The Markets

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 21.—The local and foreign demand for Canadian grain here Saturday was decidedly dull and little business was transacted. In sympathy with the decline in corn futures at Chicago, spot prices were reduced 1-2¢ per bushel with car lots of American No. 4 yellow, quoted at $1.10 1-2, and cool sweet corn at $1.08 1-2. Other lines were steady. The trade in spring and winter wheat flour was fair and values were firm.

Prices for all lines of millfeed were firmly maintained under a good demand. Standard grades of rolled oats were unchanged. A moderate amount of business was done in all grades of fresh and storage eggs and prices held firm.

The inquiry for potatoes continued active and the tone of the market was firm. Prince Edward Island whites were quoted at 85¢ and green mountains at 90¢ per 90 lbs. in bulk. New Brunswick green mountains sold at 70¢ per 90 lbs. in bulk. Canadian handpicked beans were marked another twenty-five cents per bushel to $5.75 wholesale.

The undertone to the butter market was steady and the volume of business was fair. Receipts were 102 packages. The cheese market was dull and featureless, receipts were 185 boxes.

Ford Bank, N. S., Jan. 21.—(Special)—"I have taken a good many boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills good for this trouble. I have also taken them for Rheumatism. I would not be without them for a good lot and praise them to all I know."

The reason Dodd's Kidney Pills have come to occupy such a prominent place in the home is that so many ordinary everyday ills come from sick kidneys.

Rheumatism, urinary troubles, backaches and heart disease can be traced directly or indirectly to sick kidneys. To be assured of good health the kidneys must be kept in good working order at the time.

Dodd's Kidney Pills can be obtained from Druggists everywhere, or The Dodds Medicine Co., Ltd., Toronto 2, Ont.

by strong walls of which only one lower course remain, three or four feet high. Four gateways give access to the main streets (which cross at right angles) and their sills retain the marks of heavy traffic. Some coal was found in a guard-house at one of the gates, when it was excavated—for all the Roman towns are buried, and grassed over. The other streets are very narrow; there is barely room for two to pass. Near the centre, an open space surmounted by columns and carvings marks the Forum. Only the foundations of the houses remain but they well repay attention. The wall of Britain, owing to the great extent of marshland (among other things) was very trying to the exiles from the sunny skies of Southern Europe, and often their ANNOUS "X" (They never used the ill-sounding word "died"). So, after building the foundation of the house, stone or brick pillars were built up to the same level, inside it. Then stone flooring-slabs were laid, sustained by the pillars, and the whole made neat-looking by a layer of "Roman cement"—like our concrete, but superior. The walls we know from examples in other places, were then carried to a certain height and the roof finished with stone slabs or tiles of brick-clay. Some, it is said, saw, bore the imprint of a cog's paw, made when the tiles were wet, twenty centuries ago! An opening was left in the foundation wall, in which a fire was maintained, the heat from which diffused under the stone floor, and warmed the entire building. The "dumps" proved interesting. Here were abundance of oyster shells (the oysters were brought from the Kent oyster-beds), tusks of wild boars, antlers of deer, horns of cattle, and other bones, showing the variety of meat available; and quantities of broken pottery, Roman, Samian, and the coarser native manufacture. In a field near a stone was found inscribed FULGUR DIVOM, "the lightning of the gods"; whence it is conjectured that it marked the spot where some one had perished by that agency. The altars, statues, inscriptions and other relics, found at this one spot, would require more notice than can conveniently be allotted to them.

—AT TYNE VALLEY—Dr. J. A. LeFurgey, physician and surgeon who graduated from the University of Toronto in 1925, and who has been in Hospital and private practice in Montreal since that time has opened an office in Tyne Valley, P. E. I., where he hopes to permanently locate.

—QUIET WEDDING AT SUMMERSIDE—A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Trinity Parsonage, Summerside, on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. C. Fraser officiating, when Miss Muriel Corney, daughter of Mr. Samuel Corney of Summerside was united in marriage to Mr. William Smith of Charlottetown. The bride and groom were unattended. The contracting parties, both of the staff of the P. E. I. Telephone Company, have a wide circle of friends both in Summerside and Charlottetown who wish them every happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Charlottetown.—S.

