RICHBERG THREATENS LIBEL SUIT

Will Stand By Warning to S. E. Post Re Johnson Articles.

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) BOSTON, Dec. 25—Miller Frank Clark, allegedly confessed slayer of 18-year-old Ethel Zuckerman a year ago, was held without bail today as the district attorney prepared to present the case to the grand jury. The 44-year-old Clark will be arraigned tomorrow on a charge of murder.

Deputy Superintendent James Clafin said Clark confessed he killed the girl because she refused to marry him. He was arrested last night after a woman with whom he had been friendly, told Clafin she suspected him of committing the crime.

The Zuckerman girl was slain on the night of Dec. 20, a year ago. Alone for a short period in the bakeshop where she worked, Ethel was found transfixed to the floor by a long breadknife.

Richberg, director of the National Emergency Council, and former general counsel of NRA, told the Post he understood it planned to publish articles by Johnson, former NRA administrator, that amounted to "character assassination."

From Okmulgee, Okla., Johnson said Richberg's letters "are just a symptom of the ants of conscience in his pants."

Richberg said only one copy of his letters, dated Dec. 14, was made. The original went to the Post and a copy to the Journal, which is to publish General Johnson's book which is to contain the articles to be printed in the Post.

George Horace Lorimer, Post Editor, had no comment other than that neither he nor the magazine gave out the Richberg communication.

Richberg wrote that the Post "may have assumed that General Johnson's statement can be relied upon and can be supported by evidence which would be given credence in a court."

"On the other hand," he said, "many of the charges which General Johnson has lately made in private conversations regarding me and my book can be completely disproved by documentary evidence and the testimony of a large number of credible witnesses."

Richberg said he had been informed by persons in a position to know that the assault upon him were in the projected book from which the articles are to be taken.

"Donald is a high official," Johnson tartly rejoined. "If he thinks there is libel in this narration, why doesn't he start a libel suit against me?"

During Johnson's last agitated session as NRA administrator he broke with Richberg and Labor Secretary Frances Perkins also on the question of NRA reorganization.

anyhow she thinks you're powerful good. But she says she can't tell Alfred nothing 'cause he ain't asked her to marry him yet. But she says that she'll see to it that they stay here forever 'an' work much. 'Ask her why they were going to leave?'

Before the Mexican girl had ceased to reply, sudden fear filled Ann's face. The Indian woman did not translate Magda's words; she left the kitchen, crossed the back porch and entered her room.

Magda looked at Ruth, puzzled. "The man say we go?"

Ruth smiled and shook her head. "No go, Magda."

"No, no, no—ah, mil, mil gracias, Señora!"

"There is a tradition in southern Arizona and northwestern Mexico that the summer rains begin on the Day of San Juan—the twenty-fourth of June. Especially is this tradition strong in the San Jorge Valley, for here that the venerable Ambrosio Vega is said to have kept rain records for six and forty years. The discerning still say they can make out his records scratched in the adobe—just left of the altar niche—in the ruin which was once a shrine."

English Teacher Enjoys Joke Gift

HALIFAX, Dec. 25—(C.P.)—A five duck presented him during class was proving a difficult problem to J. Clyde Douglas, teacher of English at the Halifax Academy today.

The problem of housing his new pet is acute, he says, but she is being kept for the time being at the home of his parents in Armdale on the outskirts of the city.

"I want to find her a home not too far away where I can go and see her often. She is too pretty to kill," teacher Douglas explains. "I am going to teach her some tricks if I can."

Fully conscious "it was the most original prank ever played on me," the teacher has already become very fond of his new pet which he affectionately calls "Henrietta."

Henrietta was presented to Mr. Douglas at the last class before Christmas holidays began. News of the gift spread rapidly, and teachers and scholars rapidly filled the classroom where Henrietta waddled in state and quacked unconcerned.

"I don't know who thought of it," the teacher stated today. "Such an idea would never have occurred to me."

Claims U. S. Teams Are Commercialized

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, Dec. 25—Charging that amateur ice hockey in the United States is being commercialized and professionalized by "companies owning and operating buildings" where the game is played, a joint meeting of the Amateur Skating Union of the United States and the American Olympic Speed Skating Committee today approved a resolution asking the Amateur Athletic Union to put control of the sport under the direction of the skating group.

