Binns Wins Decision Over Amherst Boxer

Taking the offensive from the opening going and holding it throughout the eight rounds, Benjie Binns last night copped the decision from Lawson Long of Amherst in the main event of the L. P. U.'s boxing card.

In the semi-final "Flash" McDonald and "Kid" Nickerson fought another grueling, slugger battle with both judges calling it a draw, a decision that proved unpopular with the crowd.

In the opening fight of the evening "Kid" Orford and Billie King fought to another draw. Referee Pat Adair casting the deciding vote after the judges had disagreed.

Stan Steele and Fred Byers engaged in another of their comedy bouts preceding the main go, the three rounds of comedy being enjoyed hugely by the crowd.

Officials: Referee—Pat Adair; Judges—J. Cameron, Carl Prowse.

Timer—E. F. Acorn; Announcer—Gus Longaphie.

REMEMBER WHEN—

Toronto Maple Leafs five years ago tonight snapped out of a losing streak to defeat Chicago Black Hawks 3-1 in one of the most thrilling games seen in Toronto in years.

More than 10,000 spectators crowded into Wembley for the second of these test matches, won by Canada 5-4, and several thousand people were unable to gain admittance.

They were disappointed at the showing of Britain's best against the Canadians. With Leo Sargent, former Halifax Wolverine, in goal and the brilliant Lou Bates from Ottawa putting on a great show at defence, Canada held off the home-breds with comparative ease.

Canadian Hockey Team Favorite In England To Capture Olympic Title

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, Dec. 19.—England, for all her hockey boom and tremendous interest in the sport, is convinced that the Olympic hockey championship will be won at Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, in 1936 by either Canada or the United States.

Even should the British entry be bolstered by English-born Canadians, as it may be before the selectors are through, Britain's team would scarcely measure up to the high standard of the Port Arthur Bearcats, representing Canada or the all-star team from the United States, it is believed.

England knows something about the situation, too, because selected British teams have twice been defeated this season by outfits selected from among Canadians playing on various teams in the country.

Managements of the various rinks banded together to raise a fund of $2,500 towards the cost of sending the team to the Olympics.

Miller Joins Irvine On New Haven Lineup

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) Marlborough in the minor hockey leagues had a lean night in the scoring summaries only Ron Hudson appearing in the role of playmaker.

Bill Miller and Nucker Irvine resumed the relations they formerly held with Moncton Hawks as they appeared on the starting lineup at Boston with New Haven Eagles in a game that ended in a 1-1 tie.

Ron Hudson has changed his title of goal-a-game Hudson he held with Halifax Wolverines for that of chief assistant to scorers.

"Bobs" Famous Island Canine Always On Duty

(Canadian Press) CHARLOTTETOWN, Dec. 19.—As the Borden-Charlottetown express blows for the New Wilshire crossing, 15 miles out of Charlottetown, Conductor George S. Ryan accompanied by a group of interested passengers, makes for the rear platform of the train.

Conductor Ryan, like all the railwaymen along the line, takes great pride in the achievement.

"Bobs" always every night for the sound of the whistle," he explains. "When he hears it, he would jump through the window if the Rennis didn't let him out.

David Rennis and his wife came out from second floor than a decade ago. Their youngest daughter, Catherine, had a Highland Collie. She taught him to pick up the paper thrown by the conductor.

"We got Bobs at Royalty Junction" the conductor explained.

"He's just dog—about three-quarters Collie. Bobs was one of a litter of eight—all males. But what a wonderful dog!"

Little Catherine Rennis first carried him in her arms when she came to watch the train. Gradually the dog learned the idea of taking the paper home.

A year ago the Rennis moved their farm home from one side of the track to the other. Catherine was afraid her Bobs would go back to the wrong side of the cars and get caught in a bad snow storm.

But Bobs reacted nobly. He kept to the right side of the track as if moving a farmhouse was just an everyday occurrence.

"Sometimes the mail clerks throw off papers and parcels of no value, just to fool him," volunteered Conductor Ryan who has had 40 years of railway experience.

