Miss Jean MacGregor Field Secretary For Presbyterian W. M. S.

Rev. Allan Reid, D. D., offered prayer for Home Missions and for deaconess work.

Discussion on the means of preventing a deficit was led by Mrs. Wardlaw Taylor and Mrs. Glassey.

Afternoon Session

Mrs. Clark Elliott of Sussex, offered prayer at the opening of the afternoon session. Continuing the open forum, Mrs. W. Sylvester discussed the value of the home helpers department, explaining the ideal was to have all women in the church linked with the W.M.S., promising to read, pray and give to missions as they were able. Home helpers department members were those unable to attend meetings and they were not asked for fees, but voluntary contributions. The ideal was to obtain the interest of all the women. Only six of the eight Presbyteries have as yet reported having home helpers secretaries.

Mrs. Tucker discussed the duties of the Presbyterian home helpers secretary. These duties, she said, included getting in touch with each auxiliary and help in organizing a home helpers department. The home helpers secretary in the auxiliaries would be required to reach all women of the congregation not members of the auxiliary, obtain their interest, distribute literature, mite boxes or envelopes and visit regularly. Through this department the desired new membership to strengthen the organization would be obtained.

Mrs. Clarke of Fredericton, led discussion on why so many members did not attend auxiliary meetings. She said many were absent because of home cares and some because of the stringency of the times. The main cause, she believed, was lack of interest through ignorance or limited vision.

Mrs. Clarke also suggested that the members might make a point of calling up the members who were not regular in attendance and tactfully obtain their coming.

A paper from Mrs. Clarke, of Talamagouche, asserted those who did attend the W. M. S. meetings should by their lives and influence create an atmosphere such that every one would wish to join with them at the sessions.

Mrs. L. A. Moore, of North Sydney, related how one delegate to the division meeting had become a regular attendant at the auxiliary meetings, being ashamed of having not wished to leave her own children when she learned that

The Eastern Division of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada at the conclusion of its 56th annual meeting in Saint John Thursday appointed Miss Jean MacGregor of New Glasgow, N. S., its efficient treasurer, establishing a new position for strengthening the work.

The division agreed also to take up the allocation of $5,000 to be raised in the coming two years as a contribution to church funds apart from the regular missionary enterprises of the W.M.S.

Sessions were held yesterday morning and afternoon in the Church of St. John and St. Stephen, with Mrs. W. MacK. MacLeod of Sydney, N. S., president, in the chair.

The report of Mrs. A. D. Falconer, Foreign Mission secretary, which was read by Mrs. L. A. Moore, referred to Miss Annie Aird, of Saint John, who is a missionary in Georgetown, Demerara. Miss Aird told of a study class which is successfully carried out. Work in Korea, New Hebrides and Japan was described.

Regret was expressed by the president, Mrs. MacLeod, at the absence of Mrs. A. Falconer and greetings were extended to Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Saint John, a former secretary of education and for years editor of the young people's department of The Message.

A prayer was offered by Mrs. Buchanan Carey, president of Inverness Presbyterian.

Mrs. Alex MacDonald, of the Home Missionary Society of Glace Bay, N. S., gave a review of her department.

Reports were read from Miss C. Estelle V. McKenzie, Halifax; Miss Elizabeth McDougall, Whitney Pier; Miss Ruby Johnston, Chalmers Jack, Mission; Miss Isobel MacDonald, Glace Bay, N. S.; Miss Hazel Dean, Titusville, N. B., deaconesses. All described excellent work accomplished.

A report was given by Miss Lena Fraser, port worker at Halifax, who related several pathetic cases. She said 100 boats had been met with 8,350 passengers, including 42 Hungarian Presbyterians.

Miss Jean MacGregor, New Glasgow, reported on the school at New Carlisle.

the missionaries had to leave their children for seven years.

There had been eight more mission boxes received this year, Miss Brims reported, and the total was 38 packages, 24 boxes and 14 parcels. Hearty thanks was extended to Miss Brims and to G. P. Mitchell & Sons, who transported boxes free of charge.

Funds Apportioned

Apportionment of funds was decided as follows: Japan, for Rev. Luther Young, Miss Ethel McDonald and Miss Gladys Murphy and native helpers and expenses, $10,100; British Guiana, Miss Annie Aird, $540; superintendent of the training home, $950, and other work, $20; the Korean College, $500; Santo training school, $200; Legacy fund, $275, a total of $13,435 for foreign missions.

