THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

THE SNOW.—The depth of the snow fall in the city during the recent storm was 15 inches on the level, but in some cases the drifts were as high as ten feet.

IN THE HOSPITAL.—Mr. Alex Buchanan, who has been ill of late, was taken to the P. E. I. Hospital yesterday for treatment. Last night he was reported resting comfortably.

ATTRACTIVE SIGN.—The Knights of Pythias, in honor of the celebration, which is to take place tonight, have had a handsome, emblematic sign placed in front of their hall, which is attracting very much attention.

POOR SKATE.—The skate held in the Arena last evening under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, in aid of the poor was a splendid financial success, superior in every way to the expectations of the ladies in charge. The Charlotte town Band gave a beautiful all-waltz program that delighted the skaters.

TRAPPING.—Competition seems to be very keen in and around Millvale, Hope River, and vicinity, in regard to trapping. The record has at last been taken from a prominent resident of that section who has been many years following the interesting occupation, and who, to a large extent, depends upon it for a livelihood. Another gentleman who has no doubt tired of not being his own boss in a foreign city, has taken up the occupation and although new to the business, has already been successful in capturing and ranching a nice pair of mink. It is understood he intends starting a mink ranch on an extensive scale and will no doubt make his business as far famed as the fox industry, having his ranch ideally situated between two Hills. But where does Peter ring in?

PEOPLE'S THEATRE.—At the People's Theatre last night there was given an excellent and well assorted bill of fare, all of the pictures being in every respect good, the dramas sensible and well-balanced. The film "The Senegot" was not shown as was advertised it would be, owing to the fact that the steamer which carried it was unable to reach its destination in time. A very good picture was given instead and was more than appreciated. It was "The Forlorn Hope," a strong Western drama, replete with exciting incidents, and with an admirable moral. Its conclusion sees a pathetic reunion of mother and son which can not fail to appeal eloquently to a wholesome, sober nature. "Every Double Causes Trouble," is sufficiently indicative of the character of the funny film, under this caption, and the inimitable grotesqueness of the acting is provocative of laughter, whether one feels inclined to laugh or not. "The Legend of Lovers Leap" is another first-class production. Mr. Al. Fleming sang two songs in splendid style and was applauded.

CHARLOTTETOWN CHESS CLUB.—The third meeting of the Charlotte town Chess Club Tournament took place at the Dalton offices last night. Quite a number of players were present; quite a number of hard fought games won and lost, some of the doughty champions of the past going down to defeat; some dark horses coming to the front. Excitement is beginning to boil now, and as quite a number of games are being played, no doubt the enthusiasm will be at boiling heat from this out. Mr. L. P. Tanton is still leading with a handsome number of wins to his credit and has few losses. He met his first defeat last night; however, and the other players who were looking on were no doubt marking the vulnerable points in his defense or attack. By the end of the week the standing of the various players will be published. The club extends a cordial invitation to anyone who may be interested in the Royal game. The games for the tournament will continue nightly till the whole series has been played. When Tanton's horse comes vaulting over the plain, leaping o'er heads of King and Pawn. His raging path is strewn with many a corpse of noble victims by him slain. The hard to tell where next he strays. Beware, beware of Tanton's horse.

PORK LEFT OVERS
Cold roast pork, in the estimation of many persons, is far better than when served hot. Cut the small thin slices and serve with apple sauce. The tender white meat of a roast of pork may be made into a salad which many cannot tell from chicken salad. Combine with celery and a few olives and use any cooked dressing and cream.

PORK CROQUETTES
Pork croquettes are most delicious if made with a cup of mashed potatoes to each cup of diced pork. Mix together and add one or two drops of onion juice, a little minced pepper or pimento, and salt to taste. To one-half cup of very thick sauce of pork gravy. Mix all together. Form into shape and set in cold place for three or four hours. Slice and dip in eggs and roll in fine bread crumbs an hour before ready to fry. Drop in wire basket and fry in deep fat until golden brown. Serve with baked apples.

Beef Iron and Wine is a splendid tonic for all those suffering from nervousness, debility or a general run-down condition of the system. This preparation contains iron in its most palatable form, pure extract of fresh beef and Sherry wine. Price $1.00 a bottle, money back if dissatisfied. The MacKinnon Drug Co., Corner Great George and Kent Sts.

