—NEW RINK FOR MALPEQUE—Mr. Woodside and Mr. Bearsto were in Summerside on Saturday from Malpeque arranging for the purchase of lumber for the new open-air skating rink the young people of that district intend building. This is a good movement and should receive the support of the citizens.—S.

—BULLET TRAVELS SOME DISTANCE—One day last week Captain Barkhouse of the Revenue Cutter Arras called on a fishing boat along the shore near Cape Wolfe to halt. The men on board refused to do so and the cutter fired one of her three pound shells after her. The shell missed its mark, travelled along the shore and struck a barn belonging to Mr. Philip Crossman, going through the barn to the hen house. It went through several ply of board and two ply of shingles, knocked down some barrels of grain and travelled through the other end of the building into a potato field. Here it grazed a horse and went perilously near some potato pickers and finally came to a halt in a trench. No one was hurt. S.

—BENEFIT TO THE POOR—The disappearance of the eel grass from our shores has been the cause of considerable discussion in the newspapers lately. It is said that the farmers will not be able to obtain so much fertilizer and that the wild fowl will miss their natural feeding grounds on this account. At the west end of Summerside, however, the disappearance of the eel grass is proving a blessing, as the obnoxious odor along the shore has gone and the sand is left nice and clean, making this one of the finest beaches on the south shore. Another feature, and a very good one, is that coal from an old schooner, belonging to Captain Sampson Grady, which was wrecked some time ago, is being washed ashore and gathered by the poor inhabitants of the town.—S.

—PRICE LOW on pure raw oil. Buy a cask now, at Brace's. 5733-10-11-21.

—BAPTIST CHURCH GUILD—The ladies of the Baptist Church Guild, Summerside, met on Friday evening at the lovely new home of Mrs. Ralph Williams, on Belmont Street. There was a very large attendance of members. After a dainty lunch, Miss Cecelia Burrows presented Mrs. Williams with a beautiful landscape picture on behalf of the Guild.—S.

—UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT—Mrs. Harry Lee of Summerside met with an unfortunate accident on Sunday morning as she was getting ready for church. In some unaccountable way she slipped on the floor and broke her hip. She was taken immediately to the hospital where her injury was attended to. The latest report is that she is resting as well as can be expected.—S.

—ANNIVERSARY SERVICES—The United Church of Lot 14 held their third anniversary service on Sunday. There were special services morning, afternoon and evening. The occasion was one of special Thanksgiving as the Church is now free from debt. At the morning service, Rev. W. E. Aitken, a former pastor, was the preacher. In the afternoon the service was conducted by Rev. M. A. McMillan, of Malpeque. The preacher was Rev. L. B. Campbell, of Summerside Trinity United Church, assisted with the music. The anthem, "Praise Ye Lord" was sung. Mr. Albert Huestis sang an appropriate solo. In the evening, Rev. J. A. Nicholson from Tyne Valley, took the service, assisted by the Tyne Valley Choir. The church was filled to capacity at each service, and was decorated with autumn grains, fruits and flowers, among the fruits were two baskets of Island grown grapes, red and white. Rev. Mr. Woodside, the pastor, was very grateful to those who assisted in the services, especially those who came from a distance.—S.
