CASE DISMISSED.—The adjourned case of Barbour vs. Brown tried at Summerside before Alex. Campbell and John Mollison, J. P.'s was dismissed yesterday morning with-transportation out of the Province as is required by the Canada Temperance Act.

P. E. I. WALRUS TUSKS.—Mr.
P. J. Cahill, of Dominion street, has in his possession two walrus tusks which were dug out of the beach sadd at Kildare Cape, P. E. I. after a recent storm. The walrus tusks are in a remarkable state of preservation and show that at some time or another, these sea animals used to frequent parts of P. E. I.—Mon-ton Times.

PLANNING TO ORGANIZE.—
The proposal for the organization of a Tourist Association for this Province has met with general apliminary meetings have been held meeting to formulate plans for the holding of a general meeting for organization purposes, will be held next Tuesday evening in the Board

PRaises ISLAND WRITER.— Writing on "The Maritimes' Contribution to Canadian Literature" in the St. John Times-Star V. C. Timberley says: "I feel sure that Miss M. Montgomery has made more friends, especially among the young people, than perhaps any other writer in America. Miss Montgomery, or Mrs. McDonald as she now is, hails from the island and has woven the majority of her delicious pastoral idylls around her birth-place. The Anne books are read by every person in whose heart the flame of youth still burns even though they be long past the allotted three score years and ten.
Miss Montgomery also writes poetry which has appeared from time to time in the national magazines.
Her latest book which rivals the much beloved Anne, "Emily of New Moon" is now delighting her vast reading public."

ROD AND GUN
Dealing with hunting wild moun-manner which will interest all sportsmen, in the December issue of ROD AND GUN IN CANADA.

good articles and stories contained

The Wind Bloweth
Where it Listeth

(By Dominion News Service)

LONDON November 23.—A certain lady who is well-known at one of the leading London West End restaurants, and who is noted for the dashing character of her costumes, which leave but little to the imagination, well, if she is to appear in future in dancing creations which are less dignified in construction and gossamer in substance.
The other evening whilst talking to her partner in close proximity to a powerful electric fan, the current was suddenly switched on, with embarrassing results.
Before she could make her escape her scanty attire had been blown about like a barbed exit and an S. O. S. to the cloak-room followed, and the lady was said to leave the building with such protection as was afforded by an ordinary evening cape!

New York Bricklayers
are Big Earners

(Canadian Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Declaring that "the down-trodden working man is having his inning in New York," the Wall Street Journal says:
"We know of the bricklayer who wears a topper at work, and everybody in the buildings trade had his finned muscle, wireless and automobiles. Now we learn of a $125 a week plasterer, who has bought his wife a $900 seal coat at a leading fifth Avenue department store.
"Now we know why it is fashionable for those who form the social upper-crust of society to sport their old clothes."

RECORD SEIZURE
OF LIQUOR MADE

(Canadian Press.)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov.
22.—In the course of their coastal activities to discourage "holiday cheer" smugglers, state police and dry agents to-day made a record seizure when they confiscated three truck loads of liquor valued at $30,000 and arrested six men.
The arrests were made between Atlantic City and Hammondsport and reports were received of hunting operations along the Jersey shore last night.

PRESBYTERIANS
Have You read
THE BASIS OF UNION?
This document introduces such radical changes that every Presbyterian should read and study it DO YOU KNOW?
That:
1. The ministers will not be pledged to any system of Truth.
2. The ordained eldership will be dropped.
3. The right of a congregation to "call" its own minister will be taken away.
4. The right of a Presbytery to ordain and induct its ministers will be taken away.
Instead, there will be a "Settlement Committee" which may or may not grant the request or adhere to the wishes of a congregation. The right to "call" its own minister is a cherished right and privilege of Presbyter-ianism.
This solemn and sacred privilege is highly prized by the Presbyterian Church.
To exchange the Great Confession of Faith for this doctrinal compromise—the Basis of Union—is too big a price to pay for a so-called Union.
