

HAD SUFFERED FOR YEARS WITH RHEUMATISM

Tried many remedies—Simple home treatment brought relief

A sufferer from acute rheumatism for many years, a Winchester, N. H. man at last found that he could always get rid of the pain, and relieve the swelling and stiffness by a simple home treatment.

What is the reason for these remarkable results?

Simply that Sloan's doesn't just deaden the nerves. It stirs up your own forces to get rid of the conditions that are causing the pain.

Apply lightly without rubbing, and at once you'll feel the comforting warmth as fresh, healing blood begins circulating through the affected spot.

After trying various remedies," he writes, "Sloan's Liniment was recommended to me, and it stopped the pain."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CATHERINE SUTHERLAND.

There passed away at St. Peter's on Saturday, Jan. 29th., at the age of sixty-three. Mrs. Catherine Sutherland, wife of the late Stephen Sutherland, who predeceased her three years.

Mrs. Sutherland had been for a short time stricken with heart failure, and although this treacherous disease was ready to snatch her away at any moment, it was not till the angel of death was hovering about, that her many friends could realize her end was so near.

On the morning before her death she received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was always a zealous member. She was a person quiet and unassuming, who was always ready to give a helping hand, her words were few, but always tending to praise rather than to blame. Her person will be missed, her charitable deeds remembered by all who knew her.

A large funeral followed her remains to St. Peter's, where Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Fr. McGuigan, who also officiated at the grave. She leaves to mourn two daughters and a son: Mrs. Lawrence Gallant, Ethel and John all at home, two sisters, Mrs. Sarah McInnis, Roxbury, Mass., and Mrs. Mary Gillis, Pisiquid, P. E. I., one brother, Pius McInnis, St. Peter's.

MRS. C. E. MacKENZIE

The death occurred at Milton on Saturday, February 12th., of Ella Coles, beloved wife of Charles E. MacKenzie. The deceased who was only 49 years of age, had been ill for only a short time, and her death when in the very prime of womanhood comes as a heavy blow to her beloved husband, family and other relatives.

The late Mrs. MacKenzie who was a daughter of the late Charles Coles, was a most estimable woman, a member of the Anglican Church, and an active worker in the Woman's Auxiliary. She was a loving wife and mother, devoted to home and family, and much sympathy is felt for her husband who is left to mourn together with two sons, Frank and Robert at home. Five brothers and five sisters also survive her. There are two brothers in the Canadian West, Dr. W. R. Coles at Regina, and C. S. Coles at Saskatoon, and three brothers, J. H., E. F. and A. B. at home. The sisters are Mrs. J. H. Dunstan of Rustico; Annie, Winnie, Lila and Leta, R. N., at home.

MRS. JOHN M. SHREENAN

On Monday, January 17th, 1927, the people of Kinkora and surrounding districts were shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden death of Mrs. John M. Shreenan, which took place at the home of her son Francis in Boston. The deceased (nee Catherine Johnston) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston was 69 years of age at the time she had lived in Kinkora until a few months ago when she went to visit her son in the United States.

Her sojourn through life was saddened on different occasions by the death of eight (8) of her children, and more by the death of her husband which took place thirteen (13) years ago, but all these sorrows she bore in a christian like spirit, always submitting to the will of God.

Mrs. Shreenan was a highly respected and most esteemed resident of Kinkora and was a true member of the Roman Catholic Church, to which she willingly gave her support, schools and charitable institutions received like support, and no person in need ever appealed to her in vain.

She leaves to mourn their loss, her mother Mrs. Richard Johnston, three daughters, namely Mrs. John J. Murphy, Maple Plains; Mrs. John C. Gallant, N. York; Mrs. James P. Farmer, Kinkora; and three sons, Ambrose of Cascade, New Hampshire; Francis of Boston and Alphonse at home. Also four brothers, John and Richard of Kinkora; James of Albany and Peter of New Glasgow and four sisters, namely

OPERATORS AND MINE WORKERS IN DEADLOCK

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 18.—Close of the third days of negotiations between miners and operators of the Unionized Central Bituminous Field has not revealed a bridge across the chasm of diverse proposals for a new wage scale agreement.

Several operators agreed that chances for a settlement by the Miami conference were remote and some ventured the opinion that the negotiations were already deadlocked without hope of reaching a common ground.

For the most part the miners' representatives offered no comment except to indicate that with convention instructions not to accept a reduction in wages, they cannot meet the operators' competitive wage scale proposal with any sort of compromise.

The problem of drafting an agreement argued in open meeting before the joint wage scale conference for two days, now rests in the hands of a sub-committee. The committee meetings are executive and the first session today was announced as having made no progress beyond the discussion of the wage proposals placed before it by the joint conference yesterday.

Murray Harbor North Egg Circle

The annual meeting of the Murray Harbor North Egg Circle, was held on Tuesday, the 15th February, at the Cambridge hall. Although the weather and travelling being somewhat unfavorable, a fair representation of the patrons in the various localities which constitute the said circle was in attendance, the proceedings of past season's transaction proved very satisfactory, in consequence all are looking forward to the coming season being again a profitable one.

To the satisfaction of all the services of Mr. John H. Hickson and son, who in the past has rendered faithful and efficient services as egg collectors have again been retained as such for the coming season. The office bearers for the past year again being re-appointed. The following being the report on the varied transactions of said Circle for the past year.

Biliousness and constipation come from a weak stomach

Help Nature end this trouble

IF your Stomach and Liver are weak, your food is not digested. This causes food to be held up in your body. The usual result is constipation, which causes bad breath, headache and severe gas pains. For 54 years, people have sensibly corrected this condition by using Chamberlain's Tablets for the Stomach and Liver. They help the digestive organs stop chronic constipation. Get them at your druggist's, or send 25c to Chamberlain Medicine Co. Ltd., Toronto, Canada.
