendance. Mr. Paton, the president, who has been absent the greater part of the year, will preside. ## The New Millinery Show

Is a Revelation in Loveliness

MOORE & McLEOD millinery has won the reputation of style supremacy and leadership for the city. For quality of materials, for distinction and originality of styles this millinery shop is without a rival in the city—or indeed in the Province.

And the logical result is enormous and increasing business. Our big staff under the charge of Miss Wilson is working day and night to keep up the orders that are pouring in.

And so we repeat to-day—please bring in your orders for this week early. Of course at any time we'll do our level best—but we want to do for you even better than our best, which just a little extra time makes possible—so come Monday or Tuesday and give us a little time you can—our we are so equipped that we CAN "rush it" if you feel it so.

How do you like the hat illustrated above? We'll reproduce it very cheaply if you say so.

Hats of distinctive style cost no more than you've often paid for ordinary things

We want your mail and Phone orders

LOST of people use our mail order department for their shopping—and many people shop with us by long distance telephone. Many of these customers have been good natured enough to say that we give them splendid satisfaction. We do our best—and that is "going some." Write for our latest "coat folder." Or if you are in need of anything of any sort write us about it—we have plenty of time to tell you all we know on the point or to send you all the samples you care to see.

"The Latest Standard Patterns"

Do you know that the "Standard Patterns" are the very best seam allowance patterns that money can buy? And do you know that the October patterns are here? 10c and 15c.

The Standard Style Book is one of the best propositions we know of. You pay twenty cents for the "Style Book" which illustrates more than a thousand new fall designs—and each copy of the "Style Book" has a coupon in front that entitles you to a 15 cent pattern free. In other words the Style Book costs you FIVE CENTS. And it's worth more than that even if you tore out the leaves to tie up parcels with them. Think it over!

WE are selling a tremendous lot of wall papers this month. Never yet saw so much good wall paper sold in the autumn. But it's a good idea, when you come to think of it. We've a splendid range of artistic designs that you probably have not seen—and you will find it easier to get a paper hanger now than in the rush of the early spring.

No use trying to describe wall papers. That's one of the lines that you simply have to see. And our Mr Hartz would rather show you handsome wall papers than spend time any other way. You are cordially invited to join the number of "wise ones"—and call to-day.
