PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

Ended by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fussler, Sask.—"For two or three days every so often I would have such pains in my back and sides that I could not do anything—could not even lie quietly in bed, and my head ached, too. I was this way about three years, but was worse after I was married. I was on a farm with not a house nearer than five miles and there was not a person to advise me, as my folks live in Manitoba. My sister-in-law told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me to try it. I took her advice and have been thankful for it ever since. After taking the medicine for three months I can say it has helped me a lot and I am doing fine. I am glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to others and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. HELEN BALANOFF, Fussler, Saskatchewan.

Often some slight trouble will cause a general upset of the system. Such symptoms as nervousness, painful times, irregularity, backache and headache indicate some form of female weakness. WEDDING BELLS—The marriage took place yesterday morning at St. Mary's Chapel, Kensington, of the deservingly popular young ladies of the town in the person of Mary Ella, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. MacMahon. The young lady's many friends will greatly regret the loss from their circle of so great a favorite who becomes the wife of Mr. Patrick S. Morris, Station Agent at Murray Harbor.

WELCOME VISITORS—On Saturday last Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stavert and two children, Philip and George Hensley, left for their home in North Sydney, after having spent some time holidaying on the island. For some years Mr. Stavert has been manager of the Bank of Commerce at North Sydney. They were accompanied as far as New Glasgow, N. S., by Mr. Stavert's brother, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert who was to conduct the services in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church there on Sunday, October 4th.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—A very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. McCormac, 252 Kent St., on Monday when a miscellaneous shower was tendered their daughter, Miss Gladys McCormac by a number of her friends. During the evening the young ladies quickly decorated the living and dining rooms of her home with beautifully tiled and painted leaves and when the guest of honor returned she was met at the door by little Miss Catherine Trainor, costumed as a fairy and conducted to the room where the guests were assembled. A tea wagon prettily decorated was then drawn in laden with presents and as the presentations were made the cards accompanying each were read by Miss Gerlie McAulay, many eliciting much merriment. Dancing, vocal and instrumental music was then enjoyed and before dispersing dainty refreshments were served by Misses Gerlie McAulay, Anna McInnis and Lee McIntyre.

Address And Presentation
On the evening of Sept. 21st, a large number of the congregation of the Kingston United Church

Wondered Why Breath Was so Bad
Brooklyn, Miss Rose Dittmar writes—"Even though I brushed my teeth and used a mouth wash, my friends turned away when I talked and I wondered why my breath was so offensive, while people less careful were not troubled gathered at the home of Mr. Hamilton Newman, Elmwood, and presented his daughter Marjorie with an address and a purse of money. Miss Newman has recently been the principal in an interesting event. The evening was pleasantly spent in vocal and instrumental music, after which a dainty lunch was served by the ladies of the congregation.

The following is the address: Dear Marjorie,
As we have learned that your services as organist of our church has about terminated, we desire at this time to express our appreciation for the services you have rendered in that regard, and it is for that purpose that we are assembled here tonight. We realize that the service you have performed has been under great difficulties, situated as you are over three miles from the church, and being the only housekeeper in the home, we would have some idea of what it would mean to leave your home duties and travel that distance to attend practice.
We shall not soon forget the very pleasant times we have spent in practice, as you have always been of a very pleasant and sociable disposition.
We ask you to accept this small gift not as payment in full for the labours you have performed for us, but merely as a little encouragement for you along life's pathway.
May your life be one of pleasantness and that you will continue to give unto Him your services, who you so early in life have learned to love, until you shall receive the full reward of those who continue faithful unto the end.

Signed on behalf of the United Church of Kingston.

FAREWELL ADDRESS
Previous to her departure from Montague some few days ago for Charlottetown where she intends residing in future, Miss Grace E. McPhee was waited upon by the ladies of the Montague Christian Church, and presented with the following address:
Dear Sister:
We have gathered here tonight on the eve of your departure to express in a tangible manner our deep appreciation of your true worth. We regret very much that the years you have been with us, you have endeared yourself to us all, you have given of yourself so freely in everything that was for the advancement of the Masters' Kingdom. Your life here has proven that your motto was, Christ first others next, self last. We are disheartened when we think of the vacancy you are going away to leave in our ranks. We lose our organist, a valued member of our choir, Secretary of our Mystery Society and a much loved Sunday School teacher dear friend words truly fall us, when we think of our loss, we cannot express our regrets, but one cheer word at parting for your name in our musical circles—and we know that God will abundantly bless you in your chosen work. Dear Grace, accept this token, it is a symbol of the love and affection which unites you with your brothers and sisters in Montague. Signed on behalf of the church by a number of the ladies.

The presentation was a substantial sum of money. Her Sunday School class, ranging in age from 3 to 10 also expressed their sorrow at her departure in the following address:
To Grace McPhee,
Dear Teacher:
We all came here this evening to say "Good bye" and "Oh! we are so sorry that you are going away because we know we can never love another teacher the way we love you. But since you must go away we are giving you this little present and we hope that some day you will be able to come back and teach your little class again."
Signed—Avis Campbell, Emma Nelson, Vera Beck, Dorothy Clow, Ralph Beck, Leland Nelson, Keith McKinnon, Floyd McKinnon, Harry McNeill, Stanford Pearson, Alwood McDonald, Stewart Vickers, Herbert Mellish, Lloyd Mellish, Douglas Mellish.

The presentation was a beautiful ring and bouquet of flowers. Outside the work of the Church Miss McPhee will be greatly missed by the people of Montague in general. An exceptionally model young lady—a musician of rare excellence, the town will miss her as a music teacher—Music surely both charms, for to use an everyday expression Grace as we family early know her, was certainly full of music, and was blessed with a most charming personality. When her real worth as a musician and teacher becomes known to the people of Charlottetown we anticipate for her as many scholars as she can conveniently take care of.
