

DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

Furnished by W. S. Louson

THE HELPERS.

He that turneth from the road to rescue another
Turneth toward his goal:
He shall arrive in due time by the foot path of mercy,
God will be his guide.

He that taketh up the burden of the fainting
Lighteneth his own load:
The Almighty will put his arms underneath him.

He shall lean upon the Lord.
He that speaketh comfortable words
to mourners,
Healeth his own heart.
In his time of grief they will return
to remembrance,
God will use them for balm.

He that careth for the sick and wounded
Watcheth not alone.
There are three in the darkness together.
And the third is the Lord.
—Henry Van Dyke.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories. An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin, weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days, you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair. Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Special agents E. A. Foster, Sunnyside.

CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

The Canadian Magazine for July is a good mid-summer number. Francis A. Carman on "Borden's Parliamentary Manner" pictures the premier as leader of the House of Commons and is in itself a most entertaining contribution. Another article of significance is "Grand Army, in which this interesting writer tells about criticisms of this famous missionary which he had heard in Newfoundland and Labrador. An article on the valuable old masterpieces of art at Laval University, written by E. J. Phillips, gives a fine review of this important collection. There are five reproductions from the original paintings at Laval. Other contributions are "A Young Volunteer," by Ida Burwash; "Bath: An Ancient Watering Place," by Norman Frick; "Plays of the Mid-Season," by John El Webber, with poems and short stories by Arthur Stralger, Captain Leslie T. Peacocke, Madge Macbeth, Florence Warden, Beatrice Redpath, Minnie Playter, John Boyd, Frederick C. Curry, and Edith L. Payne.
