

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

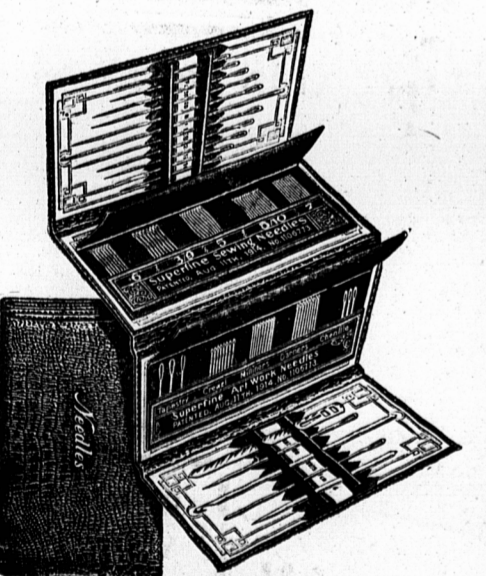

SEAL BRAND COFFEE The Coffee Exquisite Chase & Sanborn's SEAL BRAND COFFEE

BLUEBERRIES We shall be buying Blueberries throughout the season, paying highest market value.

The Island Cold Storage Co., Ltd.

J. Lester Douglas 39 Queen Street Charlottetown, P. E. I.

The Guardian's Free Case of Needles

One Case Free with every New or Renewal Yearly Subscription. THE BEST PREMIUM YET DON'T BE DISAPPOINTED

TRYON-BONSHAW BAPTIST PASTORATE—Services on Sunday 29th will be as follows. Tryon at 3 p. m. Bonshaw at 7 p. m.

HUNTER RIVER CIRCUIT—United Church services, Sunday, Aug. 29, Hunter River 11.00 a. m. Hampshire 3.00 p. m.

COVEHEAD, STANHOPE, UNION ROAD—On Sunday, August 29, Rev. H. S. Raynor, B. A., of Elm-dale, N. S., will preach in West Covehead United Church at eleven a. m., at Stanhope at three p. m., and at Union Road at seven-thirty p. m.

CHURCH SERVICES—Mr. Metcalfe of Tryon will preach on Sunday 29th first at Cape Traverse in the morning at Searletown in the afternoon, and at Bedouque in the evening.

NEW LONDON AND LONG RIVER—The service for the Presby-terian churches of New London and Long River, Sunday, Aug. 29th, New London, 11 a. m.; Long River 2.00 p. m.

GRANVILLE SERVICES—The Granville Presbyterian Church will observe their annual Sacrament beginning on Thursday, with service morning and evening and on Friday and Saturday together with the Sacramental services on Sunday, Aug. 29th.

CALEDONIA PRESBYTERIAN SERVICE—Sunday morning, August 29, the theme considered will be "The Divine Magnet" and in the evening "Re-joice in the Lord." Quincy A. McDowell will preach.

PERSONALS Miss Janie Andrews of Hunter River, is visiting relatives and friend in Norboro.

Miss Charlotte Mann of Marshfield was a week end guest at the home of her friend, Miss Adild Humphrey, Kensington.

Miss Katherine Gillis, Cambridge, Mass. is in the city and leaves for Orwell today to spend a couple of week vacation.

The Misses Annie Andrews and Flora Glover, has returned to their homes in Norboro after visiting in Hunter River the guests of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Andrews, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKinnon of Charlottetown, have returned to their home after a short vacation spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson S. J. Murray of Fredericton.

Miss Evelyn Murray of Malden, Mass., Miss Margaret Meyer of Yarmouth, and Mr. Ewen MacEachern, Mr. Angus L. MacLean furnished the floral music.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Gillis of Charlottetown were visiting at Eldon, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gillis.

Mr. Jack MacKenzie, Melville, passed through Surrey, on his way to Louis to visit friends.

Friends of Mr. Donald Campbell, Flat River, are glad to learn of his recovery from his serious illness.

BOSTON Dr. F. W. Christopher has returned to Boston after a very pleasant vacation spent at his former home in Prince Edward Island. The general doctor is an enthusiastic horseman and while on the island attended many of the races.

Mr. Frank W. Clark of Boston is on a visit to his former home in Mt. Stewart, P. E. Island, having travelled over the road in his Hudson sedan.

Richard E. Johnston, well-known Boston Attorney at Law, is a candidate for Massachusetts House of Representatives from one of the Boston districts. Mr. Johnston was a former resident of Charlottetown, and is a brother of Hon. J. J. Johnston, Ex-Attorney General.