THANKS.—The ladies of St. Vincent de Paul society, wish to thank the managers of the Arena Bank; also the members of the Charlotte town Band for their exquisite programme of waltz music, and those who, in any way helped to make the skate in aid of the poor, such a financial success.

THE TRAINS.—The trains yesterday had a hard fight to get through and only the Georgetown train reached its destination. The Souris and Elmira train did not leave Elmira Harbor, which left for Charlottetown at its regular time, and arrived in the city up to an early hour this morning. The Georgetown train reached Charlottetown at 4 p. m. and left on return at 8.45 last evening. The trains west of Summerside made very little progress, the furthest point reached being St. Louis. A train left Charlottetown for Summerside at 10 a. m. and after getting to Emerald Junction went down the Cape Traverse line to help the train on that branch, which had not reached Albany. All the trains had snow fighting crews on board. The mail special which left Charlottetown at 8.45, had a clear run to Georgetown, where she arrived at 12.30.

THE PRINCE EDWARD.—A large number attended the Prince Edward Theatre last night to witness a delightful and varied program of entertainment. The show was mostly comic and kept the audience in excellent spirits throughout the entire performance. "A Snakeville Courtship" was a screamingly funny western comedy which was sufficient to say that the inimitable "Alkali Ike" was the principal character. "Smiles of Fortune" was also a good comedy, greatly enjoyed while "Dishing Dick's Dishwasher" provoked a great outbreak of irresistible laughter. "Good Resolutions" was a splendid drama, which showed that the Canadian North West is still a wild land of romance. The picture advantageously illustrated some of the dangers and adventures which the Royal Mounted Police of the North West are subject to at all times and the valiant work this strong body is doing in that wild territory. The other pictures were the pictorial productions of Snow Effects in Austria, The Tobacco Industry in Cuba, Doc Yak one of the finest pictures on the program should be seen by all. Miss Gardiner sang in fine voice "He said the rest in German" and Mr. Cairns by special request rendered that song favorite, "A Perfect Day" in his full baritone, giving his audience a rare treat. Some splendid views of the city taken yesterday by Mr. Shotten, Manager of the Theatre, were put on the screen. One side showed a horse and sleigh, belonging to Sanderson's Grocery, stuck in the snow and the men at work digging him out. It was an excellent show and worthy of another bumper house tonight.

"Good Resolutions" was a splendid drama, which showed that the Canadian North West is still a wild land of romance. The picture advantageously illustrated some of the dangers and adventures which the Royal Mounted Police of the North West are subject to at all times and the valiant work this strong body is doing in that wild territory. The other pictures were the pictorial productions of Snow Effects in Austria, The Tobacco Industry in Cuba, Doc Yak one of the finest pictures on the program should be seen by all. Miss Gardiner sang in fine voice "He said the rest in German" and Mr. Cairns by special request rendered that song favorite, "A Perfect Day" in his full baritone, giving his audience a rare treat. Some splendid views of the city taken yesterday by Mr. Shotten, Manager of the Theatre, were put on the screen. One side showed a horse and sleigh, belonging to Sanderson's Grocery, stuck in the snow and the men at work digging him out. It was an excellent show and worthy of another bumper house tonight.

THE PRINCE EDWARD.—A large number attended the Prince Edward Theatre last night to witness a delightful and varied program of entertainment. The show was mostly comic and kept the audience in excellent spirits throughout the entire performance. "A Snakeville Courtship" was a screamingly funny western comedy which was sufficient to say that the inimitable "Alkali Ike" was the principal character. "Smiles of Fortune" was also a good comedy, greatly enjoyed while "Dishing Dick's Dishwasher" provoked a great outbreak of irresistible laughter. ESSANY LUBIN

"Good Resolutions"
Selig
The Canadian North West is still a wild land of romance and the Royal Mounted Police are amongst its daring and adventurous personages. This Play tells how the wearer of a Victoria Cross redeemed himself.

Snow Effects in Austria Dishing Dicks Dishwasher The Tobacco Industry
Charlottetown is not the only place which gets a little Snow. See the "Hobos" two-man power washing machine and have a hearty laugh. An interesting series of views taken in Cuba.

PATHE LUBIN

"DOC YAK" Moving Picture Artist
This is the kind of Picture that adds to the gaiety of nations. There is only one "Doc Yak" and he stands unique and alone. A really good picture.
