

THE DUKE BEING INTRODUCED.

The Queen of Holland has brought her duket home and is showing him to the folks. The general opinion of the Dutch seems to be that he is just "fair to mid-dle."

The school boy who plies his business on railroad wharf, fishing smelts is often worried by the inquisitiveness of strangers, particularly commercial travellers. Yesterday morning a knight of the grip sack accosted a busy little fellow with: "Johnny, how do they bite to-day?" Johnny promptly replied: "With their mouth," and went on fishing.

SNEEZE AND BLOW

This is what you must do when you have catarrh in the head. The way to cure this disease is to purify the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces, rebuilds the delicate tissues and permanently cures catarrh by expelling from the blood the scrofulous taints upon which it depends. Be sure and get Hood's The non-irritating cathartic—Hood's Pills

DIED.

In this city, on October 30th, N. D. Armour, aged 45 years. (Funeral to-day at 4.15 to People's Cemetery.)

At Hunter River, of appendicitis, on Wednesday the 24th October, James William, eldest and dearly beloved son of Lilla Jane and Donald Andrews, aged seven years and eight months.

A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

God in His wisdom has recalled, The boon His love has given, And though the body moulders here The soul is safe in Heaven.

SAFE, SURE, AND PAINLESS.

What a world of meaning this statement embodies. Just what you are looking for, is it not Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—the great sure-pop corn cure—acts in this way. It makes no sore spots; safe, acts speedily and with certainty; sure and mildly, without inflaming the parts; painlessly. Do not be imposed upon by imitations or substitutes.

NOTHING DISSAPPOINTS

WEBSTER & MacKAY, Ideal Grocer, PHONE 199.

At the meeting in St. John of the New Brunswick and P. E. Island Missionary Committee an appropriation of $807 was made for Charlottetown, and $975 for Summerside.

We clip the following from the Brockton Times, of Sept. 27th: A delightful and happy occasion was the wedding of Miss Edith Alice Anderson and E. Altop Badger last evening, at their new home on South Russell street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreen under the direction of Melvin W. Estes of North Adams, a friend of the groom. Suspended from the ceiling in the parlor was a magnificent floral bell, under which the bridal couple stood. The bridal party entered the parlor at 8 o'clock to the sound of a wedding march rendered on the piano by James Carr. The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of white silk organdie. She wore a long tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of white asters and bridal bells. Miss Bertha Pope was maid of honor, and wore a pretty gown of organdie and carried a bouquet of white asters. Herbert Anderson, a brother of the bride, acted as best man. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Edgar F. Clark, of the Memorial Methodist church, a ring being used. At its conclusion the happy couple were showered with congratulations and good wishes. Ice cream and cake were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Nauman, Mr. and Mrs. John Nauman, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stone, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Manter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Badger, Mr. and Mrs. George Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Jos.