For home missions, salaries of $7,470 were divided among Miss Sylvester, Whitney Pier; Miss Fraser, Halifax; Miss McKenzie, Halifax; Miss E. MacDougall, Glace Bay; Miss Ruby Johnston and Miss D. MacNeil, Chalmers Jack Mission; Miss Hazel Deane, New Brunswick, a worker at Strathcona, and Miss Jean MacGregor, New Carlisle School and field secretary. The grand total for home missions was $8,345 and included bursaries for theological students.

By resolution it was agreed that annual meetings of auxiliaries must be held at least one month before the annual meeting of the Presbyterian. The responsibility for accuracy of reports was to rest with the auxiliaries' executives.

It was agreed to publish the names and stations of the Presbyterian Church in the annual report of the division. It was left with the board to decide whether the constitution be printed as a pamphlet or incorporated in the report.

Mrs. Gibson advocated having a pamphlet with the names of missionaries and their stations under different days of the week so that they might be prayed for each week.

May Be Delegate

Mrs. J. E. B. McCreedy of Charlottetown received special greeting as the daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Bennett, former minister of the St. John's Presbyterian Church in Saint John. Mrs. McCreedy may be in Belfast next year when the international missionary convention is held there and, if she attends, will be the Eastern Division delegate, it was agreed.

Miss Jean MacGregor explained that the synod's request that the Eastern Division W. M. S. contribute $5,000 in two years was part of the effort to wipe out the church deficit and establish its extension fund. It was proposed to have every organization in the church contribute and have the sum raised in the W. M. S. by every auxiliary and Young People's Society member contributing a cent a week and every C. G. I. T. and Mission Band member contributing one cent a month. This allocation was accepted by unanimous vote.

Mrs. MacMurphy, of Toronto, president of the Western Division, exhibited posters and mite boxes that will be used in raising the money.

Mrs. W. MacK. MacLeod reported on the General Board of Missions meeting, at which it was definitely decided to close Picou residence. A message of good wishes was to be forwarded to Miss Bertha Robson, now home on furlough. Miss Murray voiced the division's regret that Mrs. Wardlaw Taylor, of St. Andrews, is leaving for Ontario. A warm tribute was paid to Mrs. Taylor for her work in the W. M. S. and reference was made to Dr. Taylor's great help to the church as ecclesiastic lawyer as well as to Miss Taylor's preparation of an excellent missionary pamphlet. All three will be greatly missed. A unanimous standing vote of appreciation was tendered to Mrs. Taylor, replying, she assured the meeting that she could contradict the statement that east and west shall never meet, as she felt she was member of both eastern and western divisions.

The credentials committee stated

BEDEQUE

The members of the Young Peoples Society of the United Church was entertained at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Laird, of Kelvin, to a very successful social and corn boll on Wednesday evening. A large number of young folks attended, and the evening was pleasantly spent in games, music and contests. A large boiler of corn was cooked, and together with dainty refreshments all enjoyed a bounteous feed. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Laird for the hospitality and general good fellowship, after which all dispersed for their respective domiciles, vowing it a jolly good time, spent together.

The annual conference of the Western section of P. E. Island Young Peoples Societies, was held on Friday, September 23rd, in the United Church at Centreville Bedeque. There were three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening. Due to the inclemency of the weather, not as large an attendance of members were present, as anticipated, but the auditorium was filled at the evening session. Mr. Louis Cairns, of Freetown, presided at the afternoon session. The usual business discussions together with the minutes of the previous meeting, were read by the Secretary. The election of officers took place. A solo was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Callbeck. Rev. Russell O'Brien, secretary of the Young Peoples Work in the Maritime Provinces, was present, and gave a very interesting address, offering some very helpful suggestions, in carrying on the Young Peoples Work, spiritually and financially. Immediately following the afternoon session a banquet was given to all the members and honorary leaders in the Hall, at Centreville Bedeque. About one hundred and thirty members enjoyed the bounteous supper. Toasts were given by the following: Rev. George Somers, Margate; Rev. L. B. Campbell, Summerside; Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, North Bedeque; Rev. E. R. Woodside, Lot 16; Rev. Mr. Attkin, St. Peter's; Rev. L. P. Archibald, Centreville Bedeque; Miss Selma Myers, Carleton Place; Mr. Irving Toombs, Centreville Bedeque, and Miss Winifred Wright, Lower Bedeque. The evening session was presided over by Miss Florence May, of Tryon Society. Rev. Russell O'Brien, was the special speaker, who delivered a very interesting address, on the work of the Young People's Societies. Scripture passages were read by Mr. Archie Thompson. A quartette was rendered very effectively. The members of the choir rendered singing and music, very nicely. Prayer was offered by Mr. Archie Thompson. This Conference was brought to a close, having proved very successful and interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Paynter and little son, of Malden, Mass., has been spending a very enjoyable holiday, with friends and relatives on the Island.