"But Bobs just sniffs at them and makes for the newspaper. When I am away, the brakeman, or newsagent throw him the paper. Nearly every day we have an interested audience of tourists to see Bobs perform and he never misses an engagement—except when it is too stormy to hear the train whistle."

"And when Bobs brings home the paper, he demands payment. He won't put it down in the kitchen of the Rennis home until he is paid with a cookie or biscuit.

2 Champions In Non-title Bout Tonight

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Two champions meet in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, but no title will be at stake.

Jack McAvoy, holder of the British light heavyweight and middleweight crowns, and Babe Risko, recognized in North America as the world's reigning middleweight king, will swap punches in the featured 10-round bout.

For McAvoy the fight will furnish an opportunity to get a crack either at Risko's title or John Henry Lewis' light heavyweight crown.

Risiko, who acquired his title only three months ago when he outboxed Teddy Yarosz and since has won three non-title events, also would like a chance at Lewis' championship.

Junior Abbies, new from their gothic out, get their baptism of fire tonight when they take on the fast-skating Royals in a Junior exhibition game.

Johnny Murno, Ed Barnabe, Curly Krug and Abe Zvonkin were outstanding stars of Queen's Toronto ace were all on the back-end, including Bobby Coulter, Joe Connelly, Hugh Marks and Cam Gray.

In the O. R. F. U. Sarnia's team, without the veterans Normie Perry and Alex Hayes, were undefeated until they went down with astonishing ease before Tigers in the eastern final.

Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, Dec. 19.—Boston Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs played 70 minutes to a scoreless tie tonight in the tamest National Hockey League game contested here this season.

Outplaying Boston in every period, Toronto were unable to penetrate effectively the packed Boston defence. Without Eddie Shore, suffering from a back injury, Bruins seemed content to take a tie.

Leafs outshot Bruins 36 to 24 and many of the drives George Hainsworth saved were from far out.

Boston showed their only spurt of offensive hockey in the second period when Cooney Weiland, Red Beattie and Dick Clapper staged a few minutes of sparkling play.

West Captures Canadian Football Title

(By ELMER DULMAGE Canadian Press Staff Writer (Copyright, 1935, by The Canadian Press))

The story of 1935 football in Canada was written by the west with its Winnipeg, its Regina Roughriders and Calgary Bronks. It is just possible that the first two ranking teams in the country, for the first time in the history of the Canadian gridiron, were assembled on the prairies.

Winnipeg won National honors by defeating Hamilton Tigers 18-12 in the 12th inter-sectional classic, and Winnipeg gave the sport its greatest individual performer since the days of Lionel Conacher. This was Fritz Hanson, sensational little halfback who came from North Dakota State College.

Since Winnipeg only downed Regina 13-6 in the western semi-final and Calgary 7-0 in the final, the question arose as to whether either of these prairie machines could also have topped Hamilton. Western opinion was that Al Ritchie's Roughriders might have turned the trick.

One of the most brilliant gridiron campaigns in all sectors was completely overshadowed in early December by the first successful western invasion of the east. Winnipeg went into Hamilton to set down a team that had left every single doubt about the validity of its claim to the eastern title.

Tigers, coached by Fred Neale, had won the Big Four championship with a smashing drive to overtake the early leaders, Toronto Argonauts. At the finish of the nine-game schedule they were conceded to be stronger than an arrival, Huck Welch and Johnny Ferraro took rank with the best halves in the game.

Against the Inter-collegiate champions, Queen's University, the Tigers ran wild, amassing a 44-4 lead against the outclassed Kingston students. The game started as a struggle between an arrogant Canadian champion, Sarnia Imperials, the following week and administered a smashing 22-3 defeat to the O. R. F. U. titlists.

So it was a mighty force that made the east's 12th defence of national supremacy. Tigers had whatever advantage there was of playing in their own stadium before a home crowd. They had two of the best punters in the game, Huck Welch and Frank Turville, and they started as 2-1 favorites.

Hanson was the star of Winnipeg's dramatic triumph, running 75 yards for the decisive touchdown in the third quarter. He gave the most dazzling ball-carrying show the east had seen in years, and he had great help from a superlative wingline and a steady, highly effective rear division.

