THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

In fur farming is correct feeding. The continual feeding of one food will not give the best results. A balanced ration is necessary to secure vigorous vixens producing large litters. This is being more and more realized each year and is the reason successful ranchers are using Imperial Cod-Liver Oil Fox Biscuit so largely during the winter season. We will gladly furnish testimonials.

Search Your Attic For Fortunes In Old Stamps

Among the old letters of many families are hundreds of very rare stamps. Many have been found and sold for small fortunes. Single envelopes have been sold for as high as n6,000.00 and many have brought upwards of $100.00 each. It sounds "fishy" but it's true. They are rare, not because there are only a few, but for the simple reason that most of them have remained stored away and forgotten in old trunks, family chests and closets.

Make a thorough search through your attic or storeroom for these old letters—anything mailed from 1845 to 1875. I am a collector not a dealer. Have nothing to sell or circulars to send, but am willing to pay for rare stamps more than the average dealer.

The stamps I am especially interested in are the early U. S. issues on envelopes mailed to Canada, British Columbia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Vancouver, also a few of the early issues of Great Britain and Colonies. Loose stamps I do not buy—only those on the original envelopes. So don't cut them off the envelopes.

Letters mailed since 1875 bear mostly common stamps, and these I do not care for. I collect nothing but stamps, and am not interested in buying old relics old newspapers, books or coins. There are many stamps of different issues which are similar in appearance. It is therefore impossible for me to quote values from descriptions. I must first see the stamps.

When you have gotten all the envelopes together wrap the bunch carefully, using cardboard to protect them from becoming wrinkled or creased. Please don't write on the face of the envelope—I am fully acquainted with the issues even though the postmark shows no year date. Don't use pins. Private letters inside the envelope may be kept by you, as it is only the envelope I want. (This would not of course be possible with the old-fashioned folded letters, as the letter itself forms the "envelope".

If you have reason to believe that your envelopes are of special value send them by registered mail. In order to avoid having the package held up for customs examination, mark on the outside "Old Stamps, Not Dutiable". I hold myself responsible for the care of such envelopes while in my possession. On receipt I will examine them and if found of no value, or if my offer is unsatisfactory, I guarantee their safe return to you.

Make your search now, before the address is lost or forgotten. Tell your friends or ask permission to look over their old letters. Many elderly people have kept hundreds of such letters, and might welcome the opportunity of realizing money for them at very little trouble and no expense.

Something New For Tonsilitis

Ontario Lady Adopts New Vaporizing Salve, Vicks

Miss Margaret Hooley of 96 Chesley Ave., London, Ont., says: "I am pleased to say Vicks VapoRub has done me a lot of good as I am subject to colds in winter. I also found it a great relief to my throat when I had tonsilitis. Also my mother finds it good for headaches. I would not be without it."

They used to treat colds externally with tallow, goose grease and camphor. Recetnly, internal dosing has been the habit and people naturally doubt the value of a salve.

For this reason, Canada druggists introduced Vicks VapoRub, the vaporizing salve for all cold troubles, last winter by giving away dozens of jars to responsible families and every jar sold was on 30 day trial.

The above report is just one of a great many received from enthusiastic Canada families. With such endorsement and a positive money-back guarantee, every household ought to give Vicks a thorough trial as the home remedy for croup, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, neuralgia, cuts, burns, bruises and sores.

At all drug stores 50c a jar. For a free test package, write Vick Chemical Co., 344 St. Paul St., W Montreal, P. Q.

Though Vicks is new in Canada, it enjoys a remarkable sale. Over 17 million jars used yearly.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. MURDOCK GILLIS

On Feb. 7th the angel of death visited the home of Alymer McEwen Rollo Bay and took from their midst an old and esteemed resident Mr. Murdock Gillis aged seventy-nine years. He was born in Nova Scotia, and came to the Island in 1866, one year later he married Mrs Annie Henderson (nee Annie Hamilton) of Pictou who predeceased him five weeks ago. Mr Gillis was proprietor of the wool and cloth mill Rollo Bay, and being an expert miller received many first class prizes for cloth. He had been failing for five months, and when his beloved wife passed through the valley of the shadow of death, his poor old heart could not stand the test and he passed away with heart trouble on the said date. They had heard a voice whisper "twas the voice of their God I love thee, I love thee pass under the red, to the house not made with hands, the house of many mansions. For He has said I go and prepare a place for you He leaves to mourn six daughters Mrs Hector Campbell Rollo Bay, Mrs. (Rev) Wm. R. Ryder Schuyler Falls New York. Graduate of Garden's training school for Missionaries Boston Mass Mrs William McKie Greenwood Mass. Mrs. Melvin Wood Farmington, Mrs Alymer McEwen Rollo Bay, and Angelina on the old homestead.

Eloquent were the words spoken on the waining years of the deceased by his pastor the Rev. Wm. Lockhart.

Oh, what will be the meeting
No words its joy may frame!
When face to face we see them
Immortal, yet the same,
When dear long-silent voices
Shall speak our names once more,
And smiles of welcome greet us
As fondly as of yore.

MRS. NEILL LAMONT

Entered peacefully into rest on the 6th, Feb. 1923, at her home in Churchill, aged 75, Mrs. Ann Lamont, relict of the late well known Neil Lamont, who predeceased her there about nine years. The announcement of her death will touch the hearts of many acquaintances and recall memories of one of the kindest and gentlest of friends, the warm welcome of her home will long be remembered alike by friends and strangers. In the neighborhood also, Mrs. Lamont's life though retired and unobtrusive had an influence of cheerfulness and genuine good will.

After a short illness due to heart weakness, Mrs. Lamont in the last few hours had a clear knowledge of her near departure and expressed her entire resignation to the divine call. All that love and skill could devise were bestowed to comfort her last hours.

Mrs. Lamont leaves to mourn her daughters Mrs. Peter Ferguson of Hampton; Mrs John A. McKinnon of Churchill, Mrs. Richard Hood of Lowell Mass, and sons: Owen E. of Salem, Mass. Daniel of Lynnfield, Mass; and Lemuel at home also a brother Duncan McGillivray and a sister Mrs. Neil McKinnon. Her Pastor the Rev. A. M. Lamont officiated at her funeral which was largely attended.