CAVENDISH SERVICES—Rev. Allan MacNeill of Ridgely Park N. J., will preach in the United Church in North Rustico, Sunday, Aug. 29th at 11 o'clock and in Cavendish at 7.30 p. m. Sunday School at 10 o'clock at North Rustico.

NEW RESIDENTS—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Shannon, Miss Shannon and Master Fred Shannon, arrived by the S. S. Hochelaga yesterday with a view to taking up residence in Charlottetown. Mr. Shannon, who is a British Colonial Civil servant, has just retired from the service on pension, after thirty-eight years on duty. His last appointment being that of Postmaster General of British Guiana. Prince Edward Island was recommended to Mr. and Mrs. Shannon as a suitable place for residence by a friend who had previously visited here. The city of Charlottetown welcomes the visitors, and trust their sojourn will be long and to their utmost satisfaction. At present they are guests at the Strathcona Hotel.

Belfast And Vicinity Mr. George Pantou, Boston, who spent the summer with his parents at Roseberry, left on return Monday morning.

Miss Lavina Bishop, has returned to her home in Mt. Buchanan from Charlottetown, where she has been the past week.

Miss Catherine MacKinnon, Boston, who came home some time ago on a visit to her parents in Louis, spent the week end in Ocean view the guest of Mrs. Sadie Rockwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair MacLeod have motored to their home in Quinley after visiting friends and relations on the island.

The many friends of Mrs. F. Pantou, Roseberry are glad to know she has returned from the P. E. Island hospital.

Miss Margaret MacLean of Louis has been hired to teach in Surrey school for the year of 1926-1927.

The Mt. Buchanan Women's Institute held an ice cream festival at Mt. Buchanan School on August 23, 1926.

Miss Margaret Walsh, Charlottetown, is visiting in Mt. Buchanan, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith.

Mr. Angus Murchison, Glashlyn, paid a flying visit to Plinette last week.

Mr. Wilfred MacWilliams, Ocean View, motored to Montague on a business trip last week.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Sadie Rockwell on August 21, 1926, for her cousin, Mr. Frank MacEachern, who left Monday for the west after spending his summer holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacEachern, Garfield. The evening was passed by step-dancing.

Mr. Charles MacEachern, Mr. J. M. McDonald and Mr. Ewen MacEachern, Mr. Angus L. MacLean furnished the floral music.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Gillis of Charlottetown were visiting at Eldon, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gillis.

Mr. Jack MacKenzie, Melville, passed through Surrey, on his way to Louis to visit friends.

Friends of Mr. Donald Campbell, Flat River, are glad to learn of his recovery from his serious illness.

BOSTON Dr. F. W. Christopher has returned to Boston after a very pleasant vacation spent at his former home in Prince Edward Island. The general doctor is an enthusiastic horseman and while on the island attended many of the races.

Mr. Frank W. Clark of Boston is on a visit to his former home in Mt. Stewart, P. E. Island, having travelled over the road in his Hudson sedan.

Richard E. Johnston, well-known Boston Attorney at Law, is a candidate for Massachusetts House of Representatives from one of the Boston districts. Mr. Johnston was a former resident of Charlottetown, and is a brother of Hon. J. J. Johnston, Ex-Attorney General.

NYAL CREOPHOS This valuable remedy possesses unusual value in run-down conditions showing a loss of flesh and a tendency toward weak lungs. Creosote is a most valuable antiseptic and in this combination will be found most effective in chronic bronchitis, lingering deep-set, stubborn coughs and asthmatic conditions. Nyal Creophos also fortifies the system enabling weak constitutions to successfully combat the inroads of disease germs. Gives appetite, increases flesh and improves the general condition. Price $1.00 a bottle.

Harold L. Worthy PHONE 271 178 Queen Street

Bulk Dates 3 Pounds for 25 cents Bulk Raisins 2 Pounds for 25 cents JENKINS & SON LTD. Phones 236-237-423

Sir James O'Donoghue, K. B., former mayor of Galway, Ireland, died here yesterday.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

First Automobile Now Rusted Wreck INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 26—Time's relentless hand has left only the broken, rust eaten frame of the first gasoline driven vehicle which now lies in the basement of an Indianapolis business house.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

Black was offered patents on his differential gear and floating rear wheel, but he refused them.

Black began operating a forge and wagon plant in Indianapolis in 1865. Late in the 80's he became interested in gasoline engine work.