Regina's strong team, unbeaten in scheduled games until it faced Winnipeg, was built around Quarterback O. Olson and Halfback Ralph Pierce, who was only second to Hanson as a broken-field runner. The other western champion was Vancouver Meralomas in British Columbia. Meralomas were eliminated by Calgary.

College football attracted the biggest crowds in the east, largely because of the brilliance of a fine University of Toronto team, an early second spurt by McGill and a great finish by Queen's, coached by Ted Reeve. Warren Stevens' Toronto Varsity was unbeaten in the Intercollegiate schedule, but it was held to a tie by Queen's in the Intercollegiate final, and it was beaten by the Tricolor in the playoff.

Johnny Murno, Ed Barnabe, Curly Krug and Abe Zvonkin were outstanding stars of Queen's Toronto ace were all on the back-end, including Bobby Coulter, Joe Connelly, Hugh Marks and Cam Gray.

In the O. R. F. U. Sarnia's team, without the veterans Normie Perry and Alex Hayes, were undefeated until they went down with astonishing ease before Tigers in the eastern final. On a pre-season tour of the west they were triumphant until Winnipeg, giving the first sign of their power, downed the Imperials 3-1 in the Manitoba capital.

Canadian Olympic Team In Workouts

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 19.—Coach Albert Pudas, with his Bearcat hockey team at full strength, put Canada's Olympic hopes through two sessions of ice drill today.

Pudas said there would be two drillings a day from now until Christmas Day when the team leaves for Winnipeg to start a series of exhibition games that precede their championship efforts in Berlin.

Arrival of six players from Montreal and Halifax, the reinforcements allotted them by the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, brought the Bearcats' strength to 13.

Most of the players have been in light training and are in good physical shape to start the grind. The series of exhibition games planned for the team will take the boys through Winnipeg, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Halifax and possibly Hamilton. There will be other games in England as final conditioning.

Hawks Come From Behind To Tie Canadiens 2-2; Red Wings Defeat Amerks

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Detroit Red Wings, aided by a couple of lucky goals, defeated New York Americans 3-1 in a National Hockey League game at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The winning goals came in the closing seconds of the first and second periods as a result of rebounds which trickled in after goalie Roy Worters had left his cage to stop drives.

Pete Kelly opened the scoring with a fine angle shot early in the first period, after racing along the boards into scoring position. The Americans came back to even the score a couple of minutes later when Hal Cotton poked one in, assisted by Schriener and Stewart.

The rebound struck Aurie's skate as he skated back to centre ice when he swung one-handed at a loose puck at the blue line and the rubber slid along the ice all the way into the net.

Jean Louis Bourcier was the hero of the second-period goal when he darted inside and battled few seconds until he got a shot at goal. The defending Hawks were drawn toward him and left Lepine clear to lift the rebound over Karakas as he sprawled helpless. Jean was hugged by his teammates and the crowd roared an ovation.

Howie Morenz showed all his old speed despite reports he had a price tag of $15,000 if Maroons want to buy him, and made the plays for both March's goals. Johnny Gottselig and Morenz passed the defence out of position for the first time before Howie gave March a set-up pass for the shot, just after the two-minute mark.

This trio came back at the 12-minute mark with Morenz in the lead and he passed out to Gottselig from the corner. Gottselig feinted Wilf Cude and passed to March for a neat-looking goal. Neither tried very hard in the overtime in which the goal-keepers handled only five shots.

Chicago dropped further behind Detroit in the League's American section as a result of the tie while Canadiens got within one point of the idle Maroons in third place in the Canadian division.

The lineups: Chicago—Goal, Karakas; defence, Wiebe and Levinsky; centre, Morenz; wings, March and Gottselig; subs, Burke, Coulter, Thompson, Rommes, McFadyen, Ouellette, Trudell, Locking, Cook.

Canadiens—Goal, Cude; defence, Buswell and Lesieur; centre, C. Bourcier; wings, J. L. Bourcier and Deslets; subs, S. Mantha, Pusie, Lepine, Joliat, Goldsworthy, Haynes, McGill, Gagnon, Mondou.

Officials—Mike Rodden and Johnny Mitchell.
