CHARLOTTETOWN BOY IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. G. S. Larter, 47 Brighton Avenue, has received the following letter from her son.

NO. 2 War Hospital
9. ENGLAND.
Dec. 15 1918.

Dear Mother... No doubt you will be surprised to hear that I am in England once more and you must forgive me for not answering sooner, but I have not been very well for the last two months and am still in hospital. I left France on the 11th of December on a hospital ship and here I am in a good old English hospital. I am still in bed but expect to be up in a few days from now.

Well Dear I suppose you are just as pleased as the rest of us are, now that the armistice is signed and that war is over. I don't think it will be long before we are all home to the dear ones we left behind, I hope every body is well, give my regards to all my friends and relatives on the Island.

I wish you would send me some money as we don't get very much in hospital and we don't get any at all in English hospitals and it will come in very handy when I get better which I hope won't be very long.

Well dear it will soon be Christmas once more and I hope you all will have a good time. I hope Dad and all the boys are all well. I was awfully sorry to hear about Bob and Ernie dying with the influenza it was quite a shock to me.

Well dear I must come to a close for now wishing you all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. I remain as ever.

Your loving Son,
George,

Soldiers Home  Coming Campaign

War Work and After-War Work of the
SALVATION ARMY

"FIRST TO SERVE—LAST TO APPEAL."

If one institution in the Empire was prepared for war, it was the Salvation Army. For fifty-three years it has been relieving distress wherever and whenever the need arose.

The Salvation Army has always been organized on a military basis—inured to hardship, sacrifice and service. It is always in action, day and night.

When the War came, intensifying human suffering and the need for bodily and spiritual help in a thousand ways, the Salvation Army was ready.

The twelfth day of the war found the Salvation Army at work behind the lines in Belgium. It has maintained 197 huts, 96 hostels and 40 rest rooms; 1,200 uniformed workers and 45 ambulances have been in service at the front—in addition to taking care of the needs of soldiers' families here at home, assisting the widows and orphans, and relieving distress arising from the absence of the soldier head of the family.

Hostilities have ceased, leaving vast and complex problems, and these problems arise notwithstanding all the Repatriation work the Government has undertaken, in addition to the granting of pensions. Above and beyond what other agencies are accomplishing, there are thousands of cases of urgent human need among soldiers' families that the Salvation Army is trained and equipped to meet—provided the financial help is forthcoming. Hence—

The Salvation Army Million Dollar Fund
JANUARY 19th to 25th

While it could do so, the Salvation Army has carried on without any general appeal. Now the crisis has arisen, because our three hundred thousand soldier boys are returning. The budget for essential work during the coming year has been prepared. A million dollars must be raised to continue the after-the-war activities, which include:

- Hostels for Soldiers
Salvation Army hostels are vitally necessary for the protection and comfort of the soldier at the many stopping-places between France and his home here in Canada. These hostels—or military hotels—provide good food, clean beds, wholesome entertainment at a price the soldier can afford to pay. In addition to hostels already in operation, many more are needed near stations and landing places, from Paris, through London, Halifax, St. John, right through Canada to Vancouver. If the boys do not have the hostels, WHERE would they go?
- Keeping the Family Unit Intact—Home Visitation
The women of the Salvation Army on their visiting rounds accomplish the apparently impossible. Is the discharged soldier out of a job? They find him one. Is the wife sick, the home-work piling up—the children neglected? They nurse the wife, mother the children, wash and scrub. Is there need for food, fuel, clothes or medicine? They are supplied. Influence is brought to bear to guide the older children. Whatever can be done to keep the home intact, is joyfully done in the true spirit of the Master.
- When the Soldier Needs a Friend
As long as a Canadian soldier needs the comforts the Salvation Army can offer, he will find them available. The Salvation Army Lassie will be there with the hot coffee, the pies, chocolate, magazines, writing materials, and always the spiritual comfort for which the boys feel the need over there. The Salvation Army Lassies have heard and carried out the last wishes of many a man who has made the supreme sacrifice. Until the last home-bound soldier is happily re-established in civil life, will you not help the Salvation Army to combat the discomforts and evils that beset his path?
- Care of the Wives, Widows, Dependents and Orphans of Soldiers
Scores, and hundreds, of cases could be cited where soldiers overseas have been comforted by the assurance that the Salvation Army had stepped in to relieve their families from dire need. For instance, a mother with six children is discovered—no fuel, weather freezing, food and funds exhausted by sickness and other troubles. They are taken to the Salvation Army Emergency Receiving Home for a few days until their home is made habitable once more. Widow of soldier sends for help; Salvation Army workers cope with immediate necessity—send mother to Maternity Home, three children to Emergency Home. Winter and 300,000 boys returning increase the demands on the Salvation Army, whose personal help alone is of avail.
- The service of the Salvation Army, founded on sacrifice, demonstrates the true Christian spirit. It is directed to the extension of the Kingdom of Christ. For two generations the Salvation Army has stood out and out for God. It approaches practical problems in a practical way and achieves results. It co-operates with all—overlaps none. It recognizes neither color, race, nor creed. No organization does greater work at less cost. To carry on its great work among the 300,000 returning soldiers and their families, it must have financial help. On its behalf members of the Dominion Government, business men, and returned soldiers endorse this appeal for funds.
