

WEEKS & CO.

Have received and opened their new
LARGE SPRING STOCK, OF CORSETS

and Children's, Misses' and Ladies' Waists.

Full range of Sizes in Stock.

Long and Short Waists.
NOTE—As we buy all Corsets direct from Leading Manufacturers, you can rely on the very best value.

Spring Wants in Household Goods.

Our predecessors, W.A. Weeks & Co prided themselves highly and were recognized as the very best house in the city when it came to best values in Table Linens, Table Napkins, Towels and Towelings.

We have received our full Spring Stock of these goods direct from Belfast Ireland. The value cannot be disputed under the present low rate of duty, they are without doubt, extraordinary value.

Unbleached Table Linens, Bleached Table Linens, All Prices, Full Variety. Table Napkins, 3 Special Lines.

$1.25, 1.50 and 2.00 dozen. worth 50c to 75c dozen more.

White Goods, Sheeting, Pillow Cottons, Counterpanes, Ladies' Underwear, etc, etc. Our counters are full of these goods at very low prices. We invite your inspection.

WEEKS & CO

The People's Store.
Wholesale and Retail.
Successors to W. A. Weeks & Co

A Small Order

From you, would be greatly appreciated. We will give you goods, that will please you or we will refund your money. We have a lot of Pies, Lemon, Apple, Mince, Cream and Coconut, they have all got to be sold to-day. Prices 10, 12, 15 and 20c each. Telephone, 98.

D. STEWART
ECLIPSE BAKERY,
Bakes Best Bread.

DAVISON & Co.

—FOR—

Canned Goods

We have a very large stock of canned goods

The Best Brands

at the very lowest prices.

Davison & Co.

GROCERS

Corner of Great George and Kent Sts

FOR SCIATICA, PLEURISY, STITCHES, CRICKS, NEURALGIA, RHEUMATISM, LAME BACK. MENTHOL D&L PLASTER. THE BEST ANTI-RHEUMATIC PLASTER MADE. EACH PLASTER IN ENAMELED TIN BOX PRICE 25¢ ALSO IN YARD ROLLS PRICE $1.00. DAVISON & LAWRENCE CO LTD MANUFACTURERS MONTREAL

LOCAL BRIEFS

The Latest News of the City and Province.

Gathered By Guardian Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

(See also on page 7.)

THERE were three arrests for drunkenness yesterday.

PROFESSORS ROBERTSON and Macoun will give addresses today at Eldon Hall, 12.30 and Murray Harbor South at 7.30 p. m. This will conclude their meetings in this province.

A SPECIAL service will be held for men on Sunday afternoon in the Opera House. The Rev. Marcel Couran will give an address on "Purity." All welcome; no collection.

MRS. H. P. DUCHEMIN, of Pictou, and Miss Della Dingwell, of Souris, were passengers by the eastern train yesterday afternoon, after spending a very pleasant visit with friends in this city.

NOTICE.—Applications will be received at the City Clerk's office from parties desiring to take the examination for license to engage in, or work at, the business of plumbing within the city, according to the rules and regulations of the Board of Health. 43i

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

A VERY large congregation was present at the mission service last evening in St. Peter's Cathedral. The sermon was a continuance of the series on "Sin"; being based on Genesis iii. Once Adam and Eve sinned, loss of pristine innocence and remorse came with knowledge. In many people there stands out the memory of some first deliberate sin and they know even now the loss that their souls have sustained and horror strikes them. After sin comes always the temptation to doubt the existence of God. Many books are put out to prove God, but the proving Him is with the heart. There are three things we cannot prove: that "I am"; "that my neighbor, or creation is"; "that God is." But we know that they are. If we sin and wish to hide from God we will try to disbelieve. But God loves us ever. He hates sin. He gazes through our sins and loves. God called Adam and Eve to come out after they had hidden in the garden. He will not force, but He invites men to love, pardon and peace. If Judas had come out Christ would have pardoned him. Adam came out and confessed his sin, but a good many do not follow his example but refuse to listen to God's question "Where art Thou?" Satan deceives us always. Let us not harden our hearts as Pharaoh did until God hardened his heart. We are not too far now, but don't wait too long. Don't wait until the day of judgement. If we come to God and confess our sins we receive joy and peace. If we cling to our sins God's word says "in their sins shall they die." The instruction after the sermon was on "The difficulties of religion." The Psalms are the great weapons of defence in all difficulties. There are difficulties in religion, things hard to understand. But The Psalmist says over and over, "O put thy trust in God." Don't start out disbelieving in God. Try this and worries will vanish. There must be command of our thoughts. The thoughts must dwell on God, like St. Augustine, a man who had rank, position, wealth. Constantly looking for enjoyment, he only found it when he became a Christian and could say "Thou Lord hast made me for thyself. The heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee." Services to-day are Holy Communion at 6.50 a. m. and at 7.45 a. m. Intercession service at 12 m. Bible reading at 4 p. m. Special service for men at 7.30 p. m.

