—KINKORA STORE ENTERED—The general store of J. F. Morris, Kinkora, was entered sometime Sunday night or early Monday morning and a small amount of cash taken from the till. Entrance was gained by breaking a window to the basement and coming up from the basement into the store. It is possible that a small amount of cigarettes or other small articles were also taken, but this cannot be determined for sure. The break is being investigated by the R.C.M.P.

—KENSINGTON RY. CROSSING ACCIDENT—A near fatality occurred at Kensington on Thursday, when Mr. Arthur Henry's car was struck by a freight car which was being backed on the switch. The steel link of the car bumper pushed through the door, striking Mr. Henry a severe blow. Mrs. Henry, who was in the car, was severely shaken. The car, which was pushed sideways for some distance, evidently was kept in a horizontal position by the pressure of the big steel link. This many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henry will rejoice that they had such a miraculous escape from serious injury. The car was quite badly wrecked.

late hour last night the truck, bearing license plates number 1353 had not been located. The key was said to have been left in the ignition when the vehicle was parked.

—ANNUAL VISITATION—The annual visitation of Grand Master George H. Wood of Charlottetown and his officers to Hiram and Lebrannon Lodge A.F. and A.M. took place on Monday evening in the Lodge Rooms at Summerside, with a large attendance. The guest speaker of the evening was the Rev. S.J. Davies of Kensington. Mr. Bert Lemmon of Saint John, N.B., Past District Deputy of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick was present and spoke briefly. Sgt. J.T. Lanes of Charlottetown showed a motion picture "North-West Passage" which depicted the twenty-eight months spent in the Arctic by the crew of the R.C.M.P. boat, St. Roch. Following the meeting, dinner was served in the Presbyterian Church Hall at which Worshipful Master Gerald B. Sheen presided.

—PURCHASES PROPERTY—The property formerly owned by Mr. C. M. Baltzer and located on Second Street, Summerside, has been purchased by Mr. Edward E. Arnett. McCabe-McQuaid Wedding

A quiet wedding took place in Sacred Heart Chapel at Borden on Tuesday, October 26th at 7:30 A.M. when Mrs. Rosella McQuaid of Brookline, Mass., daughter of Mrs. Patrick Farmer and the late Mr. Farmer of Kinkora, was united in marriage to Frederick J. McCabe, son of Mrs. Michael McCabe and the late Mr. McCabe of Bedeque. Rev. George McCabe, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Rev. W. V. Macdonald and Rev. Francis McQuaid were also present.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, J. E. Powers, was gowned in a grey wool street-length dress with silver beaded trimmings. She wore a matching grey hat and a corsage of American Beauty roses and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her niece, Mrs. James T. Hammill, as matron-of-honor, who wore a winter wine wool dress with gold beaded trimmings. Her corsage was of yellow roses and maiden hair fern and she wore a hat of winter-white felt.

The groom was supported by James T. Hammill of Middleton. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung by the choir, with Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding, breakfast was served at the Borden Inn to the immediate relatives and the clergymen, and the bridal couple left on the M. V. Aberdeen
