

Too Risky

A hard chill, pain through the chest, difficult breathing. If this should be your experience, send for your doctor. It may be pneumonia! To doctor yourself would be too risky. If your doctor cannot come at once, give Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. When he comes, tell him exactly what you have done.

HOT AIR HEATING

Was your home comfortable, last winter? If not you'll face a chilly proposition again shortly and one of our Improved Hot Air Furnaces will no longer warm friendliness with the glass below zero. With one of these up-to-date Furnaces, your fire may keep the entire winter at an even temperature day and night. On a cold winter's night the cheerful effect of a well-heated home is no less responsible for the cook. It is economical too in the small amount of fuel it consumes for the heat it radiates. Come in and talk the matter over.

Most instructive and interesting are the Domestic Science Classes taken part in by the senior pupils of the Prince of Wales College. On Thursday about two hundred pupils accompanied by their teacher Miss Juniper gathered in the market building to witness the cutting up of a carcass of beef by Saunders and Newsom, butchers. As the cutters carefully set aside each section of the carcass, Miss Juniper explained the various cuts and impressed upon the pupils the different values of each, thus imparting to them valuable information for future use.

The following is a simple and fairly accurate method of determining whether one's eyes are astigmatic or not— "At a distance of three feet, each of the four small squares in the figure above, should be seen equally black and distinct. If any of the squares stand out more prominently than the others, Astigmatism is indicated. Test each eye separately by covering first one and then the other.

Astigmatism, which is due to irregularity in the curvature of the refracting surfaces is one of the most common as well as one of the most difficult troubles to accurately correct.

Our methods of examination are AC-CURATE and CERTAIN, which act is demonstrated by the satisfactory results obtained in almost every case.

If not satisfied we want to have a chance to help you.

Miss L. M. D. Mitchell, sister of E. H. Mitchell, City, has won the distinction of having one of her pictures hung in the largest miniature art galleries in New York.

Fairlyland last night showed splendid pictures, and each film was unrolled told, and told well, a story that it was worth going to see. In addition the clever acrobatic work and specialties of Mack Howard proved a feature good enough to attract a big house, and the singing was quite up to the mark. Altogether Fairlyland provides a pleasant entertainment, one that is sure to repay all who attend.

Rev. W. M. Field preaches at Bonshaw at 11 a. m. In the evening a thank offering service will be held at Tryon under the auspices of the United Baptist W. M. A. Society.

At the Nickel, which during all this week has been showing some strikingly good motion pictures, the change of program last night introduced new films that sustained the already fine reputation earned by this popular house. The pictures are remarkably clear, and a pleasure to watch. The subjects shown last night were simply grand, and the Nickel is thoroughly deserving of the best patronage.

Bumper houses, from the opening to the closing of the hall, greeted the extra bill put on last night at Wonderland. Evidently the public appreciated the specially big program, for the seats were all occupied all night and many had to stand. Easily the premier attraction was the work of the dancing Durands, who are fun-makers of the first-class, as well as being the cleverest dancers that have "planked it down" in Market Hall for many a day. The Felletiers in their play made a hit, and the motion pictures given in such generous measure completed, with Austin Trainor's illustrated song, a program that was delightful all through.

The third of the Saturday series of papers will be read by Mr. Watts today at two p. m. in the Kindergarten Hall. The pianiste of the day will be Miss Fanny Gill. She will play the following numbers.

Not so many with "skates on" since the recent snow and rain spoiled the smooth ice on the harbor.

The horse races today will be on the ice between Victoria Park Point and York Point. The entries are to be found in another column of today's Guardian.

The All-Canadian concert in St. James Hall last evening was greeted with a crowded house. The different solos, recitations, choruses, etc., and the address by Rev. T. F. Fullerton were well rendered and heartily applauded. The tableaux were artistically gotten up and passed off quite successfully. The sale of home-made candy during the intermission was a happy feature.
