The following resolution on the drink question was also passed: As we consider the serious condition facing our country because of the freedom of the liquor traffic, we beg leave to present the following resolution in view of the fact that the consumption is rapidly increasing in this country and that space that should be used for weapons of war, and necessities and for our soldiers is taken up for the transportation of liquor to the fighting countries. We shall not refuse to bear our sacrifices, but we strongly object to the liquor materials being used for liquor which is not only nonessential, but also detrimental to the moral and physical health of our citizens of our country. Therefore, resolved that the members of this W. M. S. rally voice our disapproval of this waste of money and that a copy of this resolution be published in our local papers.

Mic Mac Indians
Celebrate Feast
Of St. Anne

The annual celebration of the Feast of St. Anne by the Mic Mac Indians took place on Sunday on Lennox Island and was an outstanding success.

The Solemn High Mass was celebrated in the open air, hundreds of people from all parts of the Province and from the Indians as well as mingling with the Indians. The celebration of the mass was carried out with all the impressive ritual of the Roman Catholic Church.

Rev. Mgr. McAnulty of St. Peter's Bay was the celebrant, Rev. Father Eldred of St. Dunstan's, B. A. Deacon, Rev. Father McAnulty of St. Dunstan's University Sub-Dean and Rev. Father Murphy, Master of Ceremonies.

Father Murphy parish priest for the Mic Macs, read the address of welcome. In his address he expressed pleasure at the large numbers present and made note of the fact that this year the Feast of St. Anne was held on Sunday. He also made reference to the presence of Rev. Mgr. McAnulty, the celebrant of the Mass, who is the oldest active priest in the Diocese of Charlottetown and who was ordained 32 years ago. Rev. Father O'Hanevagh preached the sermon.

Visiting priests were Rev. Urban Gillis, Wellington, Rev. Fr. Gallant Macdonald, N.B.; Rev. B. J. MacDonald, St. George's, P.E.I.; and former parish priest, Rev. W. D. MacDonald of Lot 11.

At the close of the ceremonies in the afternoon the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was pronounced by Rev. Bennett Macdonald.

After the church ceremonies the visitors enjoyed the day, taking part in the games and mingling with the Indian population. The stretch of water between the main-land and Lennox Island was gay with water craft, as Indians ferried the visitors back and forth.

Everyone was well pleased with the event which has been observed by the Indian population for many years.

McDONALD — STEWART
A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday, July 26th, 1942 at St. Mark's Church, Lot 7, when Margaret Mary Helen, eldest daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. J. D. McDonald, Glangary, became the bride of Pte. Raymond Le, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stewart, West Cape Breton.

After the Nuptial Mass, the happy couple motored to the home of the bride where a sumptuous dinner was served to the bridal party, the bridesmaids and a number of invited guests including Rev. M. E. Francis and Rev. Howard Griffin, D. D.

In the evening approximately two hundred invited guests assembled at the home of the bride where they enjoyed themselves in music and dancing. After wishing Mr. and Mrs. Stewart who were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, many years of happy wedded life, all returned to their homes.

To have expunged from the record, Speaker Glen then ruled that there could be no reference to anything that transpired before the commission other than what was contained in the report.

Rev. T. C. Douglas (C. C. F. Weyburn) described the commission report as "one of the most amazing documents I ever read—particularly the appendix to it."

He said he did not propose to discuss the commission as a "sacrosanct" because he was Chief Justice of Canada, "and if that is to be contempt of court then I say to the government, let them make the best of it."

Mr. Douglas has been a witness before the commission and was mentioned in the report in support of the claim that all officers had completed their training before leaving for Hong Kong.

C. E. Johnson (N. D. Bow River) who followed Mr. Douglas, was in almost constant difficulties with the speaker because of charges he made of partiality shown by the commissioner.

"I may say that this inquiry was conducted by a man who was most partial," Mr. Johnson began.

A long argument followed when Speaker Glen ruled that no such statement could be made in reference to the Chief Justice.

duction, and from a long term standpoint a vital influence in farm rehabilitation and maintenance. Our mixed farming program in the great majority of cases would be strengthened materially by the inclusion of sheep raising. Too often the influence of dogs, fences and parasites have been introduced as arguments against the establishment of farm flocks. Viewed, however, in the light of statistical records and the support that is given in parasitic control these arguments have very little merit.

Established Flocks
In presenting our program we firmly believe that our objectives numbers may be achieved chiefly through expansion in established flocks. Most sheep raisers have had necessary experience and will possibly have in their own flocks good breeding ewes with which to extend their holdings. An appeal is therefore made to present flock owners with a view to extending as their respective conditions will permit. We also believe, however, that there is room for large numbers of new flocks in this province and every possible assistance will be given by the Federal and Provincial officials to encourage and support the establishment of new units. In all cases the services of both Departments will be available in connection with taking part in the selection and founding flocks and in making necessary selections from recognized grade flocks throughout the province where type, quality and development are known to predominate.

