Persons unable to get No 133, The Guardian news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 124 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of The Guardian main entrance, and further enquiries can be made by phoning above.

A sad accident occurred at New Harmony on Saturday morning when Floretta McPhee, a little girl aged four years and five months, was accidentally killed. Her brother Neil, sixteen years of age was going out to dig potatoes and decided that he would take a gun belonging to his elder brother along with him to shoot some partridge. He was in the house and was in the act of raising the cap on the gun and was lowering the hammer, his brother at the same time warning him to be careful or he might do some harm when the hammer slipped through his fingers discharging the weapon, the charge striking his little sister on the forehead. An inquest was held on Sunday before Dr. Angus McLean, Coroner, and a verdict was rendered of death by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of her brother. Deceased was the daughter of James and Mrs. McPhee of New Harmony. The mother was present when the sad accident occurred. Besides the parents two brothers and a sister are left to mourn.

"A gentleman writing unsolicited to Professor Earle lately, says," allow me most cordially to thank you for your great kindness to my daughter while under your instruction last fall and winter. Also for the thorough instruction given her in vocal culture and instrumental music. She is now teaching in the North West getting one dollar per lesson and finds no difficulty in teaching pupils who have passed their exams from local professors. Wishing you every success." 10—28d11pd.

His many friends in this Province will be pleased to learn of the phenomenal success of George W. West, who located at Innisfail, Alta. in 1891. Not long since his store was enlarged, opening on two streets, and he has just completed a warehouse of 40,000 bushels capacity, besides operating the largest lumber yard in the town. Mr. West formerly belonged to York, where he visited some years ago.

A very pretty autumn wedding took place yesterday morning at the residence of G. M. and Mrs. Robinson, 223 10th Ave. E., when Mary Perle Jury, the only daughter of the late G. G. Jury and Mrs. Jury, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was united in holy wedlock to Ralph Ernest Larrabee, of Houlton, Maine, by the Rev. G. W. Keruy, Methodist Minister, in the presence of relatives and friends of the bride and bridegroom. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her uncle, G. M. Robinson, and looked most becoming in a dress of grey eolienne and carried a charming spray of white roses and maiden hair ferns. After the ceremony was performed the wedding guests partook of a luncheon given by Mrs. G. M. Robinson in honor of the bride. Then amid a shower of congratulations, the bride and groom, the former attired in a travelling suit of taupe, with hat to match, left Calgary by the 1.30 p. m. train to spend their honeymoon travelling in the east for an indefinite period.—Calgary Albertan, Oct. 21.

STANLEY BROS.

WE ERRED.

We do make a mistake now and then. Errors will occur. Our buyer this fall erred in ordering twenty-five pieces of Victoria lawn. The error was in asking for pieces. He ought to have asked for twenty-five yards of twelve yards each. What arrived from England was twenty-five pieces of sixty yards, giving us one thousand five hundred yards instead of three hundred. As this is far too much Victoria lawn for us to sell in the regular way, we purpose giving the Church Sewing Circles and other ladies interested in white sewing, for the coming Spring and Summer, a rare genuine snap. It comes in three qualities 14c, 20c, and 25c. Clearance price 10c, 15c, 18c. James Paton & Co. 10—15dtr.

"A large stock of the regular $1.25 fiction by best authors selling at Carter's Bookstore at 75 cents each. 250 English Colonial Library books, regular price 50 cents, price at Carter's Bookstore only 25 cents. Book bargains all over the Big Bookstore of Carter & Co, Limited. 10—28d1rw.

"It's a good thing. 'Rub it in.' Hughes' Horse Liniment for sprains and swellings. Geo. E. Hughes, Apothecaries Hall. 10—28d11.

"Our hat department is now elegantly stocked with warm winter headwear for men—the 'Home of Good Hats.' H. H. Brown, the young men's man. 10—28d21rt.
