EVERYBODY has a want. You probably have some little want right now. And nine chances out of ten, or thereabouts, you could fill that want by using a Guardian classified ad. You may find your servant, and your errand boys, and your gardener without advertising, but a want ad costs so little, and is so easy and so quick, and such a sure method of finding the cream of the unemployed that you cannot afford to get along without it.

THE Guardian's Alberry Plains and vicinity correspondent writes:—The trustees of Alberry Plains school are to be congratulated in securing Mr. Currie as their teacher. The school is progressing rapidly under his charge.—Much credit is due the president and secretary of the Maple Leaf institute for the thriving manner in which it is progressing.—Cephus Tweedy recently met with a serious loss. While his horses were out in the field exercising one accidentally broke his leg. The animal being young and handsome the loss is a heavy one.—Much sympathy is felt for Wendall and Mrs. Lea in the death of their only child Harry, aged one year.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of John and Mrs. Hubley, on Monday evening the 12th inst the occasion being the crystal anniversary of their marriage. Quite a number of their friends were present by invitation and spent the evening very pleasantly. The program included recitations, dramatic pieces, addresses, music etc. About 10 o'clock luncheon was served and every justice done to the inner man. A pleasing feature of the entertainment was an address by Alexander McMillan, Esq. J. P. in his usual pleasing manner. He said he considered gatherings of this nature to do much good socially in any community. He wished Mr. and Mrs. Hubley might enjoy not only their crystal wedding but also their golden and diamond. He concluded his remarks by saying, he hoped that when all meetings in the world were ended, we might all meet in the great beyond, where there would be no more parting. Mr. Hubley replied thanking him and all present for their good wishes and himself. Several others addressed the company the speeches being interspersed with music. At 12 o'clock the company dispersed after joining hands and singing Auld Lang Syne in good old Scottish style.

THE Murray River correspondent of The Guardian sends the following: In spite of the muddy roads and a threatening sky, a goodly number of delegates from surrounding lodges, gathered in Dawn of Day lodge room on the evening of Feb. 5th to discuss plans for the better enforcement of law and order. After a good deal of discussion participated in by Rev. S. D. McPhee and E. G. Giddings of Dawn of Day; Archie McDonald of P. A. Lodge; Angus Stewart, Jos Hayter and Benj. Beck of High Bank Lodge; T. Miller and Benj. Graham of Lord Stanley Lodge; Henry J. Campbell of Ladysmith Lodge; Albert Horton, and others, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Whereas drinking and bad behaviour (which is a consequence of drinks) has become so notorious in some places on public occasions and many boys and young men are being injured, many ruined; and believing that we should make an effort to stop the flood of liquor that is steadily coming to parts of this district: Therefore be it resolved that as many of those present as are willing band themselves in law and order leagues, whose work it will be to aid in the enforcement of the Scott Act, in the suppression of bad behaviour and work for the bringing in of the Prohibition law and its enforcement. That Dawn of Day is a live and growing lodge is evinced by the fact that within the last three weeks ten new members have been received.

Perfect La Grippe Waters.—A specific for La Grippe.—They stimulate the circulation and drive off colds, chills, and feverish conditions of the system.—Are easily taken, and do their work thoroughly—no after effects.—25c per box.—A. W. Reddin Phem B., Sunnyside Drugist.

Rev. W. J. CAMPBELL, A. B. will preach (D. V.) at Bangor 10.30 a. m. and at Dundas 6.30 p. m. next Sabbath, Feb. 25th.

Mrs. JOHN MCMURDO, Kensington left last night for Georgetown en route to visit her daughter Mrs. Clay of Hartford Conn.

Watch carefully for the carnival ad which will give all information as to prizes, etc. etc. So many have indicated their intention of going that it is found to be a huge success. No pains will be spared by the Directors to make it a memorable evening and every one is requested to get up a pretty or an original costume and spend an enjoyable evening before Lent.