A list has been established of breeders in which improved rams have been placed and careful selection will at all times be made so that the purchaser will be assured of securing satisfactory breeding material. The portion of the policy dealing with parasitic control has already been initiated and a large number of farmers have taken advantage of assistance supplied by the Department of Agriculture who have taken care of grading phenothiazine tablets recommended for parasitic control. Through the agency of the Provincial and Federal officials a large number of demonstrations have been conducted throughout the province and further encouragement in the form of reduced costs and in supplying new equipment will be vigorously applied. It is our policy to give adequate control of internal and external parasites. Sheep men are urged to give the matter of parasitic control the fullest possible consideration.

Policy Outlined
Briefly the provisions of our Policy are as follows:
(1) Expansion of established flocks: Assistance will be rendered where necessary in selection from recognized sources of supply which indicate type, vigor, breeding quality, and in arranging for transfer of lambs or ewes to purchaser's premises.

(2) New Flocks: Selection of breeding ewes will be made for new units by officials of the Department of Agriculture. It is suggested that as far as possible new flocks should be established on basis of Community Sheep Breeding Units. Adherence to this policy will assist in the selection of individual ewes that at least five (5) ewes shall be recognized as a minimum unit. A bonus of $2.00 per breeding ewe will be paid on the following basis:

After full purchase cost has been taken care of by the prospective flock owner and ewes have been placed on the farm, an additional breeding she will be made of $2.00 per head will be paid immediately to the owner. In no case, however, will the amount of bonus paid to any flock exceed the sum of $20.00. Selection of ewes may be made by purchaser himself if he so desires. Lambs purchased for new units will be properly tattooed and identified.

(3) Purchases of foundation stock shall be on the basis of ordinary commercial values. It is expected that parties having large farms for sale, in view of national emergency requirements, will co-operate to the extent of supplying selected lambs at the prevailing market price for common stock.

(4) Assistance in parasitic control will be rendered by both Federal and Provincial Departments of Agriculture. Every effort will be made to conduct his farm on a co-operative basis in view of national emergency requirements, will co-operate to the extent of supplying selected lambs at the prevailing market price for common stock.

(5) The Federal Government will pay the cost of transportation for lambs as follows:
— Freight charges will be paid on lambs shipped to points not more than 200 miles from points of origin.
— Provision will also be made for payment of freight on lambs for local distribution at points not more than 200 miles from points of origin.

(6) In order to assist in supplying the Federal Government has offered to provide farmers purchasing fifteen ewes or over, to establish a new flock or a group of farmers whose purchases total fifteen ewes or over to establish new flocks with ram of approved type and quality. Rams will be left in the hands of receiver or receivers for a period of two years but remain the property of the Federal Government. In cases where farmers wish to purchase an approved ram, the Departments will render their services in selecting inspected sires of required type and breeding. The Use Minard's for Dandruff.

Jap Laborers Stage Slowdowns At Job
OTTAWA, July 27 — (CP) — Construction of a road from Jasper Alta to Blue River, B. C., is being discontinued and will not be resumed unless the Federal Government decides the highway is a matter of national necessity, a spokesman for the department of labor said today.

He said the discontinuance was forced by strikes and slowdowns among Japanese laborers who were protesting against being separated from their families.

(A dispatch today from Jasper said the work accomplished by the Japanese was "entirely unsatisfactory.")

LONDON, July 27 — (CP) — The Ministry of Information announced today that the Prime Minister does not intend to make a further statement reviewing the war before the summer adjournment of Parliament.

The announcement followed publication in London newspapers of a report that Mr. Churchill intended to make a comprehensive review of the war on all fronts in the House of Commons before the summer recess and that the review would be held in the House of Commons on July 28th.

Mr. Churchill's review was expected to be a strong current and not being a strong swimmer, she swam back in shore. She was practically all the way in when she heard Alfred calling. He didn't seem in distress at first. She called out to Roland Morrison who had come in before the others so called to make a comprehensive review of the war on all fronts in the House of Commons before the summer recess and that the review would be held in the House of Commons on July 28th.

Metals Shortage Is More Acute

OTTAWA, July 27 — (CP) — Reports from manufacturers appearing under the production requirements plan, indicate that the metals shortage in North America is becoming so serious that "still milder" civilian curtailments will be necessary to keep war plants in full operation. Munitions Minister Howe said in a statement tonight.

Establishment of the Production Requirements Plan, a new priorities system centred in Washington, was announced by Mr. Howe July 26. In a statement which said the North American supply situation was so critical that "hundreds" of Canadian manufacturers would be unable to obtain enough raw materials from the United States to keep their plants running.

There was constant disorder and shouts of "Sit down" as the Prime Minister made his point of order, and he made reference to the "typically Tory method of shouting people down, and to 'mob' actions which he later withdrew and agreed