Dr. Fleming and Mrs. Fleming of Stanley Bridge were recent visitors to friends in Emerald.

Mr. Chester Stewart has gone to take up his studies at Dalhousie Halifax.

Mrs. Robert Agnew, of Wilnot Valley, was visiting relatives in Malpeque recently.

Mr. Alliston Hooper of Middleton was being spent a few days, visiting relatives and friends in Summerside.

A very quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Basilica, on Wednesday morning, when Miss Margaret Hamm, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Hamm of Kinkora was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Campbell, son of the late Hugh Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, of Westmorland. The nuptial ceremony was performed by Rev. Clarence Pike, pastor of the Kelly's Cross Church. The bride looked youthful and charming in a gown of white crepe de chine, with hat and accessories to correspond. She was attended by her former school chum, Miss Kathleen Hughes, who was attractively attired in a gown of pink silk chiffon, with white panama hat. The groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. Elmer Campbell of Middleton. Following the marriage ceremony, the bridal party motored to the eastern part of the Province. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful bracelet; to the bridesmaid, a necklace, to the groomsmen, a set of cuff links. The bride's party returned to the groom's home in Westmorland, in the evening, where a number of friends and relatives had assembled. The evening was very pleasantly spent in music, dancing and other amusements, which extended into the wee small hours. During the evening the sound of horns, etc. announced the happy arrival of a large band of charitaries, who all called to extend their many good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. A miscellaneous shower was tendered the happy couple, a week previous where they were the recipients of many useful and substantial gifts from their many friends. They will reside at the old Campbell homestead, in Westmorland. A host of friends in Kinkora and vicinity, join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Campbell health, happiness and prosperity through their wedded life.

Mrs. Thomas MacCarville has returned to her home, after visiting friends in Charlottetown, where she attended the funeral of the late Miss Annie MacAleer of Charlottetown on Saturday.

Miss Edith Hogg, has been visiting relatives and friends in Kelvin and vicinity.

Mrs. James A. Stewart, Kelvin, has returned from a very enjoyable visit to Williamsburg, Ontario, where she accompanied her brother, Mr. Hugh MacKay.

Miss Margaret Ranshan, of Kinkora, has returned to her home, after spending a few days with friends in Charlottetown.

A number of schools in this vicinity has closed this week, for the two weeks fall holiday for potato digging.

The many friends of Mr. Hugh MacKay, of Kelvin, will regret to hear of his ill health, which necessitated a trip to Williamsburg, Ontario, where he expects to remain for a few months.

Why Individual Communion Cups Were Introduced

Mr. H. T. LePage, Toronto, writes:—

In 1896 I first introduced the Unbreakable Point Top Cups in the Dunn Avenue Methodist Church, Parkdale, Toronto, because we had ten consumptives and six or eight inmates from the Home of Incurables taking communion with our wives, and young and growing families which was not only disgusting but highly unsanitary (perhaps from a selfish motive at that time, the protection of myself, wife and family). Some other churches wanted them and later on it became a principle and I decided to put them in all the churches in Canada and the United States, no matter what the cost. The same principle dominates me to-day (to do away with a cup that is still a menace to church life and health) and I dare not be recreant to the voice of conscience.

THE ACME OF PREVENTIVE MEDICINE

No one knows better than the Physician how unsanitary the common drinking cup is and that it can be and is, where used, a contagion carrier. The LePage Company are the originators in Canada of the Individual Communion Cup, the only sanitary communion cup in the world. Its use in churches is now recognized as being a SANITARY NECESSITY, and those who have not as yet adopted it must do so in the near future, if they consider the health of their members. It can be sterilized in bulk without breaking and its use requires no tilting of the head.
