IN MEMORIAM

MRS. EWEN McDONALD

The death took place at Caledonia South on April 28 of Isabella, wife of Mr. Ewen McDonald, aged 71 years. Mrs. McDonald contracted a cold about three weeks previous to her death, to which she finally succumbed. It was only last July that Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were married. In that short time she made many friends in the community, and all are sorry that death claimed her so soon. Besides her husband, she left one sister in Boston, Mass., to mourn. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. McDonald as he is left alone. The services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. M. D. MacLeod. (Patriot please copy.)

MR. KENNETH MARTIN, J. P.

On Saturday May 2nd, Glen Martin lost one of his oldest and respected citizens in the person of Mr. Kenneth Martin, J. P. Death came to him without any warning. He took his dinner as hearty as usual and at five o'clock in the afternoon he passed into eternity. Mr. Martin was born in the Isle of Skye on July 12th, 1835. (With his parents he emigrated to this country in 1841 and settled in Heatherdale. In 1862 he married Miss Mary Bruce, and moved to Glen Martin 40 years ago, where they made a comfortable home. His wife died 7 years ago. Mr. Martin left many friends. He had a winning personality. He was kind and gentle in his ways. He wished no one evil. He always took a deep interest in all that was for the betterment of the community. In church affairs he was also active. He belonged to the Caledonia congrgation of which he was a member, and though advanced in years, and the weather cold, he attended the annual meetings, until last year. He left to mourn, three daughters and four sons, the former are Mrs. Tatten of West Medford, Mass., Mrs. Malcolm Martin, Valleyfield and Mrs. John A. McPherson of Valleyfield East, the sons are Angus of Quiney, Mass., Malcolm of Oakland, Cal., Kenneth of Rossland B. C., and Charles K. on the old homestead. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor the Rev. M. D. MacLeod. The deceased belonged to the Orange Order, and six members of the order acted as pall bearers. It was the intention of the Orangemen to hold a service at the grave, but owing to a heavy down pour of rain, they had to dispense with it. The unusual funeral concourse bore testimony to the large place he held in the people's hearts, and that one had been taken from their midst whom they respected and admired. (Patriot please copy.)

MRS. JOHN R. MacDONALD

At Springfield Queens Co., on May 16, 1919, Mary E. relict of the late John R. MacDonald.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Alexander MacDonald of Blooming Point. She came to Springfield with her husband fifty two years ago and resided there constantly until her death.

A woman of great energy and unsparring of her strength, she some twenty years ago, following the death of her eldest sons John and Frank within a year, suffered a nervous breakdown followed by asthma. Again in 1907 her third son Allen died after a brief illness and her husband's death took place Jan. 6, 1914.

Thus after a life of much sorrow, when she was stricken with her final illness she asked her friends not to pray for her recovery as she wished to reach the end of her earthly journey. After receiving the last rites of the Catholic Church which were administered by her beloved pastor Rev. J. T. Murphy, the end came most peacefully. All her life she had been preparing for it, and when it came it brought no tears. Prior to her years of suffering she was lively and light hearted, ever ready to assist a neighbor especially in sickness. During her entire life she was keenly interested in her friends and was always sympathetic and charitable towards the poor and unfortunate.

Of a family of twelve the following survive Mrs. Thos. Shreenan, Alliston Mass.; Mrs. James Shreenan, Cam bridge; Mrs. Jos. White, Emerald; Mrs. John Murphy, Claremont; the Misses Nellie and Martha, Springfield; and one son E. Leonard of Trenton, N. S.

The funeral to St. James Church on Saturday the eighteenth was large ly attended. Rev. William McDonald grand nephew of the deceased officiating. The pall bearers were: Messrs Robert McKenzie, Bertram Haslam, Ronald MacDonald, Michael Cra ken, John T. White and James B. Cro ken.

Printed tolle de Jouy is used by the French for blouses for tailored suits.

Short, full, box-pleated skirts are a feature of many of the new suits.