THE programme for the social in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening will contain, among other interesting numbers—Readings by W. Hatfield and F. McLean. Solo Mrs. Harry Watts; instrumental duet the misses Murphy; and also the Payne Brothers and selections by the S. S. orchestra.

GLAD TIDINGS.

News from the Charlottetown Men Received with Great Joy.

Great joy was manifested in Charlottetown when it was announced last evening that THE GUARDIAN had received a special cable despatch from the Charlottetown men saying that they had arrived at Oban, Scotland all well.

After the glad tidings were received at this office word was despatched as hurriedly as possible to the relatives, the GUARDIAN's bulletin board was stuck up and crowds stopped to read the announcement.

For nearly forty hours the relatives and friends of the parties and the public at large, had been kept in suspense and it was not until this news, direct from the Charlottetonians, that all doubts of their safety were removed.

On being requested to do so, Premier Farquharson gave the news from the platform at the meeting of farmers in Kindergarten Hall and it was received with loud applause. In the First Methodist church prayer meeting, Rev. G. M. Campbell also made the announcement and throughout the city the news spread like wild fire.

It was the best news the citizens of Charlottetown had received for a long time—that six of their fellow citizens had escaped from what came near being a watery grave in a distant ocean.

As it was supposed by many in the city yesterday, it seems that the Charlottetown men were in the boat which landed at the lighthouse and this accounts for the delay in getting direct news from them. They landed in Scotland but yesterday and no doubt forwarped the message of their safe arrival as soon as they reached the nearest telegraph station.

LADIES costume cloths of Oxford manufacture. We are in receipt of samples of the latest patterns produced by the Oxford Manufacturing Co. Limited. For ladies' costumes, they are the handsomest yet designed by them, and are well worth inspecting. We will be pleased to show you samples and if desired to furnish any length on a small commission etc.—Oxford Woolen Mills depot, D. A. Bruce agent.

Scraps of News from Sentner, McLeod & Co.

That line of pretty silks at 28c a yard is leaving us about as fast as the snow is under the strong March sun.

One of our local merchants not many miles from Charlottetown saw an Indian passing his store with a Red Fox skin. He hailed the chief and asked him if the Fox was for sale. He answered in the affirmative. He then asked the Indian where did you get him? The Chief answered, "Oh, him 'dyed,'" and then he asked him what price he wanted for it. He says $10.00. The merchant paid over the money, congratulating himself on his bargain. But he hung the skin out at the door when a heavy rain came and the dye began to run. It was then he realized that "him dyed."

The careful housewife is already making an inventory for house-cleaning. Nothing makes a house look nicer inside or out than pretty white curtains. Don't waste money and time repairing and laundrying the old ones. Sentner, McLeod & Co. are selling them at ridiculously low prices, 25c a pair up to the lovely Swiss embroidered ones.

Sentner, McLeod & Co. have just put out a line of Print Cottons on their counter at 6c a yard that keeps the clerk of the print counter hustling.

10 is the exact number of Fur lined capes Sentner, McLeod & Co. have left. Now ladies, here is a chance for you. There are 8 left at $8.60 and 2 at $11.50. It's a shame to sell them at $2.50 but you must be quick. Lace curtains have never been offered in this town at such low prices as Sentner, McLeod & Co. are offering them at present.

Cheap Canned Goods Sale BEER & GOFF'S.

This week we offer our stock of Canned Goods at the following low prices:

- Peas (best brands), 9 cents tin or $1.00 per doz.
- Corn (best brands), 9 cents tin, or 1.00 per doz.
- Tomatoes (best brands), 9 cents tin, or 1.00 per dozen.
- String Beans (best brands), 9 cents tin, or 1.00 per dozen.
- Baked Beans, (3 lb tin), 12c tin, or 1.25 dozen.
- Peaches (2 pound tin), 18c tin, or 2.00 per dozen.
- Peaches (3 pound tin), 2 tins for 55c.
- Salmon (B. Columbia), 2 tins for 25c.
- Apples (1 gall. tins), 20 cents each.