SENATOR DAVID PASSED AWAY IN MONTREAL

Was One of Most Prominent Figures in Canadian Public Life—Sat in Upper Chamber Since 1903. MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—Senator L. O. David died here yesterday. He was eighty-six years of age.

Journalism occupied the attention of Mr. David when he assisted to establish and became chief editor of the illustrated weekly L'Opinion Publique in 1870.

As president of the St. Jean Baptiste Society, Montreal, 1887-92 he re-organized this body.

As a member of the Quebec Legislature, Hon. Mr. David was instrumental in having laws passed exempting from seizure all of the most necessary household furniture and three quarters of working men's wages, gaining the title of "father of industrial protection."

Among the published works of Senator David are the following: "Biographies et portraits," "Les Patriotes De 1837-38," "Mes Contemporains," "Les Deux Papin-cars," "L'Union Des Deux Canadas 1841-1857," "Histoire Du Canada (1867-87)," "Melanges Historiques et Litteraires," "Gerbes Canadiennes."

A complete biography of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and several other biographical studies; "Le Drapeau De Carillon," "Laurier Et Son Temps," "An Soir De La Vie," "Le Clerge Canadien," "Sa Mission Et Son Oeuvre." The last named book was condemned at Rome and Mr. David withdrew it from circulation.

Senator David was a member of the Royal Society of Canada. Hon. Mr. David was twice married, in 1868 to Miss Albina Chenet (died July 1887) and in 1892 to Miss Ludvine Garceau (died 1915).

Others Followed Indiana became the cradle of the automobile industry through the activities of Hayes and Apperson, and now only Michigan and Wisconsin produce more cars than the early well-known Indiana made cars now are in the market.

The Monroe, Lafayette and Maxwell, all Indiana made cars, aren't manufactured now. In place of these pioneers in the automotive field are the Marmon, Stutz and Deussenbergs of Indianapolis; the Studebaker at South Bend; the Elcar at Elkhart; the Davis at Richmond; the Chrysler at Newcastles; the Auburn at Auburn and the Lexington at Connersville.

IN MEMORIAM CAPT. ALEX D. MACINNIS At San Francisco, Cal., on July 26th, 1926, there passed away Capt. Alex D. Macinnis, beloved husband of the late Matilda (MacDonald) Macinnis, beloved father of Mrs. J. J. Cameron, Mrs. Georgie Foster, and the late Alfonsa and Jessie Macinnis and stepfather of Jerome E. and Charles Macinnis.

The late Capt. Macinnis was born near Souris, P. E. I., sixty six years ago, where at one time in the early days of shipbuilding was associated with his brother the late Capt. Dan Melnis (formerly sheriff of King's County). Mrs. Macinnis preceded her husband about four years ago, and he was married to the late Joseph N. MacDonald of East Lake.

The late Mrs. Matilda Macinnis, was a daughter of the late Angus MacDonald and born at Rock Barra, Lot 46, but, for over forty years has lived in California up to the time of her death.

The funeral took place on (Wednesday), July 28th, at 8.30 o'clock a. m. from the parlors of Carew & English, 1618 Gentry St.; thence to Saint Paul's Church, where a requiem High Mass was offered for the repose of his soul, commencing at 9 o'clock. Interment, Holy Cross Cemetery.

(P. E. I. and Boston papers please copy)

Old Sydney Screened Coal We are well stocked with this excellent Coal. Now is the time to place your order.

Hard Coal Just received a large cargo of Hard Coal both in stove and chestnut sizes. We will be pleased to place your order now, best quality, lowest prices. W. D. GILLIS & CO. PHONE 176

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

What a treat for an outdoor appetite! CRISP, crunchy Kellogg's Corn Flakes. Serve with rich milk or cream. Fresh or preserved fruit.

Kellogg's are the original corn flakes. Light and easy to digest. Never tough or leathery. More than 10,000,000 people daily demand them—for the wonderful Kellogg flavor and freshness.

Have Kellogg's any meal—and between meals. Order them anywhere. At all grocers, hotels and restaurants.

Imitations cannot bring you such wonder-flavor—such crisp, crunchy flakes. The genuine corn flakes have the signature of the originator on the package.

Japanese Strike for Lower Wages

TOKYO, Aug. 25.—For some time the Hiroshima Electric Works has been experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.

The company hesitatingly acceded, and now every worker appears to be experiencing bad business, each day. In the meantime the workers, realizing the situation, finally went to the management of the company and suggested that their wages be reduced soon.