Four Out of Five Are Indifferent To Christianity

MRS. ANNA E. HUGHES Chicago, Ill.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—Rev. Ernest William Barnes, Canon of Westminister, addressing the teachers' conference, admitted that about 80 per cent of the population was now indifferent to Christian worship.

IN MEMORIAM

ALVAH L. FALLA

Alvah L. Falla, aged 58, son of Mrs. Jane Falla of E. Becc, passed away after a lingering illness at his late residence, 55 Wyman Street, Arlington, Dec. 31, 1921.

The funeral took place from his late residence, January 3, 1922, the house was thronged with relatives and friends from Boston and environs. Interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Warren of the Presbyterian Church East Boston.

MRS. JAMES GILLESPIE

Passed peacefully to her eternal rest on Wednesday, January 11, 1922, at her home, Carleton, Sarah Campbell, aged 78 years, daughter of the late Hugh Campbell and Mary Carruthers and widow of Mr. James Gillespie of Carleton. The deceased's last illness was brief and came with unexpected suddenness. Her last days were free from pain, and her faculties remained unclouded until the last.

A befitting end to such a life was the tranquility of her last hours, when after expressing her desire to depart and be with Christ, she passed calmly from among us, child of God, hastening to the welcome of her Father's house.

The funeral was largely attended. Interment took place at Cape Traverse Kirk Cemetery, her three sons and six daughters acting as bearers. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. McDougall and Rev. Mr. Lamont. She leaves to mourn three sons and three daughters.

Salts Is Fine For Kidneys, Quit Meat

FLUSH THE KIDNEYS AT ONCE WHEN BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS. No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority.

Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular or passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.

This is a fair proposition. If you are not acquainted with us, ask your neighbor or physician about us.

MEMORIALS RECEIVED.—Received this week a bronze Plaque and a letter from the King as a memorial of their son who was killed in the war.

The family of the late Mrs. John P. Tanton desires to thank the many friends for attentions and kindness shown during the long illness and since the death of their dear mother, and also for frequent contributions of flowers during her illness, and for the beautiful floral designs sent, after her spirit had passed into the better land. Amongst the floral gifts were, a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burnett, chrysanthemum cross from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster, cross of roses from Mr. Leonard Gay, and Arthur Blackwood's casket bouquet from Miss Margaret McDonald, cross of roses from Mr. Percy Boyce, carnations from Ladies Aid of Methodist Church, and crescent from members of the family.

London's Fog Has Come Back Again

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The "London particular," the blinding, choking solid, yellow fog, the Londoner's pride and the visitor's despair has come back to its own.

London's fog is not the soft, misty grey that hangs over a Canadian city in wet weather. It is absolutely dry or as wet as rain itself. It may envelop all of London, a blanket that recedes unwillingly step by step as a pedestrian advances. It may envelop one or a dozen sections, when it may be seen in the distance and is stepped into as definitely as one steps into a doorway.

Whatever the real "London particular" character it is a real fog and when it comes trains stop and traffic is all but halted.

The London fog comes with the autumn and early winter, when fires are lighted in two million fireplaces and the smoke is unable to penetrate the clouds. For several years, there had not been much fog; last year there was almost none. This year it is back, and the Londoner, cursing it when it smokes him an hour late for work, secretly hugs it to his breast, he couldn't help it if he wanted to, and gloats over it as part of his heritage. No one knows where it passes at its vacation.

Old inhabitants will not admit the fog is as bad as it used to be. We cite the well-authenticated incident when one of the old-fashioned omnibuses, rattling into the fog under the archway of a bridge, full of passengers, and never seen again. They recall when it used to be futile for a cabman to lead a horse along curbside with the aid of a lantern, because he wouldn't have been able to see the lantern's light.

Possibly the fog is not what it used to be; probably it never was. But it hurts the eyes, chokes the throat and makes a trip outdoors a journey into the unknown. It is unescapable. It gets into rooms through cracks around doors and windows. It is like a trip to the spirit world to get on top of a street, into a half fog, not thick enough to halt the apparently reckless, but always safe bus driver, and watch passing vehicles loom up out of the fog five yards away in the narrow tortuous street, and at night to emerge suddenly into the golden glow of the usually glaring electrically lighted signs that now almost encircle Piccadilly Circus.