THE Guardian's Mount Hope correspondent writes:—It is seldom anyone writes anything regarding Mount Hope in your valuable paper.—The school here is progressing rapidly through the untiring efforts of our efficient teacher Miss Laura L. Owen.—John D. McGowan of Albion Cross is visiting in Mount Hope, the guest of Allan McLeod.—Alex B. McDonald of this place is visiting friends in Rollo Bay.—Angus McDonald and Chas. H. Robertson are engaged at framing a building for Allan McLeod.—Norman McSwain purchased a valuable mare from James P. Larkins; she is a beauty and the pride of the owner.—A few evenings ago a social party was held at the home of A. Matheson; the evening was spent in games and various amusements, after which light refreshments were served. The party broke up just as the eastern horizon showed signs that the night was over.—We are pleased to see the farm and buildings formerly owned by Wm. Hunter and for a long time vacant, now in the possession of one of our esteemed residents, Angus Ward.—D. McKay is getting material for a new barn which will be erected next summer.—J. Dockendorff has recently erected a beautiful residence, which when painted and fully completed will be a credit to the settlement.

For everything we get something is taken away. Every act pulls two ways. Some men in power do not think of this for it. They can't have soul and power at the same time. And so, in this quick-living age, most of us can't have energy and health at the same time. One or the other must be lost, and it is usually health. We know we are doing wrong and would like to reform, but we have a morbid fear of being laughed at if we aim to live and act according to conscience and good sense. Some of us break away for awhile and make ourselves free to a diet. We read about the hardy Scotsman being fed on porridge and oatmeal, making soldiers of muscle and dash, and how Caesar's army was fed on corn. But the diet doesn't last long. We quickly swing back into the great line, eating and drinking to fullness like the rest, eating anything and everything, at any time, and any way we find it. We say "what is a tomat for if isn't to obey the palate." But there is really no one rule applicable to everybody's stomach. What one man may eat another man cannot. But the dyspeptic should remember that the death list has a dark shadow hovering over it with a long bony finger pointing to "died of heart disease." Physicians will tell us that there are few cases of heart disease that do not come from a stomach derangement. At every meal we may be brewing for ourselves a terrible case of dyspepsia. It may come upon us after breakfast tomorrow morning, or after that oyster supper to-morrow night. Acute dyspepsia means that you have even chances for death or life. That's the gamble you are taking. That precious gastric juice decides, as a rule, whether you continue to live or not. Therefore, if you feel your food lies like a "lump of lead" on your stomach, beware! Your gastric juice is weak. It can't dispose of the food in time to prevent fermentation. Take something that will do it effectively, and at once. Take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the most powerful tablets in the world for the relief of all kinds of stomach trouble, nausea, indigestion, the worst cases of dyspepsia, fermentation, bloaty feeling, sourness, heartburn and brash. One grain of an ingredient of these tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food. Your stomach needs a rest at once. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will relieve your stomach of more than two-thirds of the work it has to do, digesting perfectly whatever food there is in your stomach. You can't do your work well, or be cheerful, or have energy or vim or ambition, when your stomach is bad. Make yourself feel good after a hearty meal, feel good all over, clear your mind and make you enjoy life, by taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Give your stomach a rest, so it can right itself, then you need fear nothing. You can get these tablets anywhere for 50 cents a package.

GAMBLING WITH DEATH

What Many of us Are Doing Three Times A Day.

For everything we get something is taken away. Every act pulls two ways. Some men in power do not think of this for it. They can't have soul and power at the same time.

And so, in this quick-living age, most of us can't have energy and health at the same time. One or the other must be lost, and it is usually health.

We know we are doing wrong and would like to reform, but we have a morbid fear of being laughed at if we aim to live and act according to conscience and good sense.

Some of us break away for awhile and make ourselves free to a diet. We read about the hardy Scotsman being fed on porridge and oatmeal, making soldiers of muscle and dash, and how Caesar's army was fed on corn. But the diet doesn't last long. We quickly swing back into the great line, eating and drinking to fullness like the rest, eating anything and everything, at any time, and any way we find it.