The resolution, offered by Judge John D. Watts of Detroit, President of the Michigan Skating Association, and unanimously adopted, contends that the A. A. U. since it assumed direction of amateur hockey has not kept evil from creeping in.

Judge Watts claimed that, under the terms of the "importation of foreign amateur ice hockey players has created a situation whereby employment has been given foreign labor solely on ability to play ice hockey, in many instances putting Americans out of jobs."

The resolution also asks that operating buildings where ice hockey is played, have assumed directorship over amateur ice hockey for their own monetary gain, if effect professionalizing the game.

CEPHAS NUNN

After an illness, patiently borne, for nearly a year, the spirit of Cephas Nunn, departed this life and returned to the God who gave it. About a year ago the deceased entered P. E. Island Hospital. It was quickly discovered that there was little hope of a complete recovery. Mr. Nunn returned home where he was tenderly cared for by his wife, under whose care he rallied only to sink back on Nov. 16th, when he passed peacefully away from this vale of tears.

The deceased was born at North Winooski, 77 years ago. He spent practically all his life in the community in which he was born. Mr. Nunn was greatly interested in the promotion of live stock, particularly sheep, exhibited at all the Maritime Agricultural Exhibitions, at which he won many prizes. This activity enlarged his circle of friends throughout the Maritime Provinces.

He leaves to mourn his passing besides his wife, two sons, Oliver and Lorne, both of North Winooski, P. E. I. and four daughters; Mrs. Elsie Mobs of Winchester, Mass., Mrs. Joseph Shackley, of Philadelphia, Penn., Mrs. Herbert Sproule of Hanover, Mass., and Mrs. Chas. Phillips of Brackley, P. E. I. One brother William, of Oyster Bed Bridge, P. E. I.

The funeral service was held at the house on Saturday Nov. 17, and was conducted by the Rev. Thos. Palethorpe, in the presence of a large gathering of neighbors and friends, gathered to pay their last respects. Interment was made in the cemetery at North Winooski, not far from where the deceased was born.

The Pall-bearers were, Joseph Younker, George Younker, Lemuel Cadmore, Albert Cadmore, James Shaw and Benjamin Smith. The funeral arrangements were in the capable hands of McLean's Undertaking Parlors, Charlottetown.

SKIERS DRESSING WITH EFFICIENCY

(By The Canadian Press) MONTREAL, Dec. 25—To its devotees skiing is, after all, rather a serious business. That is perhaps why the more expert skiers among the women who follow the Laurentian trails near Montreal still prefer a certain severity of dress.

The darker shades of navy blue, black and Oxford grey are in favor with windproof jackets and rather full skirts that shed the snow and ankle cuffs.

In the accessories, there is a greater tendency to bright color. Caps, mitts, sweaters, scarves and sock run to lighter hues. Even here, however, there appears a desire to avoid anything that might seem too frivolous. Sailing down a dangerous ski trail, the first consideration is efficiency.

Spare the children from suffering from worms by using Miller's Worm Powders, the most effective vermifuge that can be got with which to combat these insidious foes of the young and helpless. There is nothing that excels this preparation when it comes to destroying, and when its qualities become known in a household no other will be used. The medicine acts by itself, requiring no purgative to assist it and so thoroughly that nothing more is desired.

SCOTLAND GETS GREATER QUANTITY FLOUR AND WHEAT FROM CANADA

Scotland takes 56 percent of her flour requirements from Canada, according to the Industrial Department of the Canadian National Railways. The two great importing ports are Glasgow and Leith. During the first six months of this year Scotland took 65 1-2 percent of her requirements in wheat from Canada, the highest in recent years. Of the total wheat passing through Glasgow, Canadian wheat accounted for 65 percent and through Leith 67 percent.

Nerve Force And Seeing

The relation of seeing and the consumption of nerve force is an interesting topic. Pages could be written about it—and have been. Briefly—all seeing consumes energy. The more imperfect the eyes the more nerve force is consumed. The completion in some cases is excessive. Then come headaches, nervous attacks and what not. The cause—the eyes must first be considered.