But though the fog is, in a way, unpleasant, and leaves its grimy marks on skin and clothes, it is as much a part of London as is London Bridge.

ISLAND LADY ENTERTAINED.—Miss Daisy V. Adams of Port Hill, Prince Edward Island, was the guest of honor at an informal dance given by her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Small, at their home at 78 Westland avenue, Boston, Mass., the evening of Dec. 29.

Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Aikson, Mr. and Mrs. P. Polson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Large and family, Dr. W. E. Knox, Lieut. C. J. Chandler, Dr. J. B. Brown, Mr. A. A. Morrison, Capt. and Mrs. G. Ayer, and Miss Alice Cutting. Miss Adams was also the guest of honor at a bridge party given by Mr. and Mrs. Large at their home on Beacon Hill, and during her three months' visit in Boston has been tendered numerous dinners, afternoon teas and informal dances at the Boston Masonic Club and other social centres. Incidentally the Boston Masonic Club has recently occupied its new home on Beacon street, declared by those in a position to know to be the finest exclusive Masonic Club quarters in the United States. It is expected that Miss Adams will return to her home in Prince Edward Island in the near future.

SOLDIER WEDS.—A very interesting event took place on Saturday, Dec. 31st, 1921, at the Presbyterian Manse, Murray River, when Mr. Joseph Atwood Bell of Murray Stewart and Miss Sarah Kathryn Stewart of High Bank and late of Rockport, Mass., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. M. D. MacDonald. The bride, who was unattended, wore a becoming costume of blue serge with hat to match and a beautiful set of fox furs. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for the home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Brehaut of Gurnsey Cove, where the contracting parties were greeted by innumerable relatives and friends and where a sumptuous repast was spread. In the course of the evening they were visited by a large company of serenaders who were orderly and well behaved, a large number of useful and valuable presents testified to the high esteem in which both the bride and bridegroom were held. Their many friends join in wishing them a happy wedded life.

Are You Sure Your Children's Eyes Are Right?

A responsibility rests upon every parent to give his child every possible advantage in life; to give the child the best of reasons with which to meet the struggle of the years ahead. Surely good eyesight is "the priceless gift" that your child should have. Remember that poor eyesight means poor concentration and will retard the youngster's progress. Many a child considered dull or lazy in school or many a student has simply been suffering from defective vision. And after correct glasses have changed entirely the record of performance. Perhaps your youngster's report-card is reflecting the presence of eye-strain. Perhaps you are not doing your own child full justice. Have an examination made and know. Consult

Father Rescued His Children In Week Of Time ST. JOHN, Jan. 10.—A thrilling escape from being burnt to death was the experience of three children of Edward Prime, Fairville, a suburb of this city, when fire broke out early this morning in the room where they were sleeping. But for the timely discovery by Mrs. Prime, who was aroused out of her sleep by the cracking of the flames in the children's room which adjoined her room, nobody would have been hurt. Mrs. Prime was just able to get the children out of the room before the fire had caught the bedding. The house and nearly all its contents were destroyed. Mr. Prime estimates his loss at $5,000.

Hanged Himself In His Bathroom At Montreal MONTREAL, Jan. 10.—Found hanging by a scarf from a hot water pipe in the bathroom of an apartment house he had rented at 20 St. Julie street, the body of Charles Edouard Lefevre, 25 years of age, of 39 Emery Street. The names of the men are Captain D. Burden, Mate W. Burden, who is the Captain's cousin, John Frieze, John Burden, brother of the skipper, John Clark and James Creeker.

PURITY FLOUR "More Bread and Better Bread" and Better Pastry, too. Use it in All Your Baking Crew of Five Faced Death For Forty-Six Days ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 12.—A thrilling tale of mountainous seas and terrific gales that deluged their stout little schooner of 154 tons register, and drove it up and down the stormy wastes of mid-Atlantic for a period of forty-six days is brought to this port by the hardy skipper of the schooner Otwell and his crew of five stalwart Newfoundlanders who arrived in this port on Saturday night as passengers on Steamer Metagama bound for their homes in Carbonara, Newfoundland. It was an experience that the men say they remember with a shudder. Black furies raged day after day of leaden grey skies and tremendous seas that conspired in vain
