MAGDALEN FLIGHTS TO BEAL - More than 12 tons of mail and from 30 to 60 passengers are waiting here for air transportation to the Magdalen Islands. It was learned yesterday, Capt. Carl Burke, head of Maritime Central Airways here said his company is ready to fly to the islands if conditions were favorable. If they got a break with the weather the mail and passengers would be transported from here in week. Probably 12 to 20 round trips would be required. Much of the mail was scheduled to go to the Magdalen Islands by the S.S. Rev. Father MacKenzie as High Priest, and Rev. John Sullivan and Rev. George Macdonald, Deacons of Honor. The Deacon of the Mass was Rev. Father MacKenzie, and Sub-deacon Rev. Kenneth MacMillan. His Excellency the Bishop delivered the Christmas sermon, and hundreds of the congregation received Holy Communion. In the afternoon at four o'clock Pontifical Vespers were celebrated followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament given by the Bishop assisted by Rev. Father MacKenzie as High Priest, and Rev. John Sullivan and Rev. George Macdonald, Deacons of Honor. The Deacon of the Mass was Rev. Father MacKenzie, and Sub-deacon Rev. Kenneth MacMillan.
