

MORE LIGHT WANTED.—Those in charge of the sewer digging on Rochford Street are a little too careless as to what accommodation is left on the sidewalks for pedestrians; also careless as to whether any one falls into the trenches. There should be more lights along these diggings and possibly a little less clay might be left on the sidewalks over night. There have been many complaints about this work and it is hoped the necessary precautions will be taken henceforth.

FLORAL ASSOCIATION.—Several members of the Prince Edward Island Floral Association met Saturday evening last in preparation of arrangements for the 31st Annual Exhibition, taking place at Charlottetown, Wednesday and Thursday, August 30th and 31st. Prof. Clark was in the chair, and a good deal of work was put through. The Association is fortunate in having Prof. W. S. Blair of Kentville, N. S., and Rev. Mr. Trivitt, late of Milton, P. E. I., but now of Guysboro, N. S., as judges of flowers and lawns. The Prince Edward Island Railway has granted the special rate of single return fares on presentation of standard certificate, on the two days of the Floral Association's exhibition at Charlottetown Aug. 30th and 31st. The various committees in connection with programme, decorations prize lists, etc., are already at work, and nature is doing her prettiest to make the flower show this year the best ever held in the Garden of the Gulf.

WEDDING BELLS.—Another happy event took place in St. Joseph's Church, Morell, on Tuesday, July 18th at 8 o'clock, when Mary E. DeCoursey of that place was united in matrimony to Peter L. Flynn of Cardigan. The ceremony was performed by the Pastor, Rev. P. S. Duffy. The bride looked charming in a suit of blue garb with white hat and was attended by her cousin, Miss Ella Ashward, who also wore blue. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Owen E. Sharkey. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride where dinner was served and the afternoon was spent very enjoyably. In the evening the happy couple drove to the home of the groom where supper was partaken of, the immediate relatives of the bride and groom being present. Much praise is due the charitable party who played their part well. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Flynn a happy and prosperous wedding life.