BEER & GOFF.

A HOT GAME!

The Victorias Defeated at Victoria.

The Game a Draw and After Ten Minutes Play, Crescents Won, 4-2.

VICTORIA, March 3—(Special)—A very interesting and exciting game of hockey was played in Victoria rink this evening, between the 1st Victorias of Charlottetown, and Crescents of Victoria, in which the Vics were defeated by a score of 4 goals to 2.

About 8 o'clock the teams lined up as follows:—

CRESCENTS.	1ST VICTORIAS.
Harry Cameron (goal)	W. Davidson
John Myers (point)	R. McLean
Roy Lea (c. point)	H. Spragus
Fred Clark (forwards)	W. Richards
J. Clark	C. Weeks
W. S. Lea	H. Brehaut
Art Lea	A. Leigh

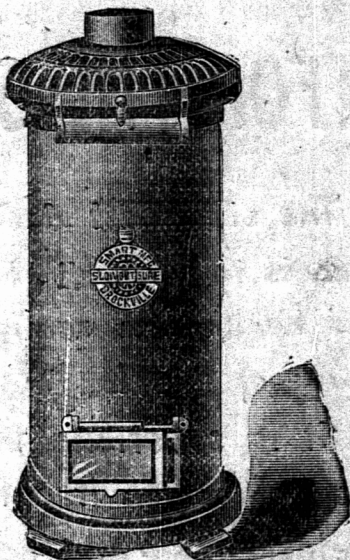

Considerable time was lost at first about the selection of a referee, after which they decided on W. Lea. The play was fast from start to finish. Shortly after the whistle was sounded the puck was rushed to the Crescents' territory but was soon forced back to the Vics' ground and at about 8.20, A. Lea scored for the Crescents, amid deafening applause from the crowd. After this the Vics made a desperate attempt to regain their lost ground, but the Crescents were too many for them, and at half time the score stood 1 goal to 0 in favor of the Crescents.

After a short interval, the teams lined up again and about one minute before time was called the puck was accidentally kicked through the Crescents' goal which made the game a draw.

Ten minutes more play was allowed and after about seven minutes, Brehaut made a brilliant run and scored a goal for the Vics. In a scrimmage by the Vics' goal the puck was dashed through, which was immediately followed by a lift from c. point, and just one minute before time was called R. Lea repeated the tricks making the score 4 goals to 2 in favor of the Crescents.

The Tortise Heater

DIRECT DRAFT SURFACE BURNER FOR HARD OR SOFT COAL.

A "slow but sure" combustion, direct draft surface burner, for hard or soft coal, straight cylinder, no grate to shake or burn out, lined on bottom and sides with best quality heavy fire brick lining top and bottom heavy cast iron, body heavy rolled sheet steel.

A very powerful heater and coal saver. 4 sizes $10, $11, $13, 17. We guarantee perfect satisfaction or money refunded.

Dodd & Rogers

NOTICE DEBTORS

As we have transferred our business to other parties, our books must be Closed up at once. All those indebted to us will oblige by making immediate payment at the OLD STAND.

Accounts long overdue if not attended to at once will be sued for.

W. A. WEEKS & Co. an 25—eod & v2m

Special Clean-up of Reminders from The "White Fair"

Of course there are some reminders we haven't sold every yard of Table Linen:

Or Sheeting—or Pillow Cotton etc. Of course some of these aren't as fresh appearing as the day the "white fair" opened.

Some of 'em are a trifle crushed—and just a little wrinkled. May be some lines are a bit soiled. It's "only a bit" tho'.

We don't want to put them back into stock. We'll pay you to take them away. Here's how.

Until March 7th we'll give an additional discount of 10 per cent

off the already close cut prices of 'white fair' goods.

Remember—this is a second discount—the special sale discount has been deducted already.

We cannot include in the offer

White Unlaundered Shirts,

OR

Unbleached Cottons,

You can't afford to miss this offer. Think what a chance to buy new Table Linens, new Sheetings, new Towels, new Embroideries, new Pillow Cottons.

MOORE & McLEOD.

Our Regular Every Day Prices

are as low as others ask at special sales.

We Haven't Reduced

Our $65.00 Parlor Suite to $45.00.

We Don't Have To.

But just see our $45.00 Suites. They are equal to any FORMER PRICE $65.00 SUITE in the city.