RED CROSS PLANT.—The ladies of Montague Red-Cross Society are busy as usual, at work for the boys at the front, and the latest thing out is, the donating of a very beautiful Coleus Plant by Mrs. H. D. McLeod, which is to be seen at the drug store of H. J. Mabon, Montague, where you may get a draw ticket on same for only ten cents, the winner will be announced in two weeks time.

MONTAGUE RACE TRACK is in excellent condition, the back stretch of same has been regraded and filled up, and the soft clay on the North West end turn, has been moved and refilled, and is now the very best kind of footing. Quite a large number of horses are being worked on it every week including, Commodore Grant, Joker, Better Not, Orwell Belle, Harvest Bells, Claude I., and etc. Most all the above horses, are staked for Montague, Halifax, and Charlottetown Races.—B.

HORSE NOTE.—Among numerous foals of the standard bred stallion Leeland F. 2.114, at Montague, the following are none worthy of special mention. Chestnut filly owned by Joe Patchen Jr., second dam McLaren Allright it is handsome from any angle, and it would be hard to find a more likey speed prospect than this one. Another bay filly owned by Vernon Ross, Union Road, dam by McLaren Allright second dam Dean, third dam, Abdullah, the boys will have to clear the way when this lady gets ready as she is bred to win. William Campbell, Heatherdale, is the proud owner of another Leeland F. filly, from his big Patternmaker mare she looks like the real thing, and William is proud of her. And another bay colt by Malcolm McLeod, Montague, out of his fancy chestnut, Billie McGee, a mare and he is rightly proud of it, has all the ear marks of a trotter, and Malcolm is already counting his winnings, with the "Flying Scotchman."—B.

FOR GOOD RIPE FRESH STRAWBERRIES, write or phone, William McIntyre & Sons, Montague. 1633.7,14M51.

A POPULAR MAIL DRIVER.—Joseph A. Kennedy, Montague, mail-driver for Montague, R. R. No. 2, found Saturday, July 7th while on his route a ladies club bag containing a large sum of money besides other articles. He immediately, made enquiries, and found the owner to be Mrs. (Capt.) Landry, Lower Montague, who needless to say was more than pleased to get it. This is only one of the honest and trustworthy deeds Mr. Kennedy has done, since beginning this mail route, one may always trust "Joe" he won't do any one a wrong knowingly.—B.

A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Jenkins, of Annandale, was the scene of a very happy event on the evening of June 21st, at 8.30 o'clock, when their daughter Myrtle, became the wife of Norman W. McLeod, of Bridgetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. McLeod, assisted by Rev. R. Rand. The bride, who was beautifully attired in a dress of embroidered net, was attended by her cousin, Miss Mary McFarlane. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Otis McLeod, of Ufg. Only the immediate relatives were present. On the following evening the scene of the groom's father was the invited guests spent a happy evening and enjoyed generous hospitality, leaving their good wishes with the happy young couple.

L. O. L.—Star of the East L. O. L., Georgetown fittingly observed the "Twelfth" on Thursday last by holding a picnic at "Riverdale," Brudenell River, the house of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gordon. The weather was ideal and the sun according to tradition shone out gloriously as usual and this combined with a beautiful situation and a pleasing company made this the most successful picnic of the season. A large number of invited guests besides the officers and members of the L. O. L. were present and the grounds presented a very gay appearance enlivened by a large Union Jack which floated grandly supreme on the flag staff and a beautiful Orange Banner of Star of the East Lodge. Many of the picnickers amused themselves by playing various games such as "Three Deep," "Drop the Handkerchief" and other popular picnic games. Games of skill and prowess such as Quits, Throwing the Light Hammer, Racings and Tug of War were also played to the enjoyment of all. About three o'clock in the afternoon ice cream and cigars were served lavishly to all and later all sit down to a bountiful repast served on the lawn by the Ladies of the Lodge. Instrumental music was also supplied by the Victoria so generously lent for the occasion by Mr. C. A. Conrad and some of the more light hearted tripped lightly to the music, others derived pleasure from boating on the beautiful Brudenell River. The hour of the picnic guests all departed after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Gordon for their kindness as host and hostess. Before the party left however three rousing cheers and a tiger were given for Orange Lodge of Georgetown. Credit for this enjoyable outing is due in a large manner to the untiring efforts of Mr. S. N. Johnson, W. M., and to the committee which was in charge.—G.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The semi-annual examination of Conavoy School was held on June 29th when a very large number of parents and friends assembled to see and admire the work of teacher and pupils.

The pupils were examined in the different subjects by Misses Alice Walsh, Josephine Macdonald and Mary W. Macdonald and answered their lessons in a manner that gave credit to their teacher, Miss Penzie Macdonald. After the examination the children rendered a very nice programme after which the pupils presented their teacher with an address, and a beautiful manicule set. Then candy was served, and Mr. William MacKenzie entertained those present with selections from his gramophone. God Save the King was then sung, and all returned to their home. The following is the Address which was read by Miss Ethel McEwen.

Dear Teacher,—

I have been requested by the pupils of this school to offer you a slight token of our affection and regard. I cannot tell you how delighted I am to be the means of conveying to you the expression of our united love. What we offer you is a poor symbol of our feelings, but we know you will receive it kindly as a simple indication of attachment which each one of us cherish in our hearts. You have made our lessons pleasant to us, so pleasant that it would be ungrateful to call them tasks. You know we have often tried your temper and forbearance, but you have dealt gently with us in our waywardness, teaching us by example as well as precept the advantages of kindness and self-control. We will never forget you, we shall look back to this school, not as a place of penance, but as a scene of mental enjoyment, where the paths of learning were strewn with flowers and whenever memory recalls our school days, our hearts will warm towards you as they do today. I have been requested by my schoolmates, not to address you formally, but as a beloved and respected friend. In that light dear teacher, we all regard you. Please accept this small gift with our earned good wishes. May you always be as happy as you have endeavoured to make your pupils and may they (nothing better could be wished for them) be always faithful in their duties to others as you have been in your duties to them. Signed in behalf of the pupils of Conavoy School.

HE WAS KIND HEARTED.

A kind hearted old gentleman came upon a small whimpering archin.

"What's the matter, my little man?" he asked sympathetically.

"I'm lost, Boo-hoo!"

"Lost Nonsense! We mustn't give up hope so soon. Where do you live?"

"I don't know sir," whined the youngster. "We've just moved, and I can't remember the address."

"Well, what's your name?"

"I don't know sir."

"Don't know?" exclaimed the old gentleman.

"No," sobbed the archin. "M-mother got married again this morning."

I fell from a building and received what the doctor called a very bad sprained ankle, and told me I must not walk on it for three weeks. I got MINARD'S LINIMENT and in six days I was out to work again. I think it the best Liniment made.