—DEATH OF MR. EDWARD CLARK—The death took place at his residence in Wilmot on Friday last after only a few days' illness, of Mr. Edward Clarke, at the advanced age of 81 years. He was born and lived all his life on the old Clarke homestead and was a progressive and prosperous farmer, well known and well liked by all his neighbors and a wide circle of other friends. He was a very active man and was smart and in good health to his last and brief illness. Those are left to mourn a sorrowing widow (nee Miss Elsie Jones of Charlottetown), five sons and three daughters, namely: Lemuel, George, Montague, Stephen and Alice (Mrs. Faulkner), all in Western Canada; Mrs. John Hogg and Mrs. John Cotton, both of Wilmot and Mr. E. Clark at home. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence to the Wilmot Cemetery, Rev. J. M. Nicholson officiating and was very largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs. Thomas Humphrey, John Hogg, Robert Hogg, Frederick Clark, A. McCaull and John Cotten, all of Wilmot.—S.

—PRESENTATION TO MR. AND MRS. A. S. MACKAY At the close of a special meeting of the Chadwick Chapter of the Summerside branch of the Eastern Star on Friday evening in their Lodge Rooms, a very delicious lunch was served and a presentation of a very handsome oxidized brass jardiner was made to Brother A. S. and Worthy Matron MacKay by Brother Benj. Sharpe, on behalf of the Order, accompanied by an appropriate verse, in appreciation of the splendid assistance given by them in helping to organize the Chapter. It was chiefly through their untiring efforts that the Order had made such rapid advancement. Mrs. MacKay in a few fitting words thanked the Sisters for their appreciation of her help in such a tangible form. Mr. MacKay in adding his appreciation of the gift, said it was quite unexpected and thanked them from the bottom of his heart and hoped the Chapter would carry on its good work for many a year to come. Two visiting Sisters from Western Canada were present and heartily congratulated the baby Chapter on its splendid advancement since its organization last March. Two beautiful solos were rendered by Sister McPhail, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. A. Compton and readings by the Worthy Matron and Brother T. H. S. Jackson, brought the evening proceedings to a close.—S.

PERSONALS —The many friends of Mrs. Gothard Baker of Summerside will be pleased to learn that she is much improved and able to be about again a little after her recent illness.—S.

—Mrs. Charles McNutt of Summerside, has taken a position as dietitian in the Prince Edward Island Hospital Charlottetown and left on Monday to take up her duties there.—S.

How I Was Freed of Hemorrhoids

after 25 years of suffering "I had protruding piles or hemorrhoids for over twenty-five years," writes Dr. H. S. Huxell, Graduate Veterinary Surgeon, of Upper Chasco, N.B. "I bought medicine from all parts of the world and went under the knife twice—at Portland, Maine, and Sherbrooke, Que. I had spent hundreds of dollars and was about to go to the hospital at Campbellton, N.B., for another operation, when in such a weakened condition that the doctor advised me to wait a few days.

"My wife happened to pick up Dr. Chase's Ointment and told me about someone being freed of piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. I got a box, was so much better next day that I ordered three more boxes. In one week I was able to resume my practice. It is now four years since I have felt any effect of the piles, so I feel justified in believing the relief permanent."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is the standard, time-proven treatment for piles or hemorrhoids. Dr. Huxell's experience is similar to that of many thousands of people who have been positively freed of piles by this soothing, healing, antiseptic ointment. All dealers or The Dr. A. W. Pownal News

The W. C. T. U. met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. R. Brown, where a very successful session was held.

We are very glad to know that Mrs. Abbie Carver, of Hazelbrook, is recovering after a rather serious indisposition.

Our school reopened on Wednesday having been closed on account of the illness of the teacher, whom we are glad to see about again.

The cold weather of the last few days was quite a change. However a few sleighs are moving on our roads which need more snow. Let us hope it comes for the benefit of those who are expected to travel every day, especially our good mail man, Mr. Ewen Mars, whose faithfulness and loyalty is known by all while his courteous and obliging manner is admired by young and old. Long may he continue on our route, for no man could do better.

An interesting marriage was solemnized at the Manse, Pownal Village, recently, when Miss Lucy Smallwood became the bride of Mr. William Vessey, Dunstaffnage, in the presence of Miss Margaret Smallwood, sister of the bride and Mr. Holman, Charlottetown as witnesses.

The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. F. H. Littlejohns. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smallwood, Bunbury, where about eighty invited guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper, the tables groaning under the delicious viands, which were a beautiful recommendation to the bride's mother, and to which all did ample justice. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing, while the gay serenaders without helped greatly with the music. Many valuable presents were received including silver, china, silver, cut glass, and clocks. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful fur coat. They will make their future home at Black Banks, P. E. I., where a responsible position awaits the groom, who is an experienced fox rancher. The writer wishes the happy young couple a joyful and prosperous journey through life.
