Bedeque Team Captures Clark Trophy

On Friday night last one of the most keenly contested games ever staged in Bedeque was played between Freetown and Bedeque. As this was the second game of a two game series, goals to count, they started away with a 3-3 score and each team went on the ice to win. However, Bedeque seemed to have a little advantage over the visiting team and after three periods of very fast hockey Bedeque piled up a lead of 3-1, making the total count 4-4 in favor of Bedeque. At the close of the game Mr. James Clark, the donor of the trophy, went out on the ice with his charming little daughter Patie carrying the cup, and after Mr. Clark congratulated both teams on the sportsmanlike manner that they had carried on the contest, and gave quite a lengthy address urging the teams to advance to intermediate hockey instead of remaining in junior hockey so long, then Patie presented the cup, while the large number of fans cheered the winning team till they made the rafters ring. Referee Francis McQuarrie and Jack Green.

Claims Prohibition Law Not Being Properly Enforced

An enthusiastic temperance meeting was held recently in the Wilmet Valley Hall, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Sons of Temperance presided and the following program was well carried out:
Opening chorus "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name."
Reading, Psalm XXXVII 1-15; 35-40, Rev. R. Hensley Stavert.
Prayer, Rev. Carlyle Waterworth.
Chorus "Rescue the Perishing."
Address, Rev. Carlyle Waterworth.
Closing chorus "Throw out the Life Line."

Just before the opening of the public meeting the Excelsior Division of the Sons of Temperance held a secret session. Among other things dealt with was the receiving into the membership of the Sons of Temperance Rev. Carlyle Waterworth, Educational Secretary of the Temperance Federation.

In his address at the public meeting Rev. Mr. Waterworth gave some startling facts regarding the present situation on Prince Edward Island.

It is very evident that the prohibition law is not being enforced as it should be and the results of non-enforcement can be seen on many sides.

Just at present there are several glaring needs facing us. One is the need of the right type of public officials—R.C.M.P. officers, magistrates who will enforce the prohibition law without fear or favor as it should be enforced. Another need is that our doctors should be men of honour, men who will not give a prescription to any except those whom they believe to be really in need of intoxicating liquor as a medicine. It is being said that things look as though we had on Prince Edward Island two forms of prohibition law—one for the rich and the other for the poor. May there not be some truth in this contention?

In the face of existing conditions some are crying out for a change in the law. Our present Premier is being quoted as saying that "Pressure is being brought to bear upon the government for a change in the law."

If reports are true a brewery in Montreal is one organization that is evidently working zealously for a change in the law.

All loyal temperance workers should be up and doing and should use their influence to see that no change in the law can be brought about. They must never, never let the old "Prohibition flag" fall. For reason as you will, argue as you may, this old law is still "the best of all."

Then let all join hand in hand to see that it is much more strictly enforced.

Rev. Mr. Stavert strongly endorsed what Mr. Waterworth said and made a stirring appeal to all to do all in their power to see that the present law is preserved and in the future much more strictly enforced. The meeting was closed with the benediction followed by the National Anthem.

Participation In Games Up To Government

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
PARIS, March 10—France's participation in the Olympic games is "up to the government," Armand Massey, president of the French Olympic Committee, said today.

"The question is one of diplomacy now, not sports," Massey said. "We are awaiting the government's attitude."
Officials said the cabinet probably would consider the question at Friday's meeting.

MRS. SARAH JANE LIDSTONE

Mrs. Sarah Jane Lidstone, one of Lower Freetown's most highly respected and honored citizens, departed this life Tuesday, March 3, 1936, Mrs. Lidstone had been some months following a gradual decline in health. She was a Baptist by faith and had been a member of the Bedeque Baptist Church for many years. As a church member, she was a loyal and faithful Christian. Her faith in God was of the practical kind as evidenced by her kindness and hospitality to all who came her way. She was cared for during her declining years, with every kindness, by her son, Raymond and his wife, who reside on the home place. If Mr. Lidstone had lived another month, she would have passed her 87th milestone.

Tariff Adjustments

Representations had been made during the year on behalf of the province to the tariff board and to other federal authorities with a view to obtaining an adjustment of the tariff on agricultural implements, automobiles and parts, gasoline and lumbering supplies.

The government "noted with satisfaction" that in the reciprocity agreement with the United States a reduction in duty had been made on certain agricultural implements as well as on automobiles and many other articles of common use in the province, "and that an opportunity will be afforded for many of our primary producers to secure access to the markets of the United States on more favorable terms than heretofore."

Rival Counsel Wage Battle

A battle between Defence and Crown barristers was waged in the crowded courthouse this afternoon. There was no doubt but that the remains found in the ruins of the Lake shack were those of Philip Lake, grey-haired P. J. Hughes, K. C., Crown prosecutor, told the jury.

Lake had two gold teeth yet four gold teeth were taken from the skull of the man found in the cabin, cinders, replied Attorney Lambert, fighting for the youth's life.

