—WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Rev. Mr. Loring Kensington, at 9:30 on Saturday morning, when Miss Florence Ethel Adams, daughter of Mrs. Hartwell Condon of Wilnot Valley became the bride of James Andrew Murphy of Kelvin. The bride looked very charming in a dress of blue crepe satin, her coat was blue with grey fur trimming and hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Adams. The groom was Mr. Louis Darrach of New Haven. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple motored to Charlottetown. They will reside in Granville. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy have the best wishes of many friends for their future happiness.—S.

—DONT FORGET the Big Dance in Richmond Hall, Thursday, Oct. 5th. Orchestra. Good order. Refreshments. 1569.

—RANCH BUILDING and fur farming supplies, sold right at Brace's. 1532.

—BASEBALL—The play-offs for the Maritime Intermediate Baseball championship will not take place for ten days at the least, as Halifax and Springhill have to play off to decide the winner of the Nova Scotia champions. Summerside A.A. Baseball team are the winners of the New Brunswick and P.E.I. championship.—S.

—MACKENZIE-MURL—On Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 27th, the home of Mr. Charles Murl, Freetown, was the scene of an interesting event, when his daughter, Hazel Jane, was wedded to Mr. Fred Elmer MacKenzie of Stanley Bridge. In anticipation of the ceremony, the house had been prettily decorated with festoons and bells of crepe tissue paper in white and pink. The bride was tastefully gowned in a dress of brown satin and carried a bouquet of gladioli and white clematis. Mr. Samuel Matthews of Freetown stood by the groom, and Miss Anna Belle Murl, sister of the bride attended her. Rev. J.W.A. Nicholson of North Bedeque was the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Frank Deacon of Freetown played the wedding march. Other friends and well-wishers who were present were as follows: Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Jonah Lewis, Mr. Frank Deacon, of Freetown, and Mrs. Walter Leard of Fernwood.

After the ceremony and the signing of the official documents refreshments were served. The young couple plan to reside at Stanley Bridge.

—DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPH MCLEOD OF VICTORIA—

There passed away at her home at Victoria on Friday last Minnie McLeod, beloved wife of Joseph McLeod, at the age of sixty years. Mrs. McLeod was a native of Green Bay and for some years after her marriage had lived in North River. About fifteen years ago the family came to Victoria, where Mr. McLeod opened a blacksmith shop. Mrs. McLeod through her kind hospitable ways and fine christian character made many friends. Besides her husband there are left to mourn two daughters, Mrs. Norman Boulter of Victoria and Mrs. Albert Emlison, residing in the United States, and five sons, William, George, James, Daniel and Louis J., all at home; four grandchildren, Keith, John, Florence and Alba Boulter; two brothers, William Gass, of Churchill, P. E. I., and Robert Gass of Greenbay, P. E. I.; also one sister, Mrs. Harding Smith, in the United States, to all of whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from her late home to the People's Cemetery at Crapaud, and was very largely attended. Rev. George Ayres officiated. The pallbearers were Messrs. Louis D. McLeod, Harry Clark, Peter McEachern, Miner McNevin, Read Miller and Norman Boulter. S.
