

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block - Charlottetown.

Thursday night the 14th will be the date for a grand concert in St. James' Hall by the Y.M.L.A.

The farm at North River formerly owned by the late D. A. Bears has been sold to Leslie McEwen, North River.

Miss Annie McPherson and Miss Jessie Matheson of Glen William left Saturday morning for Boston, where they intend residing in future.

The Guardian was in error in saying that the Y.M.C.A. rummage sale parcels will be called for Thursday, as they will be called for tomorrow.

Rev. Lew F. Wallace preached his farewell sermon at Aylesford, N.S., on Sunday, and is to take up home mission work in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

The Rev. Messrs. Weddall, and Horton and Steel, of Bedouque, left Halifax, Thursday afternoon for home. While in the city Mr. Weddall was the guest of George Hart.

Mrs. William Brown of the Florida hotel Pownal has arrived from Boston where she has been spending the winter with her son and friends. Her son is engaged in the Theatrical Business in Boston.

The Admiralty surveying steamer Ellinor which formerly used to winter at Charlottetown but this winter was laid up at Halifax will be detained there longer than was anticipated and may not get away before the end of this month. A new propeller for her came out from England, but when she went on the slip to have it fitted a defect was found in the tail shaft. A new shaft will likely be made at New Glasgow.

In Castle Hall the I.O.G.T. held a very pleasant and profitable evening, on Friday last when the following program was admirably carried out: address by chairman A. McNair, solo by Wm. Duffy, reading by Wm. M. Rowe, lecture by A. D. Fraser, solo by John Murchison, reading by Ross Bethune, and duet by Miss Ida McNair and Leslie Toombs. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Fraser for his interesting lecture.

The following is an evidence of the Guardian's pulling powers. Saturday's issue contained an advertisement of a leading business firm in this city for an expert stenographer and typist, and applicants were referred to The Guardian Office. At 8.40 same morning the advertiser phoned that as a result of the ad his office was then full of applicants and not to give his name to any others, but to take their names and addresses and forward to him.

A committee consisting of W. I. Green and A. Beaton have forwarded to David and Mrs. Paul and family of Brookfield the following letter: "Dear friends at this time of sorrow in the bereavement of your daughter Emma May, we the members of Brookfield Division No. 263 Sons of Temperance would convey to you our sincerest sympathy. We are conscious that our words of comfort cannot descend into grief and sense of loss that parents must feel for an only daughter just breaking into the full bloom of womanhood or brothers for an only sister but we would assure you that none of us have been unmindful of your trial our sorrow have mingled with yours. Something more than the symbol of a draped Charter reminds us that sister May is no longer in our midst. She leaves a vacant place in the good work done among us she had a part always cheerful ready to help and always helpful. In sister May we have lost a true friend and faithful fellow worker. One less to cheer us up life's road. One less cheer us up life's road. One more, more worthy of our love. One more taken to the work above. We cannot reconcile our Heavenly Father's doing to our shortsighted vision. Very little of the divine plan reveals itself, but when we remind ourselves of the tears of Jesus and the boundless compassion of him who came to reveal the Father's love we are assured that such a mysterious visitation as this is prompted by infinite wisdom and love. The Holy Spirit in every believer's heart testifies that "all things work together for good to them that love God." When the scales of earth have fallen from our eyes we shall see and understand how God our Father nuzzles us nothing but good. Dear friends as you brush aside the marks of sorrow and turn to life's unfinished task that your loved one was wont to lighten with her willing hands and good cheer, May the balm of God's comforting spirit heal your hearts. May his indwelling power ease your burdens, and his presence cheer your way. Till mornings joys shall end the night of weeping. And life's long shadows break in endless love.

The Y.M.C.A. boys will give their gymnastic exhibition at York Hall on Tuesday night the 12th.

W. Hubert Bryenton, formerly of Charlottetown now of Regina, Sask., has accepted a position with the Cockshutt Co., of that place.

The Ministerial Association of Charlottetown will meet in the Y.M.C.A., parlors this Monday morning the 11th inst., at 10 o'clock.

The Y.M.C.A. wish to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of ten books from Lyman Davison for the library, all of which are good books for boys.

The Eastern service in Centerville, N. B. Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. G. Ayers, who is a native of this Province, were considered the best ever held in that church.

The barkentine Annie Smith has arrived from Barbadoes with molasses and sugar for Horace Haszard. This is the first vessel to arrive this season from the West Indies.

Nine persons were received into the church membership at St. Andrews, N. B., by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Lodge, recently. Mr. Lodge made many friends in this Province during his pastorate in Grace Church of this City.

The Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, when he went to open the Legislature, was attended by a staff of one general, ten colonels, and a major and a lieutenant. If there was a private around he kept himself out of sight. So says a New Brunswick exchange and it is evident that on the other side of the Straits they can beat P. E. Island at this sort of thing.

Madam Marie Yulisse Harrison who is very well known professionally, and personally in Charlottetown, has just signed a contract to appear as prima donna with Florio's celebrated Brussels Operatic Company. She will appear with the company in California, Texas and Mexico for a season of fifteen weeks. Before going south she will appear at the head of the company in Boston, Philadelphia, Buffalo and other large cities. She will appear in such parts as Violetta and Traviata and Marguerite in Faust.

The Poultry Association of Prince Edward Island held its third monthly meeting at the Prince of Wales College a few days ago. A large crowd was in attendance despite the bad roads. It was a very interesting meeting, each member taking a part of their own. The revising of the poultry prize list in connection with the Provincial Exhibition taking up the greater part of the evening. By all appearances the Island will have the best poultry show this fall that ever has been held. Almost every breed gets a show some that have never yet been shown here, but an open class will likely be given them. The prizes will be greater and bigger. It is likely that the number of entries will be twice as large as has yet been and a better quality of fowl. The winter fair in connection with the association will be attended to at the next meeting and if possible papers on rearing chickens will be given. The association is rapidly increasing.

The schooner Rasburn arrived on Saturday from Marble Mountain with a part cargo of lime for M. Poole & Co., Connally's West Wharf.

When some weeks ago Professor Crowell of the Faculty of Applied Science at Mt. Allison College had the little finger of his left hand severed by a circular saw, the finger was secured in position, and it was hoped that a union might be affected. The work of healing, however, progressed so unsatisfactorily that on Wednesday the Professor went over to the Amherst hospital and there had the offending member removed. The Professor is known by many former Mt. Allison students in this City and Province.

At the St. John preachers' meeting of last week, Rev. H. D. Marr, Immigration chaplain, reported that twenty-eight steamers had been met and 531 letters of introduction to clergymen in the west had been given to passengers. Rev. J. C. Berrie, of Gisbon, gave an address on the work in Fredericton district, speaking of the influence of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Rev. Samuel Howard introduced the subject of the Relation of Children to the Church. An interesting discussion ensued. Rev. J. B. Champion, of Silver Falls, reported a series of interesting meetings which had shown good results. The above gentleman are all well known in Methodist circles in this Province.

is important—but a comfortable mattress may be made in a very sanitary factory—or the dealer's stock room may be invested with vermin or moths—if you buy from me you are safe on all these important points.