"There is no doubt Arthur Bannister took the baby away, perhaps from the side of her mother as she slept," challenged barrister Hughes. "Why would a 19 year old youth want a baby, when Standard Oil of N. J. closed up 14 at 6%?"

The might of Canada's Mounted Police and the strength of the Crown had been pitted against his unfortunate client, he said. There was not positive proof that the body found in the cinders of the shack was that of Lake.

"How do you know Dan Bannister didn't fire the shot?" Mr. Lambert queried. "He was there, according to the evidence. The Crown doesn't know, isn't sure, because they had laid a charge against Dan too."

The Crown's star witness, Dr. J. M. Rouse, ballistic expert, testified at the morning session that, in his opinion, the bullet taken from the skull of the man found in the shack's ruins was fired from a rifle which, previous witnesses said, belonged to Arthur Bannister, the accused.

This evidence was as good as finger-print evidence, Crown prosecutor Hughes contended. His legal opponent scoffed at "expert" testimony and said very often experts disagreed.

There might have been a quarrel between Lake and his common law wife, Mr. Lambert suggested. Perhaps, Lake hit his wife and then he shot himself, after firing the cabin.

In his final appeal to the jurors, Defence Counsel Lambert pleaded for fair play. "Take no chances," he said, "you have to live with yourselves for the rest of your lives."

He spent an hour and thirty-five minutes in addressing the twelve. Prosecutor Hughes took up the best part of two hours in presenting his final appeal.

The new sovereign, and sympathy and affection for Her Majesty Queen Mary.

Better "War" News Improves Tone Of New York Market

(By Frank MacMillan, Associated Press Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, March 10.—Buyers have the last word today, thrusting stocks forward for gains of 1 to 3 or more points, after a morning of indecision.

The opening brought a rally of fractions to about 3 points. Rapid-fire selling around the end of the first hour wound down the advance but support was quick to appear.

As the list steadied, investors and traders encouraged by the more reassuring tone of "war" news and the expected approach of spring industrial improvement, bought stocks persistently for the balance of the session.

In terms of the Associated Press average of 60 stocks the market moved up .6 of a point to 62.0. Transactions totaled 2,776,000 shares against 2,776,000 on Monday. In the bond market corporate issues were mixed. Foreigners slumped fractions. U. S. governments were mostly up a little.

Amerasia, an issue with comparatively limited floating stock, shot up 1 1/2 to 114. Standard Oil of N. J. closed up 1 1/2 at 60 1/2. Farm shares zipped up, gains of 2 to 4 points being scored by Case at 127, Deere at 78 and International Harvester at 76. Stocks termed "war" shares by Wall Street showed less bullish fire than yesterday.

Advances of 1 to 3 points or so were made by U. S. Steel at 65, Bethlehem at 57, American Can at 125, Chrysler at 97 1/2 and General Motors at 61 1/2.

Amongst Canadian issues International Nickel advanced 1 1/2 to 50 1/2. Fractional improvement was recorded in Canadian Pacific, McIntyre-Purpura, Hiram Walker, Brazilian, Ford of Canada, Imperial Oil, Massey Harris and Power Corporation. Dome Mines, Hollinger, Lake Shore and Canadian Power showed losses ranging up to half a point.

Hope Abandoned For Schooner

(C.P. Cable By Guardian's Special Wire)

ST. JOHN, Nfld., March 10.—Hope was abandoned here tonight for the big three-masted schooner General Gough and her crew of six, 102 days out of Oporto, Spain.

The General Wood, sister ship of the General Gough, arrived here today after a long voyage from the Spanish port in which she was driven off her course by storms a month ago. She left Oporto six days after the General Gough sailed.

If the General Gough was not under repairs in some other port, the crew of the General Wood said they were sure her three sticks had gone under in a terrific gale that had driven their boat to shelter in far-off Barbados.

The General Wood was 200 miles from St. John's, 38 miles south of St. Pierre, when the storm sent her scurrying before its force. Leaking with her rudder-post smashed, she made Barbados Jan. 15 and effected temporary repairs.

Furniture Manufacturers' Association, presented the case to the board.

Mr. Ferguson occupied practically the whole day on a brief which went exhaustively into all phases of the industry. In support were J. J. Spiesz, of Hawker, Ont., president of the Association; J. W. Wright, former member of the House of Commons for North Perth.

Want Revision of Furniture Tariff

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, March 10—Fears of Canadian furniture manufacturers that the Canada-United States trade agreement might result in collapse of an industry whose condition is already declared parlous were set forth to the tariff board today at a hearing into an application for an upward revision on the customs rates on furniture. ## Claims Anti-English Movement In Quebec

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, March 10—Rev. D. H. MacVicar of Buckingham, Que., today told the United Church Presbytery of Ottawa, in session here, a widespread anti-Protestant and anti-English movement was sweeping the province of Quebec.

The movement, he said, was radical in character and almost Communist in thought and to combat it urged more support be given the work of the United Church home missions branch.

Mr. MacVicar's statement followed reports of the home mission committee recommending grants to ministers at Nanticoke, Que., and St. Mark's French United Church at Ottawa, be reduced.
