Votes Today

Every subscription sent in to the Contest department between now and 8 p. m. Saturday May 23 will receive five times as many votes as the last of the Contest---Now is the time to help your favorite candidate store up a big reserve vote---Think of it one single subscription may be the means of your favorite Candidate winning one of the many valuable prizes offered for an effort.

GRAND PRIZE

To Win

It cost nothing for a candidate to win any prizes, all that is required is a little hustle and work today while votes are high---Remember you are not selling people a Gold brick or something that is not worth the money---when you ask them to subscribe for the Guardian---In giving these valuable prizes we are not asking you to help us pay for them---They are Free for anyone. All we ask is that you secure more votes than your competitor---Everybody is pleased when they read the Guardian---Hence the reason for our many thousand readers---Let us help you win today.

3---COLUMBIA Grafonolas From Toombs' Music House---3

The three beautiful instruments may be seen with in the next few days at The Guardian. They are the greatest musical instruments in this line of goods ever shown on the Island. Come in and see them.

The old established Toombs' Music House is located on Queen's Street and he will be very glad to show his new line of records and other musical goods to any who are at all interested. He can furnish you with grafonolas from $15 to $650. Come in and see them.
