REV. A. D. McDONALD received a gratifying address and presentation at the hands of the Bonshaw section of his congregation after prayer meeting at Hampton on Wednesday evening 19th inst.

He was presented with an address, most appreciative of himself, Mrs. McDonald and family, accompanied by a purse "contributed by every family in the Bonshaw congregation."

It has been decided to establish in connection with this paper, an Advertising Agency.

Thus any persons or firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, can have same placed by The Guardian.

They can thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

WILLIAM VESEY, York, returned from the Northwest, September 22, after a month's visit.

His son Rev. Herbert R. Vesey had charge of the Methodist church at Milestone, Sask., and was enjoying the best of health.

At Grenfell, Mrs. Fred Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. Hood have gained considerable wealth, since leaving York some 22 years ago.

Ernest Malon, Elwyn and Frank Deacon, Vesey Bros, formerly of York, are also doing well.

Wagon racks for hauling wheat are 12 feet by 22 feet and four men are required to pitch grain to the s.e.m. thrasher.

The wheat is poured into wagon boxes, the capacity of which is about 70 bushels, and afterwards dumped into the elevator, graded and paid for accordingly.

Large quantities of oats are also being raised, the price being 22 cents.
