O'Leary And Vicinity

An interesting game of baseball was played in O'Leary on July 8th, between Tignish and O'Leary, which resulted in a score of 14-7 in favor of Tignish.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Oulton, Glenwood, on the birth of a young daughter.

Mr. Robert C. Parent, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gorrill, of the Glenwood Station, motored to the Palmer Road Illustration Station on Dominion Day. While in Alberton they registered at the Terrace Hotel.

Mr. Fenlon Crossman, of Quebec City, arrived in the Province on July 1st, and is spending his vacation at his home in Cape Wolfe.

Mrs. John Jelly and granddaughter, Reta Jelly, of O'Leary, left on July 4th, for Maine to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Woodbridge.

Mrs. Leona Berrigan and two children, Betty and Hazel, her brother Mr. George Meggison, with Mrs. Meggison and son William James, of New Jersey, are visiting relatives in O'Leary and vicinity.

A number of members of the Cape Wolfe W. M. S. motored to Alberton on June 28th to attend the W. M. S. Rally there.

Mrs. Harry McDougall and family, and her mother, Mrs. George Dymont, have arrived in the Province, and are visiting friends and relatives in O'Leary and vicinity.

Her many friends regret the illness of Miss Anna Morrison, of Hebron, which confines her to P. C. Hospital for a couple of weeks, and all wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Irma McIsaac, Glenwood, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Alvin McIsaac, Hebron.

Miss Alice Clements, Hebron, was among those who took the matriculation exams to P. W. C. in Alberton last week.

Mr. Stephen Stewart has just completed a refreshment booth at West Point wharf, for Mr. Rankin Howatt, which he opened to the public on July 6.

Miss Irma Clements, R.N., has returned to her home in Hebron from Boston, Mass.

The Misses Marion and Eleanora Stewart, returned to their home in West Point on July 8th, from Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown, having graduated from that institution on June 15th, remaining to take entrance exams to P. W. C. last week.

The semi-annual examination of Cape Wolfe School was held on June 30th, with a large number of rate-payers and visitors present. At the close of the examination, very complimentary remarks were made concerning the work of the teacher, Miss Fairlie Dorgan, who has just completed three successful years in this school, and is coming back for the fourth, when school re-opens in August. Miss Dorgan was presented with gifts of appreciation, from her pupils. Before leaving for their homes, visitors and pupils were generously treated to candy. Pupils receiving Public School Certificates were: Dorothy Lidstone, Eva Crossman and Claude Lidstone—O.

Mrs. Stout—How do you like my new gown, dear? I got it for a ridiculous price.
Husband—You mean you got it for an absurd figure.
Minard's relieves strains and sprains.

Sutherland of Halifax, who is supervisor of Fisheries for the Maritime Provinces, stating that he would arrive in Summerside on Monday evening, July 25th, and would address a meeting of the lobster fishermen of Prince County on Tuesday, July 26th, at Summerside at 2 p. m. when matters regarding the industry will be discussed. Mr. Sutherland is coming here at the request of Mr. William Found, Deputy Minister of Agriculture at Ottawa and it is important that as many fishermen as possible will attend the meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

—POST NUPITAL SHOWER—A very large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Bearisto, who were recently married, called at their new home in Malpeque on Tuesday evening last, and tendered them a welcome and showered them with lovely gifts and the best of kind wishes for their future happiness. Mrs. Bearisto was formerly Miss Hattie Campbell, of Spring Valley. The spacious home of the newly-weds was taxed to the limit, to accommodate the guests. The presents, faintly wrapped in white tissue paper and gay ribbons, were opened by Miss Laura Caswell and Miss Ella McNeill. The accompanying verses were read by Miss Jean Simpson. There were many lovely and useful gifts, including handsome pieces of furniture and china tea services. Mr. Bearisto responded most heartily to the address of welcome and thanked one and all for their tangible expressions of goodwill. Refreshments and dancing followed. The music was furnished by violin and organ. The players were: Charles Woodside, Borden Tuplin and James Bearisto on the violin, and Edna Duggan, Maybelle Woodside and Marion Simpson on the organ.—S.
